Football Picking Winners Against The Spread:

Diary of a Football Handicapper Robert L. Carneiro, 2006-11-10 This journal captures the day by day week by week excitement of a fall season spent challenging the sports books of Reno as the author tries to beat the point spread betting college football While basically the story of one man armed with a system going head to head against the oddsmaker it is also an ethnography of the sports books of Nevada The author a professional anthropologist presents the most detailed account ever written of just how sports books operate How is the point spread made By whom How does it change game by game in response to the money bet All this and more is revealed But beyond that here is a very human story of an avid football fan indulging his passion and his hobby trying doggedly to outsmart the oddsmaker Moreover the book catches the flavor of the gambling scene in Reno as well as reflecting the color and pageantry of college football
