Food In European Literature Europa:

Nutritional and Health Aspects of Food in Western Europe Susanne Braun, Christina Zübert, Dimitrios Argyropoulos, Francisco Javier Casado Hebrard, 2019-10-14 People were once restricted to food native to their region and produced locally Today however food from any place in the world is available or can be made available anywhere else Often there is no or very little information about the nutritional and health aspects of these foods Nutrition and Health of Western European Foods Traditional and Ethnic Diets is part of series that will cover the entire globe and is aimed at filling the knowledge gap from traditional and scientific points of view This volume provides an analysis of traditional and ethnic foods from Western Europe including Ireland the United Kingdom Netherlands Belgium Luxembourg France and Germany It also addresses the history of use composition preparation ingredient origin nutritional aspects and health effects of various foods and food products in each of these countries Nutrition and Health of Western European Foods Traditional and Ethnic Diets ultimately presents both local and international regulations providing suggestions to harmonize these regulations and promote global availability of these foods Analyzes nutritional and health claims related to western European foods Includes traditional and ethnic foods from Ireland the UK Netherlands Belgium Luxembourg France and Germany Explores both scientific and anecdotal diet based health claims Examines if foods meet regulatory requirements and how to remedy noncompliance Reviews the influence of historical eating habits on today s diets Foods, Nutrients and Food

Ingredients with Authorised EU Health Claims Michele Sadler, 2017-10-30 Foods Nutrients and Food Ingredients with Authorized EU Health Claims Volume Three provides an overview of how health claims are regulated in the European Union along with detailed scientific and regulatory information about permitted health claims for foods and ingredients The latest volume in this series focuses on regulatory coverage from EC 1924/2006 including the most recently authorized claims Topics discussed include sections on the Authorized reduction of disease risk claims including calcium calcium with Vitamin D Vitamin D Folic Acid Limicol and MUFA and PUFA health claims based on emerging science recent regulatory announcements and finally general function claims The book represents the go to resource for R D managers and technical managers in the food and beverage and dietary supplements industry product development managers health professionals and academic researchers in the field Provides a comprehensive overview of foods and food substances that have achieved approved health claims in Europe under Regulation EC 1924/2006 Covers properties and applications of each ingredient as well as evidence for the health claim and how it benefits consumers Outlines the importance of each claim in product development and marketing and in regulatory issues such as conditions of use History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2006-09-13 Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe Vol 2 considers various topographic sites multicultural cities border areas cross cultural corridors multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm however inadvertently the very national borders they play down This volume inverts the expansive momentum of comparative studies towards ever broader regional European and world literary histories While the theater of this volume is still the literary culture of East Central Europe the contributors focus on pinpointed local traditions and geographic nodal points Their histories of Riga Plovdiv Timi oara or Budapest of Transylvania or the Danube corridor to take a few examples reveal how each of these sites was during the last two hundred years a home for a variety of foreign or ethnic literary traditions next to the one now dominant within the national borders By foregrounding such non national or hybrid traditions this volume pleads for a diversification and pluralization of local and national histories A genuine comparatist revival of literary history should involve the recognition that treading on native grounds means actually treading on grounds cultivated by diverse people

Europe, Canada and the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement Kurt Hübner, 2011-04 The Great Recession and the turn towards all forms of protectionism stress the relevance of international trade policy With the global economy undergoing deep structural changes the negotiations between Canada and the EU on a Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement CETA present a real time experiment that sheds light on the direction that the relationships between two economic units of the G8 will take For Canada an agreement with the EU would end its current dependency on the US for the EU an agreement with Canada would be a first with a G8 economy and indicate how its new trade strategy Global Europe will look like This book is the first to simultaneously analyze the undercurrents of this project and introduce the main topics at hand CETA is much more than a simple free trade agreement its breadth covers regulatory aspects in goods services and finance the opening of public procurement markets attitudes and policies of Canadian provinces towards liberalization climate policies and international leadership claims of the EU in comparison to Canadian policy attempts the challenges of the Euro project and the reform efforts and the challenges of the Euro as a international reserve currency CETA is a challenging project that will kick start enormous changes in trade policy making as well as in market openness in Canada It will mark the EU s efforts to re make the Atlantic Economy This book provides deep insights into the ambiguity of the project and addresses the implications of a rapidly changing global economy for trade policy Offering analysis of the financial industry banking trade policy climate change strategy and the Euro exchange rate this book should be of interest to students and policy makers alike

Research Study on Festival and Events: 3rd EU-China International Literary Festival Josipa Mijoč, Ivana Jobst, Zoe XIE 中国, 2022-05-30 Festivals are events that are planned in advance and that provide an opportunity to network discuss and present projects products services but also to popularise festival themes with the possibility of social and cultural interaction between stakeholders taking part in the festival Festival stakeholders can be observed through several groups i.e. organisers participants exhibitors visitors sponsors volunteers policy makers media and the public Festivals and events are often applied by stakeholders in the creative industry sector According to Throsby's concentric circles model 2008 together with music and visual and performing arts literature is a fundamental cultural expression that brings achievements of the greatest artistic value The aim of the book Research Study on Festival and Events is to examine the role and satisfaction of a large number of stakeholders in an international festival In addition the results are intended to encourage the process of developing and validating a research methodology for researching festivals on different samples The research study examines the specifics of an international festival aimed at the publishing sector and analyses the 3rd EU China International Literary Festival The EU China International Literary Festival is held twice a year in China and a number of events are attended by Chinese and European Union authors and authors from China and the European Union take part in a number of events The Festival programme is aimed at Chinese audiences and events take place in two Chinese cities Previous research indicates the existence of a research gap in the research on festival events which is reflected in the failure to simultaneously examine multiple stakeholder groups at a selected festival This research study presents the results of three separate studies conducted after the 3rd EU China International Literary Festival n 78 Chinese Festival visitors and two groups of authors representing experts of the Literary Festival i.e. European and Chinese authors As the audience was able to follow the Festival at the venue n 4 288 or online n 112 059 an online questionnaire was prepared for both groups and attitudes towards the Festival events of both groups of visitors were collected and analysed After the analysis of research findings guidelines and recommendations were derived to improve the quality success of the festival The research methodology can be used in the study of festival phenomena and measuring the success of a festival from the perspective of different stakeholders The methodology and findings summarised in this research study make an additional contribution to the promotion and popularisation of EU literature and authors in order to encourage cross cultural cooperation Throsby 2008 n 78 n 4 288 n 112 059      Europe Alicia Klepeis, 2019-01-25 The continent of Europe is home to countries large and small Learn about the people history geography and wildlife of the European continent This title includes a glossary websites and fast facts      Regulating Short Food Supply Chains in the EU Mirta Alessandrini, 2024-11-30 This volume presents a thorough analysis of the concept and role of Short Food Supply Chains SFSCs within the EU legal framework with a two fold aim first it shows the pitfalls of the current legal scenario which often limits alternatives rather than promoting them and second it provides a new conceptualisation for SFSCs under EU law by delineating and integrating all their distinctive features Agricultural landscapes in the EU are now undergoing fundamental changes revealing an increasing interest in SFSCs as a tool for promoting both local products and their food systems Despite being the backbone of the EU agricultural system SFSCs position in the current socioeconomic narrative has not been sufficiently fostered In response the book traces how SFSCs have historically been dealt with under the agricultural rules of the CAP and to a much lesser extent those relating to internal market food law delving into the intricate relationship between agricultural and food law The integration of these two disciplines into an agri food law domain represented a pivotal shift in legal discourse in particular in the context of SFSC regulation The legal analysis extends its scope to encompass spatial and historical dimensions enriching the contextual understanding of regulatory frameworks over time and across geographical boundaries This new conceptualisation does not aim to establish a universal set in the stone legal definition for SFSC applicable across disciplines Rather it seeks to identify common themes and key features among various SFSC initiatives These themes serve as the foundation for determining a set of minimum legal requirements for the recognition and valorisation of SFSC initiatives at the EU level which Member States can then tailor to their specific needs The goal is to lay the groundwork for developing a concept that can be effectively operationalised across different sectors and geographical dimensions The book makes a substantial contribution to the current academic debate filling a significant gap in the existing CAP literature On the one hand it provides the first comprehensive and systematic analysis of all the measures that have addressed small farmers and SFSCs from the CAP reforms up to the present day On the other by adopting a new multidisciplinary perspective encompassing legal sociological and agri food studies it raises new questions on the role of short supply chains in light of the Farm to Fork Strategy and beyond

Health Law and Policy Tamara K. Hervey, Calum Alasdair Young, Louise E. Bishop, 2017-03-31 The steady expansion of the European Union's involvement in health over the past 20 years has been accelerated by recent events This handbook offers an up to date analytical overview of the most important topics in EU health law and policy It outlines as far as possible the direction of travel for each topic and suggests research agenda's for the future Markets, Business and Sustainability Ilias P. Vlachos, George Malindretos, 2015-03-26 Many studies on environmental and business sustainability have been conducted over the last couple of decades These studies demonstrate that the concept of sustainability management can be applied to several industries Consumers around the globe are increasingly interested in sustainable consumption and they turn their attention into sustainable products thus campaigning for banning companies and supply chains that do not operate under sustainable ethos Markets Business and Sustainability is a collection of selected reports that examine business sustainability market sustainability and supply chain sustainability in a variety of contexts and using diverse methodologies This reference work emphasizes the profound impact of sustainability management on markets and business Readers are presented with critical analyses on different dimensions of sustainability This book covers the applications of sustainable management techniques in construction city logistics and the food industry Sustainability management practitioners consumers as well as students and academics can enrich their understanding about the business dimension of sustainability and also find references of available literature on the subject The information presented in this reference is also helpful to senior business leaders seeking to create a vision mission and strategy for their companies in order to create sustainable value and an organizational culture of sustainability Sustainable Supply Chains Yann Bouchery, Charles J. Corbett, Jan C. Fransoo, Tarkan Tan, 2024-04-10 This book is primarily intended to serve as a research based textbook on sustainable supply chains for graduate programs in business management industrial engineering and industrial ecology but should also be of interest to researchers in the broader sustainable supply chain space whether from the operations management and industrial engineering side or more from the industrial ecology and life cycle assessment side As firms become ever more tightly coupled in global supply chains rather than being large and vertically integrated monoliths the risks and opportunities associated with activities upstream or downstream will increasingly affect their own wellbeing For firms to thrive it is increasingly imperative that they be aware of the economic environmental and social dimensions of the supply chains they operate in and that they proactively monitor and manage them Finding effective solutions towards a more sustainable supply chain is increasingly important for managers but raises difficult questions often without clear answers This book provides students and practitioners valuable insights into these kinds of questions based on the latest academic research Chapter Food Loss Food Waste and Sustainability in Food Supply Chains is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com The Europa Year-book Michael S.
