For Dust Thou Art:

For His Glory Heidi L. Smith, 2013-06 Growing up on her family's cotton plantation in eastern Virginia Amelia Cole has lived a life of comfort and plenty But many around her are not so fortunate When a group of slaves are abruptly sold off to a neighboring planter Amelia is forced to face the harsh reality of the slave system which flourishes all around her Awakened to the suffering of those in bondage because of the color of their skin she begins to question the justice of slavery and the society she was born into wondering where God fits into the picture if He fits at all With the help of a slave woman a traveling preacher and a drifting laborer with a tragic past Amelia sets out on a journey to find the truth about the questions that plague her The answers she discovers will change her life forever A Select Library of the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church: St. Augustin: On the Holy Trinity. studies of the patients ailments The author is a scientist and a surgeon He studied anatomy and embryology in full details that makes him argue with confidence The doctrine of creation has a solid foundation which is the true word of God The author used the results of surgical procedures that are done by spiritual knowledge compared to others done by natural man whose knowledge is based on the theory of evolution These have changed the procedures from difficult and complicated to a single day procedure with financial gains to the patient and to the public The relation between sin diseases and death is studied and proved beyond doubt The salvation by justification sanctification and righteousness is explained and also proved beyond doubt Man is created and evolved to a higher degree of holiness by the working power of the Holy Spirit contrary to evolution by genetic mutation and natural selection that might promote the man to a high intellectual standard but this usually brings low moral value with it that at the end lead to death from moral decay alcoholism and drug addiction The evolution is produced by knowledge and experience and it carries with it away from God all the destructive elements to humans
