Romano Guardini Romano Guardini, 2023-03-01 This book is not just a history To be sure it offers an historical account of the life of Romano Guardini 1885-1968 as recounted by Guardini himself However it is not simply about the past Precisely because it deals with the life of a faithful and thoughtful person the book is also about the present and projects itself into the future For as Guardini always insisted leading a thoughtful and faithful life means being oriented toward the good life that is toward the vision of a just and loving community This orientation does not just happen by itself nor can it be imposed or dictated from above but has to be nurtured steadily by hearts open to the voice of the Spirit and the call of truth Seen in this way Romano Guardini occupies a crucial place in the world in his world in ours and in the world to come As he emphasizes beautifully at the end of his memoir Narratives of My Life Autobiographical Notes he never considered himself as an isolated individual nor as the spokesman of a dominant ideology or doctrine Rather his work was always energised by and in dialogue with a broader context a context which one of his mentors Max Scheler aptly called the life world

The Memoirs of Toussaint and Isaac Louverture Arthur F. Saint-Aubin, 2015-07-15 This book examines the memoir of Toussaint Louverture a former slave general in the French army and leader of the Haitian Revolution and the memoir of his son Isaac The Revolution and its leaders have been studied and written about extensively Until recently 2004 however the memoir of Toussaint has received little attention and only as a historical document This is the first study that explores the 1802 work foremost as a literary text a creative production that deploys the techniques of fiction and drama to make truth claims about the past moreover this is the first book length study of Isaac Louverture s memoir The two texts are read as examples of how black men thought of themselves as men citizens and therefore how they expressed their masculinity at that historical moment as experiences of mourning and loss This study builds upon three areas of scholarship the tradition of memoir writing historicist readings of Toussaint s memoir and descriptions and theories of men and masculinity within the black Atlantic The study distinguishes itself in ways that will make it of interest to more than just historians in addition to using the intersection of race and masculinity as an analytical tool it speaks to the nature of literary creativity and it draws from studies examining the relationship between history memory and fiction As a result scholars and students in literary and cultural criticism as well as those in gender and diasporic studies will also find this study of interest and value
