The Geography of Wine Percy H. Dougherty,2012-01-03 Wine has been described as a window into places cultures and times Geographers have studied wine since the time of the early Greeks and Romans when viticulturalists realized that the same grape grown in different geographic regions produced wine with differing olfactory and taste characteristics This book based on research presented to the Wine Specialty Group of the Association of American Geographers shows just how far the relationship has come since the time of Bacchus and Dionysus Geographers have technical input into the wine industry with exciting new research tackling subjects such as the impact of climate change on grape production to the use of remote sensing and Geographical Information Systems for improving the quality of crops This book explores the interdisciplinary connections and science behind world viticulture Chapters cover a wide range of topics from the way in which landforms and soil affect wine production to the climatic aberration of the Niagara wine industry to the social and structural challenges in reshaping the

South African wine industry after the fall of apartheid The fundamentals are detailed too with a comparative analysis of Bordeaux and Burgundy and chapters on the geography of wine and the meaning of the term terroir Hospitality Paul Lynch, Alison Morrison, Conrad Lashley, 2007-01-18 Hospitality a social lens follows on from the unique contribution made by In Search of Hospitality theoretical perspectives and debates It progresses debate challenges the boundaries of ways of knowing hospitality and offers intellectual insights stimulated by the study of hospitality The contributing authors provide tangible evidence of continuing advancement and development of knowledge pertaining to the phenomenon of hospitality They draw on the richness of the social sciences taking host and guest relations as a means of studying in group and out group relations with and between societies The chapter contributors represent a multi disciplinary international grouping of leading academics with expertise in hospitality management and education human resource management linguistics modern languages gastronomy history human geography art architecture anthropology and sociology Each lends their expertise to apply as a social lens through which to view analyse and explore hospitality within a range of contexts Through this process novel ways of interpreting knowing and sense making emerge that are captured in the final chapter of the book and have informed future research themes which are explored A Light From Zion Yossi Ives, 2022-06-30 How did Israel rise in just a few decades from a tiny struggling country with a third world economy to a highly developed technological and economic powerhouse In A Light from Zion Yossi Ives provides a unique window into how Israel solved many of its most difficult problems through striking innovations in fields including agriculture environment healthcare disaster relief water purification and business By sharing its expertise with developing countries all over the world Israel has helped millions of people overcome the challenges they face in their efforts to develop and modernize thereby fulfilling its mission to be a light unto the nations WineSpeak Bernard Klem, 2009-07-01 If you read wine reviews you re already either amused or confused by the soaring language wine writers often use to describe what they re smelling and tasting But do you always know what they mean Have you ever sipped a complex white and sensed what s so colorfully described as a peacock s tail Have you ever savored a full bodied red only to detect the ripe acrid smell of a horse stall If not you re in for a treat because these terms and thousands more are all here to amuse dismay enlighten inspire puzzle and utterly shock you Welcome to the rich linguistic universe of wine speak a world where words and wine intersect in an uncontrolled riot of language guaranteed to keep you entertained for hours The author a lifelong lover of both wine and words has compiled and organized this unique thesaurus of 36 975 wine tasting descriptors into 20 special collections extracted from 27 categories so you can locate exactly the right term or phrase to express yourself clearly or to understand others May your path across the galaxy of wine be paved only with labels from the very best bottles on earth Or much more cautiously with wines that could introduce you to angel pee citronella eastern European fruit soup Godzilla iodine ladies underwear mustard gas old running shoes rawhide hot tar roads bubblegum sweaty saddles crushed ants kitchen drains or even turpentine Global Wine Tourism Jack

Carlsen,2007 Wine regions are attracting increasing numbers of tourists through tours wine festivals and events and winery restaurant and cellar door experiences Using a host of case studies from Europe North America South Africa Australia and New Zealand this book reviews the latest wine tourism research and management and marketing strategies The book highlights the lessons learnt for wine tourism and related industries and concludes by examining the future of the wine tourism industry Indiana Beverage Journal ,2002 Shopping Tourism, Retailing and Leisure Dallen J.

Timothy,2005-03-14 Shopping Tourism Retailing and Leisure provides a comprehensive examination of the relationships between tourism leisure shopping and retailing Critical issues are examined within the framework of the dichotomous relationship between utilitarian and hedonic forms of shopping shopping as a primary and secondary attraction in tourist destinations the development of various tourist retail venues the role of souvenirs in tourism and management issues e g merchandising venue design and customer service The Business of Wine Geralyn G. Brostrom,Jack

Brostrom,2008-12-30 Wine has been a beverage staple since ancient times especially in Europe Today s global wine business is thriving and American consumption of wine has increased dramatically in recent years with the health benefits touted in the media More Americans are becoming interested in learning about wine and they are taking winery tours and attending wine tastings The Business of Wine An Encyclopedia is a necessary part of wine education for everyone from the curious consumer to the oenophile or business student and industry professional It appeals to even the casual browser who wants to be more informed about wine terminology such as terroir or varietal labeling or what constitutes a Pinot Grigio or a Cabernet Sauvignon More than 140 entries illuminate the regions grapes history wine styles business elements events people companies issues and more that are crucial to the wine industry Today s wine industry is an unusually complex network of interrelated businesses that collectively serve to produce wine and get it into the hands of consumers all over the world This A Z encyclopedia shows how production distribution and sales segments work together to bring wine to the public and describes the trade in wine and its related subsidiary elements Written by a host of wine professionals this is the most up to date source to understand what goes into the enjoyment of a glass of wine An appendix with industry data sidebars and a selected bibliography complement the A Z entries Food Tourism Around The World C. Michael Hall,Liz Sharples,Richard Mitchell,Niki Macionis,Brock Cambourne,2004-02-18 Food and wine are vital components of the tourism experience and are increasingly being seen as prime travel motivators in their own right Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets offers a unique insight into this phenomenon looking at the interrelationship between food the tourism product and the tourist experience Using international case studies and examples from Europe North America Australasia and Singapore Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets discusses the development range and repercussions of the food tourism phenomenon The multi national contributor team analyses such issues as the food tourism product food tourism and consumer behaviour cookery schools educational vacations food as an
