topics     German Literature as a Transnational Field of Production, 1848-1919 Lynne Tatlock, Kurt Beals, 2023 A collection of new essays bringing into view the push and pull of the national and the international in the German language cultural field of the period The cultural formations of the so called Age of Nationalism 1848 1919 have shaped German language literary studies to the present day for better or worse Literary histories German self representations the view from abroad all of these perspectives offer images of a culture ever more concerned with formulating a coherent nationally focused idea of its origins history and cultural community But even in this historical moment the German speaking territories were not culturally self contained international forces always played a significant role in the constitution of the so called German literary and cultural field This volume rethinks the historical period with fourteen case studies that bring into view the push and pull of the national and international in Germany Austria and Switzerland undertaking a reframing of literary cultural history that recognizes the interrelatedness of literatures and cultures across political and linguistic boundaries Viewing even overtly national literary and cultural projects as belonging to an international system these case studies examine the interrelations organization and positioning of the agents forces enterprises and processes that constituted the German language literary cultural field locating these ostensibly national developments within an inter or even anti national context     Language Culture Type John D. (ed.). Berry, 2002 Language Culture Type grew out of the first international type design competition the 2001 bukva raz whose goal was to promote global cultural pluralism interaction and diversity in typographic communications The book lavishly presents the winning entries along with information about each typeface its language and its designer A series of essays gives context for the interplay of types and languages in the world today including the attempt to mesh all existing scripts into a single digital encoding system called Unicode It also delves into the specific issues around developing typefaces for the many linguistic cultures in the world from the various Cyrillic letterforms to Vietnam s ancient ideographic script     Babel of the Atlantic Bethany Wiggin, 2019-04-24 Despite shifting trends in the study of Oceanic Atlantic history the colonial Atlantic world as it is described by historians today continues to be a largely English only space even when other language communities are examined they too are considered to be monolingual and discrete Babel of the Atlantic pushes back against this monolingual fallacy by documenting multilingualism translation and fluid movement across linguistic borders Focusing on Philadelphia and surrounding areas that include Germantown Bethlehem and the so called Indian country to the west this volume demonstrates the importance of viewing inhabitants not as members of isolated language communities whether English German Lenape Mohican or others but as creators of a vibrant zone of mixed languages and shifting politics Organized around four themes religion education race and abolitionism and material culture and architecture and drawing from archives such as almanacs newspapers and the material world the chapters in this volume show how polyglot tolerant and multilingual spaces encouraged diverse peoples to coexist Contributors examine subjects such as the multicultural Moravian communities in colonial Pennsylvania the Charity School movement of the 1750s and the activities of

Quaker abolitionists showing how educational and religious movements addressed and embraced cultural and linguistic variety Drawing early American scholarship beyond the normative narrative of monolingualism this volume will be invaluable to historians and sociolinguists whose work focuses on Pennsylvania and colonial revolutionary and antebellum America In addition to the editor the contributors include Craig Atwood Patrick M Erben Cynthia G Falk Katherine Faull Wolfgang Fl gel Katharine Gerbner Maruice Jackson Lisa Minardi J rgen Overhoff and Birte Pfleger Anglo-American Encyclopedia ,1910
