Following Christ Daniel L. Lowery, 1996 Through this book readers will discover Christian responses to today's moral questions and problems. It offers suggestions on how the Ten Commandments and Christian virtues can be applied to the pressing ethical dilemmas of modern society. Following God's Pedagogy Sister Mary Michael Fox, OP, 2023-03-01 In the 2020 Directory for Catechesis the Church calls for a renewal of catechesis that focuses on bringing people to a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ. Solid formation is not only about teaching doctrine but also and more importantly about forming disciples who have encountered and know Christ. In Following God's Pedagogy Sister Mary Michael Fox OP brings decades of experience in catechesis to offer a unique and proven model for children's catechesis. She draws upon her deep catechetical experience and thorough research into the nature of the child, divine revelation and catechetical methodology. She offers timely insight into how the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) offers an approach to children's catechesis that forms the mind and heart of the child, leading them into a deeper relationship with Christ and a life of discipleship. Bishops, diocesan catechetical directors and all catechists will discover a way of faith formation of children that is sure to renew and strengthen catechesis for years to come. The Liturgy Documents, Volume Four Mark E. Wedig, OP, Joyce Ann Zimmerman, CPPS, Corinna Laughlin, Paul Ford, Bishop Wilton Gregory, John Pawlikowski, Paul Turner, Mark Francis, CSV, Michael R. Prendergast, Philip J. Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage Matthew Levering, 2020-08-12 This book is the next volume in Levering's Engaging Doctrine series. The prior volume of the series examined the doctrine of creation. The present volume examines the purpose of creation, the marriage of God and humans. God created the cosmos for the purpose of the marriage of God and his people and through his people the marriage of God and the entire creation. Given that the central meaning or prime analogue of marriage is the marriage of God and humankind, the study of human marriage needs to be shaped by this eschatological goal and foregrounded as a dogmatic theme. After a first chapter defending and explaining the biblical witness to the marriage of God and his people, the book explores various themes: marriage as an image of God, original sin as the fall of the primordial marriage, the cross of Jesus Christ and marital self-sacrificial love, the procreative and unitive ends of marriage, marriage as a sacrament and marriage's importance for social justice and for the upbuilding of the kingdom of God. Along the way, the book provides an introduction to the key biblical, patristic, medieval, modern and contemporary thinkers and controversies regarding the doctrine of marriage. The Reception of the Second Vatican Council's Liturgical Reforms in Nigeria (Nsukka Diocese) Uchenna Aba, 2016 Fifty years after the promulgation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, a great moment has dawned in which a more dispassionate assessment of the reception of this important document has become imperative in order to enable the Church to undertake necessary steps in realizing the full potential of the renewal envisaged by the Council Fathers. The present study identifies peculiar and diverse challenges confronting the process of reception in the

The Fragility of Language and the Encounter with God Florian Klug,2021-09-28 Drawing on recent philosophical developments in hermeneutics and poststructuralism The Fragility of Language and the Encounter with God offers a theological account of the contingency of language and perception and of how acknowledging that contingency transforms the perennial theological question of the development of doctrine Klug applies this account to humanity s encounter with God and its translation into language Because there exists no neutral epistemological standpoint Klug integrates contemporary insights on the theory of the subject especially those of i_ek and Badiou and presents humanity as a subject that transforms its experience of and with God into language and places it in a shared space for reception But can the speaking subject have authority and legitimacy in making statements about the Absolute What role do the Christian faithful play in evaluating that authority These questions are addressed both to biblical texts and doctrinal statements Crucial is the Catholic perspective that legitimate statements of faith and insights are only possible through the Holy Spirit However humanity cannot command or control the Holy Spirit but can only show its influence indirectly through the receptive tradition of the universal church The Fragility of Language and the Encounter with God argues that statements of faith cannot overcome contingency Instead the Catholic notion of receptive tradition attempts to cope rationally with the fragility of perception and language in humanity s orientation toward God

Just Passing Through Helen Jean McCullough,2016-09-06 IS IT TIME FOR A WAKE UP CALL Just Passing Through is a book designed to help us think about the ups and downs of our lives and where God stands in our lives at various times It draws attention to the impact we may have on each other s lives whether positive or negative as we journey through this world God gave us two phases of life 1 our temporary life here on earth in preparation for 2 our eternal life in the destination of our own choosing Where are our earthly preparations leading us Our lifetime here on earth is just a drop in the bucket compared to eternity yet some go on nonchalantly living for now with little thought for the eternal afterlife Why do we put so much emphasis on our short span of life in the here and now and so little emphasis on the eternity of life in the hereafter This is a problem we tend to struggle with throughout our lives Sometimes God is at the forefront and at other times He is put on the back burner not really forgotten but just put aside for the time being In other cases He almost seems non existent Just Passing Through is written for people of all ages who are struggling with their faith or just in need of a little encouragement to stay on track It is aimed at helping us to think about where we are in life what is truly important to us where we are heading and how our decisions can affect future generations If this concerns us then perhaps we should take a look inside We can make a difference

Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church. As a result, Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world, comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries. In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education, contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum, literacy, teacher training, outcomes, and professional standards. This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe, illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy, home schooling, Sunday schools, women's education, graded schools, compulsory education of the deaf and blind, and kindergarten. With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors, The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1,200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries. These volumes cover a vast range of topics from Christian education history, spanning from the church's founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day; denominational and institutional profiles; intellectual traditions in Christian education; biblical and theological frameworks; curricula; missions; adolescent and higher education; theological training; and Christian pedagogy. Biographies of distinguished Christian educators. This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education. History of the Christian Tradition, A, Vol. II Thomas D.

McGonigle, James F. Quigley, 1988 A history of Christian belief and institutions from the Reformation to Vatican II and beyond.

Put Away Your Sword Michael L. Budde, 2024-03-11 What does it mean to follow the Prince of Peace in a world plagued by war, violence, and killing? Can the foundational convictions of Christianity and the experiences of Christians around the world contribute to a more adequate practice of the faith in contemporary times on matters of war, violence, and peacemaking? This volume addresses these important questions with contributions from Christian scholars and practitioners from across the Majority World, including El Salvador, Brazil, Kenya, and the Philippines, and from the United States and Europe. They include proponents of Christian pacifism and just war theory, advocates for varieties of just peacemaking frameworks, and people pursuing slow, modest steps toward reconciling enemies without the use of overarching theoretical frameworks. What holds them together is a sense that the world and the church would benefit from a robust and gospel-based commitment to nonviolence as an alternative to lethal business as usual in addressing conflicts, great and small. The topics they consider include constructive aspects of a Christian theology of nonviolence; case studies of gospel nonviolence and pastoral work from violent conflicts around the world; women as victims of violence and makers of peace; and theological questions of just war, armed intervention, and Christian nonviolence. The Living Word 2022-2023 Kate Cousino, Julie Dienno-Demarest, Aires Patulot, Liza N. Monergism or Synergism Daniel Kirkpatrick, 2018-01-11. The tensions between Calvinism and Arminianism have perpetuated Christian thought for some 500 years. The concerns from both parties are legitimate. Calvinists are often accused of fatalism along with holding to a troubling view of double predestination. Arminians are often accused of holding to a human-centered view of salvation that robs God of glory while championing human ability. Could it be that many of the tensions between Calvinists and Arminians are sourced in an often overlooked issue: monergism and synergism? Could the same be said regarding Protestantism and Roman Catholicism concerning justification? In this volume, Daniel Kirkpatrick explores the specific roles of God and humans in various aspects of salvation to determine whether salvation is a work between God and a person, synergism, or a work of God alone, monergism. Building upon the framework of Aquinas, the Reformers, and Arminians, this book examines the issue of who does the work of salvation in light of cause and effect, with hopes of providing new insights on historic doctrines.

Fulfilled Israel according to Matthew's Plerosis Paradigm Andrew D. Dalton, 2024-03-13. Andrew D. Dalton argues that for Matthew, the fullness Israel enjoys through Christ is a share in the very fullness of God. A close examination of Matthew's fulfillment paradigm reveals a triplex via consisting of fundamental continuity, radical discontinuity, and transcendence/completion.
