by white collar crime in the business world and the SEC and members of Congress have expressed deep concern over the state of the system of corporate accounting. Management frauds are of primary importance in the family of business improprieties because to a large extent the health of the capital markets rests on the confidence that financial statements are not fraudulent. Thus the detection and prevention of fraudulent financial statements goes to the heart of the functioning of the economy. By taking steps to improve their detection and deterrence of management fraud the auditing profession and the business community can provide assurance to the public as to the effectiveness of the system of corporate accountability and at the same time provide constructive answers to critics claiming that both groups have been indecisive in responding to the problems of management fraud. This book is intended to assist the auditing profession and the business community in responding to the problem. This book is divided into two parts. Part I explores the management fraud problem in depth. Part II presents the commissioned papers by experts in the field i.e. Myron Uretsky, Jerry L. Turner, David R. Saunders, Donald R. Cressey, Jack Katz, Martin M. Greller, Donn B. Parker, James E. Sorensen and Thomas L. Sorensen. W. Steve Albrecht, David J. Cheerrington, I. Reed Payne, Allan V. Roe and Marshall B.
