Footprints On The Land American Stories About Race:

Footprints on the Land Helen H. Helfer, 2003 Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature The Earth, the City, and the Hidden Narrative of Race Carl Anthony, 2017-10-10 In this work Carl Anthony shares his perspectives as an African American child in post World War II Philadelphia a student and civil rights activist in 1960s Harlem a traveling student of West African architecture and an architect planner and environmental justice advocate in Berkeley He contextualizes this within American urbanism and human origins making profoundly personal both African American and American urban histories as well as planetary origins and environmental issues to not only bring a new worldview to people of color but to set forth a truly inclusive vision of our shared planetary future The Earth the City and the Hidden Narrative of Race connects the logics behind slavery community disinvestment and environmental exploitation to address the most pressing issues of our time in a cohesive and foundational manner Most books dealing with these topics and periods silo issues apart from one another but this book contextualizes the connections between social movements and issues providing tremendous insight into successful movement building Anthony's rich narrative describes both being at the mercy of racism urban disinvestment and environmental injustice as well as fighting against these forces with a variety of strategies Because this work is both a personal memoir and an exposition of ideas it will appeal to those who appreciate thoughtful and unique writing on issues of race including individuals exploring their own African American identity as well as progressive audiences of organizations and community leaders and professionals interested in democratizing power and advancing equitable policies for low income communities and historically disenfranchised communities Race and Racialization, 2E Tania Das Gupta, Carl E. James, Chris Andersen, Grace-Edward Galabuzi, Roger C. A. Maaka, 2018-02-01 Few words have generated as much debate and controversy as the word race Through a critical examination of this complex subject this anthology brings together essential contributions to the study of race and racialization An excellent compilation of classic and contemporary works by academic and activist writers Race and Racialization provides historical comparative and global perspectives on race and its intersection with gender class ethnicity indigeneity and sexuality This well updated second edition includes a new section on state multiculturalism and a diverse ensemble of Canadian and international contributors who explore such relevant themes as colonialism institutional racism ethnocentrism privilege marginalization and resistance Featuring introductions to each piece written by the editors annotated lists of supplementary readings to encourage further exploration and contributions by activists from Idle No More and Black Lives Matter this comprehensive and highly accessible anthology is perfect for students studying race racism cultural diversity identity and belonging social inequality and social justice Reading the Short Story Anna Wing-bo Tso, Scarlett Lee, 2019-10-31 Beginning with a brief history and evolution of the short story genre alongside an overview of the key short story writers and an explanatory chapter of literary criticism this book aims to give readers insight into the works by canonical British Irish and American authors including Edgar Allan Poe James Joyce Flannery O Connor and more Applying close reading skills and critical literary approaches to twelve selected short stories in English this work conducts comparative analyses to reveal the interrelationships between the texts the authors the readers and the sociocultural contexts Developed and tested in literature classes at university over several semesters this book addresses key issues topics and trends in the short story genre

The Story of a Rising Race James Jefferson Pipkin, 1902 An attempt by a Southerner to rise above deep breed prejudices and objectively list the known accomplishments of African Americans following the end of slavery

Neo-race Realities in the Obama Era Heather E. Harris, 2019-05-01 Neo race Realities in the Obama Era expands the discourse about Barack Obama s two terms as president by reflecting upon the impact of neo racism during his tenure Continually in conversation with tienne Balibar s conceptualization of neo racism as being racism without race the contributors examine how identities become the target of neo racist discriminatory practices and policies in the United States Individual chapters explore how President Obama s multiple and intersecting identities beyond the racial binaries of Black and White were perceived as well as how his presence impacted certain marginalized groups in our society as a result of his administration s policies Evidencing the hegemonic complexity of neo racism in the United States the contributors illustrate how the mythic post race society that many wished for on election night in 2008 was deferred in order to return to the uncomfortable comfort zone of the way America used to be

War Is All Hell Edward J. Blum, John H. Matsui, 2021-05-28 An examination of how Americans brought concepts of the devil demons and hell into every fabric of their lives and times in the American Civil War These influences continued to impact the nation and its people after the war

The Pursuit of Racial and Ethnic Equality in American Public Schools Kristi L. Bowman, 2014-12-19 In 1954 the Supreme Court decided Brown v Board of Education ten years later Congress enacted the Civil Rights Act These monumental changes in American law dramatically expanded educational opportunities for racial and ethnic minority children across the country They also changed the experiences of white children who have learned in increasingly diverse classrooms The authors of this commemorative volume include leading scholars in law education and public policy as well as important historical figures Taken together the chapters trace the narrative arc of school desegregation in the United States beginning in California in the 1940s continuing through Brown v Board the Civil Rights Act and three important Supreme Court decisions about school desegregation and voluntary integration in 1974 1995 and 2007 The authors also assess the status of racial and ethnic equality in education today and consider the viability of future legal and policy reform in pursuit of the goals of Brown v Board This remarkable collection of voices in conversation with one another lays the groundwork for future discussions about the relationship between law and educational equality and ultimately for the creation of new public policy A valuable reference for scholars and students alike this dynamic text is an important contribution to the literature by an outstanding group of authors Confronting Racial Injustice Gerald Hiestand,Joel Lawrence,2022-11-30 One of the greatest crises facing the church is the crisis of racial injustice that has so long marred the body of Christ in America Evangelicals have traditionally had a set of biblical theological and cultural tools we have used for dealing with questions about race the necessity of personal responsibility the possibility of heart renewal through faith in Jesus the transformative impact of interpersonal relationships and the bedrock conviction that every human being is made in the image of God and is thus of equal worth and dignity But in the world after 2020 the evangelical church must now recognize that our theological playbook has been ineffective in rooting out racism from the church and in confronting our own complicity in racial injustice We must now ask What other theological convictions are required of us as we consider the image bearing humanity of George Floyd Breonna Taylor Ahmaud Arbery and many others Confronting Racial Injustice explores theological vistas to aid the church in our pursuit of racial justice The World's Work ,1913 A history of our time Out of Turmoil Dean P. Vesperman,Anne Aydinian-Perry,Matthew T. Missias,Whitney G. Blankenship,2023-01-01 It is not difficult to argue that the social sciences are in a period of transition Our day to day lives have been marked by uncertainty as our social lives have vacillated wildly between highs and lows tensions between fellow citizens have heightened along ideological fault lines and educators have been placed squarely at the center of public discourses about what and how we should be teaching By any measure we are living in a time where every moment seems to be rife with high stakes realities that must be navigated Ladson Billings 2020 called on educators to reimagine education and contest the notion of a return to normal In the current highly polarized context where we see multiple competing narratives rather than promoting a return to normal or business as usual approach we argue that educators must use the lessons of the last two years as well as draw on what we have learned from history and the social sciences By asking ourselves how we might interrogate and inform current social landscapes and the challenges that arise from them we have the opportunity to take leadership in fostering innovation building solidarity and re imagining the teaching and learning of history and the social sciences We recognize that humans live in multiple complex communities that include intersectional identities relationships with power agency and discourses and lived realities that are as unique as they are divergent Consequently the task of educators and the goal of this volume is to provide a clarion voice to a dynamic relational and undeniably human social world The Hung Society Or the Society of Heaven and Earth John Sebastian Marlow Ward,William George Stirling,1926 The Story of Man James William Buel,1889 American Conservation in Picture and in Story Ovid Butler,1946 The Annual American Catalog, 1900-1909 ,1907 In the Adirondacks Matt Dallos,2023-03-28 An immersive journey into the past present and future of a region many consider the Northeast s wilderness backyard Out of all the rural areas of the United States including those in the West which are bigger and propped up by more pervasive myths about adventure and nation and wilderness and freedom the Adirondacks has accumulated a well known identity beyond its boundaries Untouched unspoiled it is defined by what we haven't done to it Combining author Matt Dallos's personal observations with his thorough research of primary and secondary documents In the Adirondacks rambles through the region to understand its significance within American culture and what lessons it might offer us for how we think about the environment In vivid prose Dallos digs through the region's past and present to excavate a series of compelling stories and places a moose named Harold a hot dog mogul's rustic mansion an ecological restoration on an alpine summit a hermit who demanded a helicopter ride and a millionaire who dressed up as a Native American to rob a stagecoach Along the way Dallos listens to locals and tourists visits wilderness areas and souvenir shops and digs through archives in museums and libraries In the Adirondacks blends lively history and immersive travel writing to explore the Adirondacks that captivated Dallos's childhood imagination while presenting a compelling and entertaining story about America's largest park outside of Alaska The result is an inquisitive journey through the region's bogs and lakes and boreal forests and the lives of residents and tourists Dallos turned toward the region to understand why he couldn't shake it from his mind What he learned is that he's not the only one In the Adirondacks explores the history and future of the most complicated contested park in North America raising important questions about the role of environmental preservation and the great outdoors in American history and culture
