Follow a Stranger Charlotte Lamb,1973 Will You Follow Him? John Troyer,2025-02-16 Most of us came to Jesus because of a desperate need just like those in Bible times and He gave us what we asked for Our lives were changed Unfortunately our focus on the self easily drives us to selfishly use what He gives us Jesus changed the lives of everyone who came to Him but not everyone responded the same way Some fell on their knees and worshipped Him while others didn't even stop to thank Him But there were a few who were so awed by this Man that they gave up everything to follow denying themselves to serve Him What's your response to what Jesus did for you To Follow Him Mark Bailey,2011-04-13 Most Christians know that Jesus commanded his followers to Go therefore and make disciples of all nations Yet many remain unclear about what Christ intended such a disciple should be or do Recognizing that now more than ever believers need clear biblical teaching on this all important subject author Mark Bailey provides a biblical measuring stick to help readers discern what it means to be the type of disciple Christ urges us to be Drawing upon humor simple visuals and memorable principles to drive home this vital message Bailey offers a fresh authoritative teaching for the 90s on what it means to be a true disciple

on the Theory of Religious Belief Blessed John Henry Newman, Aeterna Press, FEW charges have been more frequently urged by unbelievers against Revealed Religion than that it is hostile to the advance of philosophy and science That it has discouraged the cultivation of literature can never with any plausibility be maintained since it is evident that the studies connected with the history and interpretation of the Scriptures have more than any others led to inquiries into the languages writings and events of ancient times Christianity has always been a learned religion it came into the world as the offspring of an elder system to which it was indebted for much which it contained and which its professors were obliged continually to consult The Pagan philosopher on enrolling himself a member of the Christian Church was invited nay required to betake himself to a line of study almost unknown to the schools of Greece The Jewish books were even written in a language which he did not understand and opened to his view an account of manners and customs very different from those with which he was familiar Aeterna Press
