

How to Write an Autobiography

Tips to write an autobiography:

Like the examples of autobiographies discussed above, any autobiography needs to deal with a few aspects:

Introduction: One needs to give an introduction about themselves in the autobiography. This introduction needs to contain basic aspects like name, where you live, when and where were you born, what conditions were you born in, etc.

You in totality: This part of the autobiography deals with a general point of view, that you hold about yourself. It also needs to let the reader be able to visualize you in the current day. You need to include your current situations, habits, lifestyle etc.

Life, in general: This part of the autobiography deals with your view about life, on a general note. You need to include your understanding of life and its implications. This part is your route to propound your belief. So, make it descriptive.

View and aims: Here, you talk about where do you see yourself in the future or what you expect to happen in the future. This part, mostly, should be in compatibility with the previous aspect, else your reader could get confused and lose interest in the book.

Conclusion: Like all stories, an autobiography also needs to have an apt conclusion. You can leave a lasting impression on the reader with the help of your conclusion. Remember, you do not need to have a "moral of the story". You can simply end it with hope, if you like.

Always remember, it is your autobiography, not an example of an autobiography, you can write it the way you like. So, experiment and enjoy. As they say, "if you find it interesting while writing it, the reader will find it interesting while reading it". This is where I sign off. Hope to find your autobiography on the stands soon!!

The first thing you do when writing an autobiography is start off with a lot of facts about

Our Human Herds: The Theory of Dual Morality (Second Edition, Unabridged) Stephen Martin Fritz, 2019-05-14 Let us imagine that somewhere in present day South America a nation exists as the United States was constituted in 1789 George Washington is its president and Thomas Jefferson its secretary of state It is a nation that allows only white males to vote and its president cabinet officials and many of its citizens own slaves If the America of 1789 existed right now what would we think of it Would it be right to invade it in order to liberate its people Would we consider a complete embargo of it until it changed its ways Would it be a pariah among nations Or would we recognize and cooperate with it declaring its president and secretary of state political geniuses Maybe we would just do nothing and trust that in 100 or so years it will straighten itself out What would be the correct way to think of such a nation and its leaders Three hundred years ago if a woman was raped and became pregnant we'd kill the rapist and spare the baby Today we spare the rapist and kill the baby One hundred years ago only heterosexual marriages were legal Today political leaders around the world are celebrating gay relationships How and why does our moral outlook change in such matters By the time you are done reading this book you will have concrete answers to these questions and many more This is a learned thoroughly researched study and dazzlingly bright The effervescent approach to writing makes its pages fly by Studies as brilliant as this one deserve a far wider audience An engrossing and mind expanding examination of morality
