The Gold Hunters' Adventures; Or, Life in Australia William Henry Thomes, 1874 The Gold Hunters' adventures
William Henry Thomes, 1864 Janet's boys Annette Lyster, 2025-03-02 In Janet's Boys Annette Lyster masterfully weaves a poignant narrative that explores the complexities of motherhood identity and societal expectations within a small town context. The prose is rich and lyrical, embodying a blend of realism and impressionism that immerses readers in the emotional landscape of the protagonist Janet Set against the backdrop of a changing social fabric, the novel deftly examines themes of familial obligation, ambition, and personal sacrifice, presenting a compelling portrait of a woman grappling with her roles as a mother and an individual in a patriarchal society. Annette Lyster, an acclaimed author and educator, draws upon her own experiences and deep understanding of women's lived realities to craft this evocative tale. Her background in social work and her research into maternal roles inform the nuanced characters and vivid settings. Lyster's ability to capture the subtleties of emotions and relationships is rooted in her commitment to highlighting the triumphs and tribulations of women whose stories remain largely untold in contemporary literature. Janet's Boys is a heartwarming and thought-provoking read that resonates deeply with anyone who has experienced the joys and challenges of raising children. Lyster's authentic voice and empathetic narrative invite readers to reflect on their own lives and the legacies of maternal love. This book is essential for those interested in feminist literature and the exploration of women's issues.

The Prey Of The Necromancer Rachel Lawson, 2024-08-07 PART 1 The Man Who Wouldn't Stay Dead Fred Alexander is kidnapped by a man who wants him dead and he takes Fred to a place he doesn't know to kill him but he won't stay dead no matter how many times he kills him he keeps coming back to life. Fred Alexander woke up cold, naked, and afraid in a dark cupboard one day after he'd been to the pub. He thought he must have been really drunk to be like this and wondered if he'd done something stupid. Fred, being an enchanter, tried to leave with magic without opening the door. Being naked, it would look a little odd to just stroll outside. Realising someone had cast an entrapment spell on it, it wasn't one of his kind, the magicians; it was more likely a human, it was clumsy but effective. Fred realised it was a trap and he couldn't escape. Fred saw blood on the floor, his blood. He was confused and scared. PART 2 The Eye Of The Storm Fred Alexander sees something that is devastating an eyewitness blackmails him with some photos of him. Who will he have to kill and is it even possible if he wants to? organizations Goodman proposes that insecure attachment categories can be correlated with particular constellations of self and object representations Such convergences provide a springboard to further theoretical explanations most especially to the relations between attachment and adult sexual behavior Indeed one outstanding feature of Goodman s proposals is the light they cast on various forms and meanings of sexual psychopathology as he delineates how both promiscuity and retreats from sexual intimacy can be differentially interpreted depending on the patient s pattern of attachment Destined to provoke lively debate The Internal World and Attachment is a powerfully informative attempt to go beyond the researcher s view of attachment as a motivational system For Goodman attachment is informed by an internal logic that reflects fantasies and defense and an appreciation of the interaction of attachment pattern with various constellations of self and object representations can deepen our understanding of the internal world in clinically consequential ways Keeping his eye resolutely on the clinical texture of attachment observations and the clinical phenomenology expressive of internal object relations Goodman provides the reader with an experience near basis for viewing two influential bodies of knowledge as complementary avenues for apprehending the internal meaning of externally observable behavior
