history rescue and survival stories of the men who participated in the battle of the SS Stone Street in World War II Fatal Voyage Dan Kurzman, 2008-12-24 Shortly after midnight on July 30 1945 the Navy cruiser USS Indianapolis was torpedoed by a Japanese submarine in the Philippine Sea The ship had just left the island of Tinian delivering components of the atomic bomb destined for Hiroshima As the torpedoes hit the Indianapolis erupted into a fiery coffin sinking in less than fifteen minutes and leaving nine hundred crewmen fighting for life in shark infested waters They expected a swift routine rescue unaware that the Navy high command didn't even realize that the Indianapolis was missing Help would not arrive for another five days Drawn from definitive interviews with key figures Fatal Voyage recounts the horrific events endured as the number of water treading survivors dwindled to just 316 Each gruesome day brought more madness and slow death from explosion related injuries dehydration and most terrifying of all shark attacks But the pain did not end when the men finally returned home The Indianapolis's commander Captain Charles B McVay III was court martialed for causing the clearly unavoidable disaster With a new afterword chronicling the fifty five year campaign by Indianapolis survivors and their supporters to win public vindication for Captain McVay this classic is restored along with memories of the Indianapolis crew SS Jeremiah O'Brien Collection , 1994 Includes four SS Jeremiah O'Brien shipboard visitation schedule tickets four SS Jeremiah O'Brien Normandy 94 voyage self guided tour brochures two Jeremiah O'Brien 50 me anniversaire du d barquement de Normandie presentation du navire one Aug 1994 issue of The Pointer a reproduction of The Shipyard News vol 1 no 1 July 31 1941 an order form for the Jeremiah O'Brien and a homecoming video documentary in honor of the ship's visit to Portland Me Voyage of Mercy Stephen Puleo, 2020-03-03 Puleo has found a new way to tell the story with this well researched and splendidly written chronicle of the Jamestown its captain and an Irish priest who ministered to the starving in Cork city Puleo's tale despite the hardship to come surely is a tribute to the better angels of America's nature and in that sense it couldn't be more timely The Wall Street Journal The remarkable story of the mission that inspired a nation to donate massive relief to Ireland during the potato famine and began America's tradition of providing humanitarian aid around the world More than 5 000 ships left Ireland during the great potato famine in the late 1840s transporting the starving and the destitute away from their stricken homeland The first vessel to sail in the other direction to help the millions unable to escape was the USS Jamestown a converted warship which left Boston in March 1847 loaded with precious food for Ireland In an unprecedented move by Congress the warship had been placed in civilian hands stripped of its guns and committed to the peaceful delivery of food clothing and supplies in a mission that would launch America's first full blown humanitarian relief effort Captain Robert Bennet Forbes and the crew of the USS Jamestown embarked on a voyage that began a massive eighteen month demonstration of soaring goodwill against the backdrop of unfathomable despair one nation's struggle to survive and another's effort to provide a lifeline The Jamestown mission captured hearts and minds on both sides of the Atlantic of the wealthy and the hardscrabble poor of poets and politicians Forbes undertaking inspired a nationwide outpouring of relief that was unprecedented in size and scope the first instance of an entire nation extending a hand to a foreign neighbor for purely humanitarian reasons It showed the world that national generosity and brotherhood were not signs of weakness but displays of quiet strength and moral certitude In Voyage of Mercy Stephen Puleo tells the incredible story of the famine the Jamestown voyage and the commitment of thousands of ordinary Americans to offer relief to Ireland a groundswell that provided the collaborative blueprint for future relief efforts and established the United States as the leader in international aid The USS Jamestown's heroic voyage showed how the ramifications of a single decision can be measured not in days but in decades

The Last Voyage of the Henry Bacon Donald R. Foxvog, Robert I. Alotta, 2022-09-15 The true story of the SS Henry Bacon rescuing 19 Norwegian refugees fleeing from the Nazi Army in World War II It describes an American freighter on the dreaded Murmansk Run the military campaigns at the top of Europe and how local Norwegians fought evaded and escaped Nazi domination The daring vessel was saved by the British Royal Navy and persevered in a sea full of U boats and Luftwaffe bombers Eventually it was separated from its escorts in a fierce North Atlantic storm

Ship of Miracles Bill Gilbert, 2000-09 It was a miracle worthy of the season When Captain Leonard La Rue spied from his twelve man merchant ship the Meredith Victory the throng of Korean refugees on the docks of a city in flames he didn't hesitate to do what others would consider impossible In December of 1950 La Rue and his skeleton crew rescued fourteen thousand Korean refugees from the hands of the rapidly approaching Chinese army in the city of Hungnam Through the night and next day a seemingly endless succession of refugees boarded the Meredith their will to live and strong spirit steeling them against the bitter cold and incredibly crowded conditions Standing shoulder to shoulder for three days the refugees and crew stoically endured as La Rue steered the ship through sea battle a thirty mile web of sea mines and enemy shelling Ship of Miracles is the incredible story of what has been called the greatest rescue operation by a single ship in the history of mankind Against all odds the little merchant vessel transported its precious cargo to the island of Koje Do on Christmas Eve completely unharmed all fourteen thousand refugees alive and well including an additional five new lives begun on this incredible journey As the fiftieth anniversary of this miraculous rescue approaches Ship of Miracles is as touching today as it was then a tale you'll hold close to your heart and return to time and again While the United States Navy prepares to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the perilous evacuation at Hungnam and honor the Meredith Victory's miraculous feat read this never before told account from the crew themselves as they relate the incredible and unbelievable details of their three day journey from fear to freedom

The Last Voyage Leonard E. Amborski, 2001-11-01 This was the last voyage for the SS Stone Street and for 13 men who lost their lives in battle with the U 594 of the Wolfpack Vvrrwarts after a 3 day running encounter It was at 48 18 N 39 43 W about 800 miles east of Newfoundland on Sunday September 13 1942 10 30 a m Among those who perished was my brother Cadet Midshipman Norbert Amborski training as an Engine Cadet at the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point Long Island Two members of the U S Naval Armed Guard also lost their lives The Master Captain Harald

Andersen was taken prisoner and spent the rest of the war in a POW camp in Milag Germany This was also the last voyage for 6 merchant ships that were sunk and the Canadian destroyer escort Ottawa which lost 112 men when torpedoed
