off into this wood and sat down by the side of this fountain and when she felt dull would often divert herself by throwing a golden ball up in the air and catching it They had not proceeded far when the Prince heard a crack as if something had broken behind the carriage so he put his head out of the window and asked Henry what was broken and Henry answered It was not the carriage my master but a band which I bound round my heart when it was in such grief because you were changed into a frog She was dreadfully cold as she drew near the rock but seeing a turtle dove lying on the snow she took it up warmed it and restored it to life and the dove reviving gaily said I know you in spite of your disguise follow my advice when you arrive at the rock remain at the bottom and begin to sing the sweetest song you know the green bird will listen to you you must then pretend to go to sleep when it sees me it will come down to peck me and at that moment you will be able to seize it One day when Aladdin was walking outside the town an old man came up to him and looking very hard in his face said he was his fathers brother and had long been away in a distant country but that now he wished to help his nephew to get on After lifting this up the Magician told Aladdin to go below down some broken steps and at the foot of these he would find three halls in the last of which was a door leading to a garden full of beautiful trees this he was to cross and after mounting some more steps he would come to a terrace when he would see a niche in which there was a lighted Lamp

The Frog Prince & Other Stories Tahir Shah, 2023-12-31 Stories are all around us They re in the TV and movies we so adore in the video games we play and of course in the books we read They re in newspapers and magazines too in the conversations we share with old friends and with new ones They re on our mobile phones in aeroplanes in submarines and even in our dreams Our obsession with and craving for stories rests squarely with the way we are so absorbed by them just as it does with the way we don't need to continually consider how and why they work Most of the time when reading or listening to stories we forget that these tales have been shaped through the passage of time Like pebbles in a river smoothed by rushing waters they were honed through centuries of telling and retelling The stories contained in this anthology are a fragment of a tradition that has shaped humanity just as it has been shaped by humanity At The Scheherazade Foundation we regard stories and storytelling as an achievement of our species equal in significance to the development of language art and architecture We invite you to dip into the tales in this small treasury gleaned as they are from various corners of the world to reflect about them and to consider the wisdom they hold
