From Contact To Conquest Transition To:

From Contact to Conquest Margret Frenz, 2003 A Major Contribution To Academic Literature On The Region This Book Combines Detailed Case Study With Broader Ideas About The Phenomenon Of Conflicting Cultures And The Resulting Negotiation Of New Values Within The Spheres Of Politics Society And Economy Lords of the Sea: The Ali Rajas of Cannanore and the Political Economy of Malabar (1663-1723) Binu John Mailaparambil, 2011-11-11 In the second half of the seventeenth century the political and ritual relationships between the various elite houses of the kingdom of Cannanore on the Malabar Coast were affected by the shifting patterns in the Indian Ocean maritime trade This study shows how the Arackal Ali Rajas the most prominent maritime merchants in early modern Malabar managed to fence off the attempts of the Dutch East India Company to gain control of the regional trade and how they succeeded in maintaining their commercial network across the Indian Ocean intact Contesting the Indian City Gavin Shatkin, 2013-08-14 Contesting the Indian

City features a collection of cutting edge empirical studies that offer insights into issues of politics equity and space relating to urban development in modern India Features studies that serve to deepen our theoretical understandings of the changes that Indian cities are experiencing Examines how urban redevelopment policy and planning and reforms of urban politics and real estate markets are shaping urban spatial change in India The first volume to bring themes of urban political reform municipal finance land markets and real estate industry together in an international publication Fort Cochin in Kerala, 1750-1830 Anjana Singh, 2010 This study of the early modern fortress town of Cochin in India based on the rarely used VOC archival deposits in the Tamilnadu State Archives in Chennai Madras provides an intimate portrait of a Dutch urban community of East India Company servants and their dependents living within the larger social environment of the Malabar coast It shows how between 1750 and 1830 the population of this Dutch settlement had adapted itself to the fundamental political and economic changes that occurred as a result of local state formation processes the demise of the Dutch East India Company and the change of regime that occurred when English administration was imposed on Fort Cochin in 1795

Writing the Great War Christoph Cornelissen, Arndt Weinrich, 2022-11-11 From the Treaty of Versailles to the 2018 centenary and beyond the history of the First World War has been continually written and rewritten studied and contested producing a rich historiography shaped by the social and cultural circumstances of its creation Writing the Great War provides a groundbreaking survey of this vast body of work assembling contributions on a variety of national and regional historiographies from some of the most prominent scholars in the field By analyzing perceptions of the war in contexts ranging from Nazi Germany to India's struggle for independence this is an illuminating collective study of the complex interplay of memory and history Connected Empires, Connected Worlds Robert S.G. Fletcher, Benjamin Mountford, Simon J. Potter, 2022-06-01 Connected Empires Connected Worlds Essays in Honour of John Darwin contains diverse essays on the expansion experience and decline of empires The volume is offered in honour of John Darwin's contribution to the study of empire and its endings Written by his former students and colleagues the book s chapters discuss topics from the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries While each author has contributed according to their expertise they also reflect on how John s ideas and approaches continue to stimulate new work in disparate fields Touching on the experience of empire in Europe Africa Asia and Australasia the authors have engaged with concepts from across Darwin s writings including his earlier work on decolonisation decline and the dynamics of territorial expansion As such the work in this volume operates across a number of different scales of analysis from case studies of transnational communities state formation and military intervention to imperial politics inter imperial comparison and global historical frameworks The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History

The Company's Sword Christina Welsch,2022-08-25 Examines the role of the East India Company s independent armies in the colonial government of South Asia Landscapes and the Law Gunnel Cederlöf,2019-06-28 Landscapes and the Law is situated at the crossroads of environmental colonial and legal history It examines the role of law in consolidating early colonial rule from the perspective of people s access to nature in forests and hill tracts This major interdisciplinary study is thus concerned with the social history of legal processes and the making of law being as relevant today as it was when first published a decade ago The book is focused equally on the multitude of colliding claims for access to land and resources and the complex ways in which customary rights are redefined and codified for the purpose of securing and legitimizing colonial sovereign rule Basing her archival and field work on the Nilgiri Hills in South India Gunnel Cederlöf explores conflicting perceptions of nature and political visions that are projected onto landscapes and people She traces debates on property and land rights and how the empirical sciences merge with the legal claims justifying land acquisition Popular resistance strategies to such exploitation are analysed and a cross cultural comparison made between early legal processes and social history in India New Zealand and North America Routledge Handbook of the History of Colonialism in South Asia Harald Fischer-Tiné,Maria Framke,2021-09-01 The Routledge Handbook of the History of Colonialism in South Asia provides a comprehensive overview of the historiographical specialisation and sophistication of the history of colonialism in South Asia It explores the classic works of earlier generations of historians and offers an introduction to the rapid and multifaceted development of historical research on colonial South Asia since the 1990s Covering economic history political history and social history and offering insights from other disciplines and turns within the mainstream of history the handbook is structured in six parts Overarching Themes and Debates The World of Economy and Labour Creating and Keeping Order Science Race Religion Law and Education Environment and Space Culture Media and the Everyday Colonial South Asia in the World The editors have assembled a group of leading international scholars of South Asian history and related disciplines to introduce a broad readership into the respective subfields and research topics Designed to serve as a comprehensive and nuanced yet readable introduction to the vast field of the history of colonialism in the Indian subcontinent the handbook will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of South Asian history imperial and colonial history and global and world history Sharing Sovereignty Georg Berkemer, Margret Frenz, 2021-10-11 No detailed description available for Sharing Sovereignty Exploring Power and Authority in Indian History Across the Ages Vijaya Ramadas Mandala, 2025-06-14 This book volume presents a nuanced perspective on comprehending power and authority in Indian history by offering a collection of case studies from different regions of India from different periods The chapters in the book shed light on the sociological cultural economic and historical dimensions of power and authority The agency is also critiqued offering fresh perspectives on the dominant ideologies of the ruling groups and the responses from the subjugated By examining the intricacies of power within socio political and cultural orders this book provides valuable insights for readers interested in understanding the dynamics of power in Indian history It also offers an academic exploration of Indian history illuminating various aspects of diverse political structures from ancient to modern times from the historical framework of power its dissenting voices and complex histories This volume is a valuable resource for historians academics and researchers interested in the field of Indian history or the history of South Asia A History of India Hermann Kulke, Dietmar Rothermund, 2004 This fourth edition of A History of India presents the grand sweep of Indian history from antiquity to the present in a compact and readable survey The authors examine the major political economic social and cultural forces which have shaped the history of the subcontinent Providing an authoritative and detailed account Hermann Kulke and Dietmar Rothermund emphasize and analyze the structural pattern of Indian history The fourth edition of this highly accessible book brings the history of India up to date to consider for example the recent developments in the Kashmir conflict Along with a new glossary this edition also includes expanded discussions of the Mughal empire and the economic history of India Imperial Migrations E. Morier-Genoud, M. Cahen, 2012-12-15 This volume investigates what role colonial communities and diaspora have had in shaping the Portuguese empire and its heritage exploring topics such as Portuguese migration to Africa the Ismaili and the Swiss presence in Mozambique the Goanese in East Africa the Chinese in Brazil and the history of the African presence in Portugal Islamization in Modern South Asia David Emmanuel Singh, 2012-08-31 This book explores the religious identity of the indigenous Gujjars living in Rajaji National Park RNP Uttarakhand India In the broader context of forest conservation discourse steps taken by the local government to relocate the Gujjars outside RNP have been crucial in their choice to associate with NGOs and Deobandi Muslims These intersecting associations constitute the context of their transitioning religious identity The book presents a rich account of the actual process of Islamization through the collaborative agency of Deobandi madrasas and Tablighi Jama at Based on documents and interviews collected over four years it constructs a particular case of Deobandi reform and also balances this with a layered description of the Gujar responses It argues that in their association with the Deobandis the Gujjars internalized the normative dimensions of beliefs and practices but not at the expense of their traditional Hindu folk culture This capacity for adaptation bodes well for the Gujjars but their proper integration with wider society seems assured only in association with the Deobandis Consequently this research also points toward the role of Islam in integrating marginal groups in the wider context of society in South Asia A History of Modern India Ishita Banerjee-Dube, 2014-10-27 This book provides an interpretive and comprehensive account of the history of India between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries a crucial epoch characterized by colonialism nationalism and the emergence of the independent Indian Union It explores significant historiographical debates concerning the period while highlighting important new issues especially those of gender ecology caste and labour The work combines an analysis of colonial and independent India in order to underscore ideologies policies and processes that shaped the colonial state and continue to mould the Indian nation The British Army, 1783-1815 Kevin Linch, 2024-04-30 The British army between 1783 and 1815 the army that fought in the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic wars has received severe criticism and sometimes exaggerated praise from contemporaries and historians alike and a balanced and perceptive reassessment of it as an institution and a fighting force is overdue That is why this carefully considered new study by Kevin Linch is of such value He brings together fresh perspectives on the army in one of its most tumultuous and famous eras exploring the global range of its deployment the varieties of soldiering it had to undertake its close ties to the political and social situation of the time and its complex relationship with British society and culture In the face of huge demands on its manpower and direct military threats to the British Isles and territories across the globe the army had to adapt As Kevin Linch demonstrates some changes were significant while others were in the end minor or temporary In the process he challenges the Road to Waterloo narrative of the army's steady progress from the nadir of the 1780s and early 1790s to its strong performances throughout the Peninsular War and its triumph at the Battle of Waterloo His reassessment shows an army that was just good enough to cope with the demanding campaigns it undertook The Routledge Handbook of the State in Premodern India Hermann Kulke, Bhairabi Prasad Sahu, 2022-01-13 This handbook presents a multilayered and multidimensional history of state formation in premodern India It explores dense and rich local and subregional historiography from the mid first millennium BC to the eighteenth century in South Asia Shifting the focus away from economic and political factors this handbook revises the conventional understanding of states and empires and locates them in their quotidian conduct and activity on socio cultural and concomitant factors Comprehensive in scope this handbook addresses a range of themes connected with the idea of state formation in the subcontinent It includes discussions and debates on ritual practices and the Brahmanical order in early India the Delhi Sultanate and role of Sultans among the Hindu kings the cosmopolitan Islamicate cultural influences on Puranic Hinduism cultural background of the Mughal state The handbook examines new questions and ideologies of state formation such as facets of violence and resistance the significance of the autonomous spaces and forests regional elites including Little kings tribal background of some famous cults trade and maritime commerce royal patronage courtly manners lineage formation imperial architecture monuments and temple among others Featuring case studies from different part of the India subcontinent and with contributions by renowned historians this authoritative handbook will be an indispensable reading for teachers scholars and students of early India medieval India premodern India South Asian history Asian history historiography economic history historical sociology and South Asia studies

Colonizing the Realm of Words Sascha Ebeling, 2010-09-28 A true tour de force this book documents the transformation of one Indian literature Tamil under the impact of colonialism and Western modernity While Tamil is a living language it is also India's second oldest classical language next to Sanskrit and has a literary history that goes back over two thousand years On the basis of extensive archival research Sascha Ebeling tackles a host of issues pertinent to Tamil elite literary production and consumption during the nineteenth century These include the functioning and decline of traditional systems in which poet scholars were patronized by religious institutions landowners and local kings the anatomy of changes in textual practices genres styles poetics themes tastes and audiences and the role of literature in the politics of social reform gender and incipient nationalism The work concludes with a discussion of the most striking literary development of the time the emergence of the Tamil novel

The Byzantine-Islamic Transition in Palestine Gideon Avni, 2014 Using recent archaeological findings Avni addresses the transformation of local societies in Palestine and Jordan between the sixth and eleventh centuries AD arguing that the Byzantine Islamic transition was a much slower and gradual process than previously thought

Empire of Convicts Anand A. Yang, 2021-01-19 Empire of Convicts focuses on male and female Indians incarcerated in Southeast Asia for criminal and political offenses committed in colonial South Asia From the seventeenth century onward penal transportation was a key strategy of British imperial rule exemplified by deportations first to the Americas and later to Australia Case studies from the insular prisons of Bengkulu Penang and Singapore illuminate another carceral regime in the Indian Ocean World that brought South Asia and Southeast Asia together through a global system of forced migration and coerced labor A major contribution to histories of crime and punishment prisons law labor transportation migration colonialism and the Indian Ocean World Empire of Convicts narrates the experiences of Indian bandwars convicts and shows how they exercised agency in difficult situations fashioning their own worlds and even becoming their own warders Anand A Yang brings long journeys across kala pani black waters to life in a deeply researched and engrossing account that moves fluidly between local and global contexts
