Cipolla,1972 The Fontana Economic History of Europe ,1979 The Fontana Economic History of Europe C.M. Cipolla,1976 The Sources of Social Power: Volume 2, The Rise of Classes and Nation-States, 1760-1914 Michael Mann,2012-09-24 This second volume deals with power relations between the Industrial Revolution and the First World War The World Turned Upside Down? R. J. Barry Jones,2000 This book interrogates the widespread claim that contemporary globalization has ended the centrality of the state in world affairs and is effectively irreversible It offers discriminating definitions of globalization internationalization and international interdependence and demonstrates the analytical and empirical difficulties generated by these concepts Unsettled Account Richard S. Grossman,2020-05-26 A sweeping look at the evolution of commercial banks over the past two centuries Commercial banks are among the oldest and most familiar financial institutions When they work well we hardly notice when they do not we rail against them What are the historical forces that have shaped the modern banking system In Unsettled Account Richard Grossman takes the first truly comparative look at the development of commercial banking systems over the past two centuries in Western Europe the United States Canada Japan and Australia Grossman focuses on four major elements that have contributed to banking evolution crises bailouts mergers and regulations He explores where banking crises come from and why certain banking systems are more resistant to crises than others how governments and financial systems respond to crises why merger movements suddenly take off and what motivates governments to regulate banks Grossman reveals that many of the same components underlying the history of banking evolution are at work today The recent subprime mortgage crisis had its origins like many earlier banking crises in a boom bust economic cycle Grossman finds that important historical elements are also at play in modern bailouts merger movements and regulatory reforms Unsettled Account is a fascinating and informative must read for anyone who wants to understand how the modern commercial banking system came to be where it is headed and how its development will affect global economic growth Kicking Away the Ladder Ha-Joon Chang,2002 How did the rich countries really become rich In this provocative study Ha Joon Chang examines the great pressure on developing countries from the developed world to adopt certain good policies and good institutions seen today as necessary for economic development His conclusions are compelling and disturbing that developed countries are attempting to kick away the ladder with which they have climbed to the top thereby preventing developing countries from adopting policies and institutions that they themselves have used
