Self and Affect Stefan Lang, Maik Niemeck,2025-01-11 The self self awareness and emotions are central subjects within contemporary philosophy of mind but comparatively little attention has been paid to the relationships between them This volume brings together philosophers from different specialisms to explore these relationships from three different angles First whether a theory of self awareness can contribute to a theory of emotion including how different aspects and kinds of self awareness are related to different emotions Second from the opposite direction whether research into emotions can help achieve a better understanding of self consciousness Finally the book considers how emotions are involved in the nature and development of selves Self and Affect is essential reading for all scholars and researchers of the philosophy of mind especially those focussing on emotions and self awareness The Power of Witnessing Nancy R. Goodman, Marilyn B. Meyers, 2012-08-21 Witnessing comes in as many forms as the trauma that gives birth to it The Holocaust undeniably one of the greatest traumatic events in recent human history still resonates into the twenty first century The echoes that haunt those who survived continue to reach their children and others who did not share the experience directly In what ways is this massive trauma processed and understood both for survivors and future generations The answer as deftly illustrated by Nancy Goodman and Marilyn Meyers lies in the power of witnessing the act of acknowledging that trauma took place coupled with the desire to share that knowledge with others to build a space in which to reveal confront and symbolize it As the contributors to this book demonstrate testimonial writing and memoir artwork poetry documentary theater and even the simple recollection of a memory are ways that honor and serve as forms of witnessing Each chapter is a fusion of narrative and metaphor that exists as evidence of the living mind that emerges amid the dead spaces produced by mass trauma creating a revelatory transformational space for the terror of knowing and the possibility for affirmation of hope courage and endurance in the face of almost unspeakable evil Additionally the power of witnessing is extended from the Holocaust to contemporary instances of mass trauma and to psychoanalytic treatments proving its efficacy in the dyadic relationship of everyday practice for both patient and analyst The Holocaust is not an easy subject to approach but the intimate and personal stories included here add up to an act of witnessing in and of itself combining the past and the present and placing the trauma in the realm of knowing sharing and understanding Contributors Harriet Basseches Elsa Blum Bridget Conley Zilkic Paula Ellman Susan Elmendorf George Halasz Geoffrey Hartman Renee Hartman Elaine Neumann Kulp Shabad Dori Laub Clemens Loew Gail Humphries Mardirosian Margit Meissner Henri Parens Arlene Kramer Richards Arnold Richards Sophia Richman Katalin Roth Nina Shapiro Perl Myra Sklarew Ervin Staub

Intersubjective Temporality Lanei M. Rodemeyer, 2006-02-16 YET ANOTHER INTRODUCTION IN PHENOMENOLOGY In both his published and unpublished works Edmund Husserl the father of phenomenology struggles repeatedly with the relation of the individual subject and intersubjectivity Since his phenomenology is based upon the temporalizing foundations of the subject though he is often accused of solipsism and his efforts at integrating the subject with an intersubjective existence are registered as falling short of their goal Important philosophers who use phenomenology as their basis such as Martin Heidegger and Maurice Merleau Ponty furthermore while implicitly criticizing his limitations assume the existence of intersubjective foundations without 2 taking up the existence and formation of these foundations themselves This book addresses the above problematic at several levels First it is a careful analysis of Husserl s understanding of inner time consciousness I take up each aspect of temporalizing consciousness i e Urimpression retention and protention explaining it in light of Husserl s phenomenology and showing how it functions in the whole of the living present i e our active constituting consciousness These sections of the book are helpful both to the uninitiated student trying to enter the world of Husserl s inner ti consciousness and to the experienced Husserl scholar who desires a closer look at Husserl s theory of temporalizing consciousness Second as my analyses take us to Husserl s recently published manuscripts I provide an explanation of Husserl s later considerations of temporalizing consciousness showing how he developed his earliest conceptions along with replies to common objections Retrieving Nicaea Khaled Anatolios,2011-08-01 Khaled Anatolios a noted expert on the development of Nicene theology offers a historically informed theological study of the development of the doctrine of the Trinity showing its relevance to Christian life and thought today According to Anatolios the development of trinitarian doctrine involved a global interpretation of Christian faith as a whole Consequently the meaning of trinitarian doctrine is to be found in a reappropriation of the process of this development such that the entirety of Christian existence is interpreted in a trinitarian manner The book provides essential resources for this reappropriation by identifying the network of theological issues that comprise the systematic scope of Nicene theology focusing especially on the trinitarian perspectives of three major theologians Athanasius Gregory of Nyssa and Augustine It includes a foreword by Brian E Daley

Mysticism, Madness, Myth and Mania Robert Laynton,2015-02-14 What happens when a person has a Clear Vivid ecstatic transcendent religious or spiritual experience where they sense that they are being caught up to God or Spirit Do they really encounter an unseen intangible spiritual realm that is Ultimate Reality and the Ground of existence Why do some people who are diagnosed as mentally ill claim to have such experiences If a person persists in these kinds of beliefs are they deluded or even mad Are they actually suffering from religious mania Are atheists correct in dismissing these experiences as merely psychological Or is it the atheists who are blind and deaf when it comes to Ultimate Reality Drawing from personal experience and from over forty years of practical and theoretical engagement with spirituality and religion as well as from approaches within psychology author Robert Laynton explores these questions not as a defense of religion or spirituality but as an exploration of experience on the edge of reason
