How to Read a Film Fourth Edition James Monaco, 2011-05-01 Richard Gilman referred to How to Read a Film as simply the best single work of its kind And Janet Maslin in The New York Times Book Review marveled at James Monaco s ability to collect an enormous amount of useful information and assemble it in an exhilaratingly simple and systematic way Indeed since its original publication in 1977 this hugely popular book has become the definitive source on film and media Now James Monaco offers a special anniversary edition of his classic work featuring a new preface and several new sections including an Essential Library One Hundred Books About Film and Media You Should Read and One Hundred Films You Should See As in previous editions Monaco once again looks at film from many vantage points as both art and craft sensibility and science tradition and technology After examining film s close relation to other narrative media such as the novel painting photography television and even music the book discusses the elements necessary to understand how films convey meaning and more importantly how we can best discern all that a film is attempting to communicate In addition Monaco stresses the still evolving digital context of film throughout one of the new sections looks at the untrustworthy nature of digital images and sound and his chapter on multimedia brings media criticism into the twenty first century with a thorough discussion of topics like virtual reality cyberspace and the proximity of both to film With hundreds of illustrative black and white film stills and diagrams How to Read a Film is an indispensable addition to the library of everyone who loves the cinema and wants to understand it better

Stagecoach to Tombstone Howard Hughes, 2007-10-24 The true story of the American West on film through its shooting stars and the directors who shot them Howard Hughes explores the Western running from John Ford s Stagecoach to the revisionary Tombstone Writing with panache and fresh insight he explores 27 key films and draws on production notes cast and crew biographies and the films box office success to reveal their place in western history He shows how through reinvention and resurrection this genre continually postpones the big adios and avoids ending up in Boot Hill permanently Major films covered include the best from genre giants John Ford Howard Hawks and John Wayne plus classics High Noon Shane The Magnificent Seven and

Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid Stagecoach to Tombstone makes many more stops along the way examining well known blockbusters and lowly B movie oaters alike It examines comedy westerns adventures south of the border singing cowboys and the varied depiction of Native Americans on screen Hughes also engagingly charts the genre s timely renovation by Sam Peckinpah Ride the High Country and The Wild Bunch Sergio Leone Once Upon a Time in the West and Clint Eastwood The Outlaw Josey Wales and Unforgiven Presented too are the best of western trivia a filmography of essential films and ten aficionados and critics including Alex Cox Christopher Frayling Philip French and Ed Buscombe give their verdict on the best in the west

The A to Z of Westerns in Cinema Paul Varner,2009-09-28 When the earliest filmgoers watched The Great Train Robbery in 1903 many of them shrieked in terror at the very last clip when one of the outlaws turns directly toward the camera and fires a gun seemingly directly at the audience The puff of smoke was sudden and it was hand colored so that it looked real Today we can look back at that primitive movie and see all the elements of what would evolve into the Western genre Perhaps it is the Western s early origins The Great Train Robbery was the first narrative commercial movie or its formulaic yet entertaining structure that has made the Western so popular Whatever the case may be with the recent success of films like 3 10 to Yuma and The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert Ford the Western appears to be in no danger of disappearing The story of the western is told in The A to Z of Westerns in Cinema through a chronology a bibliography and an introductory essay However it is the hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on cinematographers composers producers films like Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid Dances With Wolves The Good The Bad and the Ugly High Noon The Magnificent Seven The Searchers Tombstone and Unforgiven such actors as Gene Autry Kirk Douglas Clint Eastwood Henry Fonda James Stewart and John Wayne and directors like John Ford and Sergio Leone that will have you reaching for this book again and again
