Following Christ In A Consumer Society Still The Spirituality Of Cultural Resistance:

Following Christ in a Consumer Society John Francis Kavanaugh (s.j.),1991 Following Christ in a Consumer Society Kavanaugh, John F.,2014-04-10 In an era of fraud corruption and the relentless celebration of image over substance the message of this perennial best seller is more timely than ever Following Christ in a Consumer Society offers a penetrating critique of the culture of consumerism contrasted with the personalism of the Gospel Addressing a soul destroying culture in which having more has become the only measure of value Kavanaugh reminds us of the values that truly make us human Through the counter cultural message of the Gospel his book presents a diagnosis of our social ills while at the same time providing a guide back to wholeness sanity and spiritual health Following Christ in a Consumer Society John F. Kavanaugh,1989 Following Christ in a Consumer Society John Francis Kavanaugh,1981 Nobody's Perfect Cynthia L Cameron,Lakisha R Lockhart-Rusch,Emily A Peck,2025 Cynthia L Cameron Lakisha R Lockhart Rusch and Emily A Peck argue that some adolescents have the privilege to make mistakes in ways that others often do not In Nobody's Perfect the editors offer a curated volume that affirms adolescents as fundamentally good and presents pathways that help youth distinguish mistakes from sin Understanding Folk Religion: 25th Anniversary Edition Paul G. Hiebert,R. Daniel Shaw,Tite Tienou,2024-04-24 This book has served the missiological community for twenty five years as a resource for understanding human spirituality in any context Thousands of students have incorporated the principles of this book into ministry around the globe This twenty fifth anniversary edition seeks to enable those who now bring their passion for mission to contemporary contexts affected by globalization climate change and political perspectives unimagined when this book originally appeared Every community wherever it is on earth has its share of beliefs and values that manifest themselves in practices that reflect spiritual engagement Those engaged in mission need to appreciate how underlying beliefs and values are reflected in handling spiritual power worship and blessing and interaction with others Gospel communicators must account for these elements as they seek to make God's intentions known to people who are searching for God The models presented early in the book are essential for establishing what people consider spiritually critical Applying these models in any religious environment will enable message bearers to engage with beliefs and practices that promote a gospel presentation that makes sense To that end we commend this book for effective missional engagement Redeeming Sin? Ernst M. Conradie,2017-10-11 Can Christian sin talk be retrieved within the public sphere In this contribution to ecotheology Ernst M Conradie argues that amid ecological destruction discourse on sin can contribute to a multidisciplinary depth diagnosis of what has gone wrong in the world He confronts some major obstacles related to the plausibility of sin talk in conversation with evolutionary biology the cognitive sciences and animal ethology He defends an Augustinian insistence that social evil rather than natural evil is our primary predicament If the root cause of social evil is sin then a Christian confession of sin may yet yield good news for the whole earth Reconnecting.calm Tom Mahon,2011-06-28 Reaching for the New Jerusalem Seong Hyun Park, Aída Besançon Spencer, William David Spencer, 2013-08-02 The task of this book is to examine the biblical and theological meaning of the city and our mission within it It starts with the premise that the garden is lost and we are headed toward the New Jerusalem the city of God In the meanwhile we dwell in earthly cities that need to be adjusted to God's city The fall has conditioned us to fear the city though historically God intended it to provide safety even refuge We have to band together and act to take back our communities if we are to help God in the divine task of reconciling the world to Godself by assisting God in adjusting our communities to God's New Jerusalem rebuilding our own cities of Enoch on the blueprints of Christ to go into all the world and share his good news building the Christian community along the lines of the New Jerusalem a city of light in which God is revealed from the Introduction by William David Spencer Toward achieving this goal this single accessible volume brings together the biblical the systematic and the practical aspects of urban ministry by various contributors who are urban practitioners and theologians themselves and have taught at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary Boston Campus Rutilio Grande, SJ Rutilio Grande, 2015-07-28 Rutilio Grande SJ was the first Jesuit to be assassinated in El Salvador He was killed on March 12 1977 for having done the works that Jesus commands with regard to one's neighbor as a priest in the Roman Catholic Church This volume of his writings and homilies illustrates how he applied the social and ecclesial teachings of the Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 in his ministry with the poor and marginalized of El Salvador His use of the social sciences to understand the problems in his context his prophetic denunciation of power and wealth and his ministry to empower laypeople to lead their faith communities all speak to the Holy Spirit working through the courage of a true servant leader Rosemary Haughton Eilish Ryan, 1997 Familiar with the ordinary stuff of life teething babies family crises and elderly parents Haughton applied her understanding of the Gospel to her life in the Church and the world unique spirituality for everyone From Juche to Jesus Su Hwa Keum, 2025-07-25 What does it take for North Korean defectors to truly embrace a biblical worldview In From Juche to Jesus Su Hwa Keum explores the profound spiritual journeys of North Korean defectors as they navigate the transition from Juche ideology to faith in Christ While many encounter the gospel during their escape genuine transformation requires more than exposure it is a deep internal process Through personal interviews and grounded theory research Keum examines the key factors and process that lead to lasting worldview transformation She highlights how experiencing God through his Word enables defectors to move beyond ideology realign their hearts with biblical truth and embrace a new life in Christ Both insightful and deeply personal From Juche to Jesus sheds light on the journey of faith and renewal offering a powerful perspective on how the gospel reshapes hearts minds and entire worldviews Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography

Democratic Education and the Teacher-As-Prophet Jeffery

Dunn,2018-06-28 This volume aims to reveal how Dewey s notion of the religious understood as faith in the human relational condition offers a way to think differently about the aims and purposes of education After exploring the effects of neoliberal conceptions of schooling against broader democratic forms of education this book suggests that Dewey s vision of the teacher as prophet is a useful model for positioning teachers as agents of social change By catalysing the religious work of schools understood not as teaching religion but as a process of social unification the Deweyan teacher as prophet can stimulate experimentation towards a democratic ideal of schooling

Passing the Plate Christian Smith,Michael O Emerson,Patricia

Snell,2008-09-29 Passing the Plate shows that few American Christians donate generously to religious and charitable causes This eye opening book explores the reasons behind such ungenerous giving the potential world changing benefits of greater financial giving and what can be done to improve matters By illuminating the social and psychological forces that shape charitable giving Passing the Plate is sure to spark a much needed debate on a critical issue

Anthropology Susan A.

Ross,2012-06-01 Drawing on the wisdom and teaching experience of highly respected theologians the Engaging Theology series builds a firm foundation for graduate study and other ministry formation programs Each of the volumes Scripture Jesus God Anthropology and Church is concerned with retrieving carefully evaluating and constructively interpreting the Christian tradition Comprehensive in scope and accessibly written these volumes used together or independently will stimulate rich theological reflection and discussion More important the series will create and sustain the passion of the next generation of theologians and church leaders What does it mean to be human in the twenty first century Susan Ross explores this question through the lens of human desires for God freedom knowledge love and pleasure but also for power consumer goods self gratification and money Beginning with biblical narratives of human desires she goes on to consider how ancient medieval and modern thinkers have wrestled with the various ways that human beings have sought fulfillment in the world and in God The twenty first century brings new questions and continuing challenges In a world of increasing complexity and fragmentation can we still talk about the self How have feminism and new thinking about sexuality changed the ways we think about ourselves How do we maintain our humanity in the face of monstrous human evil What do the findings of science say about our uniqueness as human beings Anthropology Seeking Light and Beauty offers a path through the many conflicting views of humanity suggesting a fuller way of living as we try to follow the example of Jesus
