a must read for students educators and anyone who cherishes the beauty of reflective thought From a College Window Arthur Benson,2014-12-02 I have lately come to perceive that the one thing which gives value to any piece of art whether it be book or picture or music is that subtle and evasive thing which is called personality No amount of labour of zest even of accomplishment can make up for the absence of this quality It must be an almost wholly instinctive thing I believe Of course the mere presence of personality in a work of art is not sufficient because the personality revealed may be lacking in charm and charm again is an instinctive thing No artist can set out to capture charm he will toil all the night and take nothing but what every artist can and must aim at is to have a perfectly sincere point of view He must take his chance as to whether his point of view is an attractive one but sincerity is the one indispensable thing It is useless to take opinions on trust to retail them to adopt them they must be formed created truly felt The work of a sincere artist is almost certain to have some value the work of an insincere artist is of its very nature worthless *D.
