Reflections on War, Diplomacy, Human Rights and Liberalism Adam Hughes Henry, 2020-12-01 For most people the idea that extremist ideologies glorify themselves through warfare and commit crimes against humanity and genocide is the natural extension of their moral and philosophical failings As this volume outlines liberal democracies such as Australia and others also glorify in war and they may also at various times engage in support or turn a blind eye to crimes against humanity or genocide However liberal democracies such as Australia the US and the UK among others routinely present themselves as arbiters of liberal values defenders of human rights and guardians of virtue This book explores the obvious contradiction between the ideals of liberalism and how liberal democracies ignore and at times even justify their failure to uphold the principles they espouse

Invading Australia Peter Stanley, 2008-06-03 1942 was a key year in Australia's history As its people had so long feared White Australia an outpost of empire seemed about to be invaded by the Japanese In that one year Darwin was bombed submarines torpedoed ships in Sydney Harbour and Australian Militiamen died on the Kokoda Trail Each year more and more Australians celebrate Anzac Day and honour the lives of those who fought for their country There is even a push to create a new public holiday in remembrance and celebration of the Battle for Australia But was there ever really such a battle and how close did Australia actually come to being invaded Invading Australia provides a comprehensive thorough and well argued examination of these and other pertinent questions Peter Stanley writes compellingly about Australian attitudes to Japan before during and after World War II and uses archival sources to discuss Japan's war plans early in 1942 He also shows that rather than a Battle for Australia there was a worldwide fight for freedom and democracy that has allowed the West to enjoy great prosperity in the decades since 1945

British Military Operations in Egypt and the Sudan Harold E. Raugh Jr., 2008-05-02 The British Army's campaigns in Egypt and the Sudan from 1882 to 1899 were among the most dramatic and hard fought in British military history In 1882 the British sent an expeditionary force to Egypt to quell the Arabic Revolt and secure British control of the Suez Canal its lifeline to India The enigmatic British Major General Charles G Gordon was sent to the Sudan in 1884 to study the possibility of evacuating Egyptian garrisons threatened by Muslim fanatics the dervishes in the Sudan While the dervishes defeated the British forces on a number of occasions the British eventually learned to combat the insurrection and ultimately largely through superior technology and firepower vanquished the insurgents in 1898 British Operations in Egypt and the Sudan A Selected Bibliography enumerates and generally describes and annotates hundreds of contemporary current and hard to find books journal articles government documents and personal papers on all aspects of British military operations in Egypt and the Sudan from 1882 to 1899 Arranged chronologically and topically chapters cover the various campaigns focusing on specific battles leading military personalities and the contributions of imperial nations as well as supporting services of the British Army This definitive volume is an indispensable reference for researching imperialism colonial history and British military operations leadership and tactics Australians, a Historical Atlas Jack Charles Robert Camm, John McQuilton, 1987 Contains sections on Aborigines and the land Soldier settlement Australia country houses Sydney Hobart Perth Adelaide Melbourne Brisbane Darwin Canberra Railways Tramways Religions in Australia Schools and education in Australia School of the air Convicts Bushrangers and Larrikins Submarine raid on Sydney Harbour Australian war casualties Kokoda Trail Prisoners of war in Australia The Great Depression The Official History of Australia in the War of 1914-1918: The Australian flying corps in the western and eastern theatres of war 1914-1918, by F.M.
