Footprints Special Reflections On The Best Loved Poem:

Come Ride With Me Lorraine Dube, 2011-02-17 When Lorraine Dube went for her annual mammogram on September 4 1997 she asked the technician for compression films of her upper chest area right front shoulder and underarm areas She explained that for almost a year she had felt a pulling sensation in these areas Although her doctor had assured her many times that it was nothing probably just an after effect of the radiation treatment she had after her lumpectomy seven and a half years earlier she still had a nagging concern about that odd tight feeling in her chest When the technician took the films it was five times more painful than when she did the routine compression shots of the breast Tears were running down Lorraine s face but she not dare move Four days later her doctor called Lorraine this is Dr V How long have you had that mass in your chest You have to see a surgeon immediately Lorraine asked herself why Dr V had ignored her concerns all those times She reprimanded herself for not seeking a second opinion when she first experienced that pulling sensation and did not feel comfortable with his lack of response to her concern So many things went through her mind yet memories of her own lumpectomy were just the tip of the iceberg She relived the horror of more than thirty years earlier when as a mother of three small children at age 22 she heard those terrible words from Dr DeVillers about her 26 year old husband s cancer condition four to six weeks the doctor had said All of this flashed through her mind at speed warp ten literally in just a few seconds Her life path had taken her through quite a few coaster rides throughout her 57 years but all those were kiddie rides compared to this one And so the mother of all roller coaster rides of life began with that fateful phone call from Dr V Lorraine Dube beat the odds She beat that aggressive Stage 3 sarcoma lodged in her chest wall But the battle was not without many many scars In the process she lost five ribs all her lymph nodes in the right arm area a piece of her clavicle most of the use of her right arm and hand and nearly her life After seven surgeries chemotherapy treatments experimental brachytherapy and countless battles with infection including a flesh eating bacteria inside her chest wall Lorraine Dube was cancer free but left suffering from chronic debilitating pain a souvenir from her ordeal that she would carry for the rest of her life Lorraine was a survivor always had been But this time it was different Why had God spared her from the terrible cancer and its aftermath of surgery infections and lost body parts only to leave her suffering from such unimaginable pain The cancer was gone but at what cost What the heck was she supposed to do with the rest of her life On her way to figuring it out her daughter suggested that she write a book about her life Don t worry about writing a best seller Mom Just write it from the heart Write it for your grandsons Five years later Ms Dube began writing this book the story of her life She tells the story of her life from the earliest recollections of childhood through the sometimes rough years of adulthood all with a few purposes in mind She wants to tell her grandsons about her history their history and to relate all her adult experiences some good some bad some easy some tough all with the purpose of showing them that they too are survivors like their Memere Her message Life may indeed be a roller coaster but nothing is impossible Somewhere along the line writing this book became Lorraine s therapy

She began to make peace with and sense of the chronic pain that gripped her and kept her from leading the life she wanted the life she expected After all her golden years were supposed to be her happiest This book Journey Through the White Terror Kang-i Sun Chang, 2013-02-25 Kang i Sun Chang is Malcolm G Chace 56 Professor of East Asian Languages and Literatures at Yale University In her memoir Journey Through the White Terror she tells the powerful story of her father Paul Sun 1919 2007 Along with numerous others Sun was imprisoned more than 60 years ago during the White Terror the decade following the withdrawal of Chiang Kai shek s Nationalist government from Mainland China to Taiwan in mid December 1949 During this time the Nationalist government implemented a policy of better to kill ten thousand by mistake than to set one free by oversight and as a result many innocent civilians such as the author s father became victims of ferocious searches and persecutions At the time of her father s arrest Prof Chang was not quite six years old when her father returned home she was almost sixteen Having witnessed the injustice of her father s imprisonment and the freedom their family later enjoyed in America she felt compelled to write this story Prof Chang s account of how the family survived the White Terror makes her book one of the most intense and thrilling works on the subject But the book is also about soul searching and the healing of a childhood trauma It is a true story about the triumph of the human spirit in the face of adversity Love and religion in such circumstances prove to be the ultimate deliverance All this is described in considerable detail in this extraordinary memoir

Margaret Fishback Powers, Zondervan, 2004-02-01 For years countless lives have been touched by the popular Footprints poem These attractive new Footprints books include complementing Scripture selections and short reflections on the best loved poem that make them the perfect gift for the special person in your life How the Earth Feels Dana

Luciano, 2023-12-04 In How the Earth Feels Dana Luciano examines the impacts of the new science of geology on nineteenth century US culture Drawing on early geological writings Indigenous and settler accounts of earthquakes African American antislavery literature and other works Luciano reveals how geology catalyzed transformative conversations regarding the intersections between humans and the nonhuman world She shows that understanding the earth's history geologically involved confronting the dynamic nature of inorganic matter over vast spans of time challenging preconceived notions of human agency Nineteenth century Americans came to terms with these changes through a fusion of fact and imagination that Luciano calls geological fantasy Geological fantasy transformed the science into a sensory experience sponsoring affective and even erotic connections to the matter of the earth At the same time it was often used to justify accounts of evolution that posited a modern civilized and Anglo American whiteness as the pinnacle of human development By tracing geology's relationship with biopower Luciano illuminates how imagined connections with the earth shaped American dynamics of power race and colonization The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1913

Keeping It Real Rev. Dr. Margaret Jean Howard, 2022 Life is precious and everyone should make the most of it This book is about experiencing the joys of living in the face of adversities It's about remaining loyal to one's goals and aspirations in life and accepting responsibilities for the present and future It's about bringing forth life and being unprepared for what was required and being willing to learn in the moment as life unfolds It's about committing to being the best mother one could be because every child is a gift from God and deserves to be loved unconditionally It's about never giving up on oneself and learning from one's failures and successes It's about a hope for a better tomorrow and being grateful in the present It is also about discovering the love of God and learning to live to please God each day Pegadas na Areia - 50
