For Bread Alone Mohamed Choukri, 2012-02-13 Driven by famine from their home in the Rif Mohamed's family walks to Tangier in search of a better life But things are no better there Eight of Mohamed's siblings die of malnutrition and neglect and one is killed by his father in a fit of rage On moving to another province Mohamed learns how to charm and steal and discovers the joys of drugs sex and alcohol Proud insolent and afraid of no one he returns to Tangier where he is caught up in the violence of the 1952 independence riots It is here during a short spell in a filthy Moroccan jail that a fellow inmate kindles Mohamed's life altering love of literature A true document of human desperation shattering in its impact Tennessee Williams Its unrelenting realism has produced a masterpiece In Choukri's African Islamic coastal cities the nightmares are of fathers killing children and the agony of hunger Choukri's memories take him from famine in the Rif to Tangier and Oran a world of crime paid for sex and of living poor It is an urban pain where every day the alleys swallow me up and spew me out A book to read cherish and remember and to show us again why we need books as well as bread Morning Star An extraordinarily vivid uncensored immediacy Using only undemonstrative prose and asking for no special sympathy Choukri conveys the experience of struggling to survive in a harsh world of dusty streets and unforgiving sunlight Guardian Five stars Achingly elegant Choukri's irrepressible ultimately indomitable spirit is most touching and human Independent Richly descriptive and engaging an honest and vivid account Definitely an enjoyable and worthwhile read Socialist Review A cult classic Choukri's text has become a staple on the syllabi of modern Arabic comparative literature and post colonial studies programs Daily Star The most poetic exploration of that world of vice coffee conversation and intrigue One of the most widely read modernist novels in the Arab world Outsideleft com Desiring Arabs Joseph A.

Massad, 2008-09-15 Sexual desire has long played a key role in Western judgments about the value of Arab civilization In the past Westerners viewed the Arab world as licentious and Western intolerance of sex led them to brand Arabs as decadent but as Western society became more sexually open the supposedly prudish Arabs soon became viewed as backward Rather than focusing exclusively on how these views developed in the West in Desiring Arabs Joseph A Massad reveals the history of how Arabs represented their own sexual desires To this aim he assembles a massive and diverse compendium of Arabic writing from the nineteenth century to the present in order to chart the changes in Arab sexual attitudes and their links to Arab notions of cultural heritage and civilization A work of impressive scope and erudition Massad's chronicle of both the history and modern permutations of the debate over representations of sexual desires and practices in the Arab world is a crucial addition to our understanding of a frequently oversimplified and vilified culture A pioneering work on a very timely yet frustratingly neglected topic I know of no other study that can even begin to compare with the detail and scope of this work Khaled El Rouayheb Middle East Report In Desiring Arabs Edward Said's disciple Joseph A Massad corroborates his mentor's thesis that orientalist writing was racist and dehumanizing Massad brilliantly goes on to trace the legacy of this racist internalized orientalist discourse up to the present Financial Times

An Analysis of the protagonist's journeys in Mohamed Choukri's "For Bread Alone" Sophie

Duhnkrack,2010-01-13 Thesis M A from the year 2009 in the subject Orientalism Sinology Arabistic grade 90 Ben Gurion University course Arabic Literature language English abstract In 1973 the English translation For Bread Alone of Mohamed Choukri s Al Khubz Al Hafi was published This first part of Choukri s extraordinary autobiography is written in a very simplistic style which Paul Bowles the translator of For Bread Alone also described as a technique Choukri s narration is the work of an illiterate who has not yet learned to classify what goes into his memory 5 The novel illustrates the protagonist s struggle to survive under exceptionally difficult circumstances namely extreme poverty and violence Indeed Mohamed Choukri states that all my life has been a response to one challenge after the other The novel is constructed as a rihla journey both an earlier external one of physical movement and a later one which this paper will describe as internal First this paper will explore the external journey which leads the protagonist Mohamed to different cities and places and it will analyze the language structure and content which express this travel this first journey is dominated by his family whose relationship with Mohamed is also central to this study Furthermore it will examine the transition from this journey to the internal one by means of the content and the structure of the text The internal rihla which prevails in the second part of the novel and which the paper will address by means of the text s language and content obviously is not separate from the external journey since the story is about the development of one and the same person The second journey that describes his existence as a teenager replaces the first physical one lived as a child However this paper will divide the two rihlas in order to carve out its differences and to show Mohamed s development which eventually leads to his emancipation through literacy Finally the paper will address some personal impressions and remarks on the novel Desert Songs John R. Maier,Professor of English

Sheetrit, 2020-02-27 This book examines the poetics of autobiographical masterpieces written in Arabic by Leila Abouzeid Hanan al Shaykh Samuel Shimon Abd al Rahman Munif Salim Barakat Mohamed Choukri and Hanna Abu Hanna These literary works articulate the life story of each author in ways that undermine the expectation that the self the auto of autobiography would be the dominant narrative focus Although every autobiography naturally includes and relates to others to one degree or another these autobiographies tend to foreground other characters voices places and texts to the extent that at times it appears as though the autobiographical subject has dropped out of sight even to the point of raising the question is this an autobiography These are indeed autobiographies Sheetrit argues albeit articulating the story of the self in unconventional ways Sheetrit offers in depth literary studies that expose each text s distinct strategy for life narrative Crucial to this book s approach is the innovative theoretical foundation of relational autobiography that reveals the grounding of the self within the collective not as symbolic of it This framework exposes the intersection of the story of the autobiographical subject with the stories of others and the tensions between personal and communal discourse Relational strategies for self representation expose a movement between two seemingly opposing desires the desire to separate and dissociate from others and the desire to engage and integrate within a particular relationship community culture or milieu This interplay between disentangling and conscious entangling constitutes the leitmotif that unites the studies in this book Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Naguib Mahfouz at Sidi Gaber : reflections of a Nobel laureate : 1994-2001 : from conversations with Mohamed Salmawy Najib Maḥfūz, 2001 This volume published on the occasion of the Nobel laureate's 90th birthday brings together a selection of the more personal reflective pieces that have appeared over the past seven years They reveal a writer concerned as always with the human condition with his own thought processes and with the craft of writing offering rare insights into the way a great writer thinks and works The range and quality of writing is even more remarkable when one remembers that since a nearly fatal knife attack in 1994 the injuries Mahfouz sustained combined with his failing eyesight have made it almost impossible for him to write But as a man who has devoted his life to the written word Mahfouz now prepares his weekly articles through conversations with his friend Mohamed Salmawy who has selected and gathered the pieces in this collection
