For All The Right Reasons:

Wrong for All the Right Reasons Gordon MacInnes, 1996-02-01 There was a time in this century when liberals championed the working class when Democrats were indisputably the party of those who worked rather than invested for a living Today however most Americans have come to see liberals as drifting and aimless somehow lacking in backbone and moral fiber beholden to radical ideologies that have little to do with the average American's life Few incidents cast this phenomenon into greater relief than George Bush's successful tarring of Michael Dukakis as a liberal in 1988 and tellingly Dukakis's subsequent flight from the liberal tradition How has it come to this Why have liberals allowed themselves to be so portrayed In this book Gordon MacInnes state senator fiscal conservative frustrated Democrat and a man who believes deeply in America's civic culture reveals how progressive forces have retreated from the battle of ideas at great cost Squarely at the nexus of race poverty and politics Wrong for All the Right Reasons charts the sources of liberal decline and the high costs of conservative rule Tracing the origins of the liberal retreat to the fall out over Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan's report on the black family in the 1960s MacInnes claims that white liberals have somewhere along the way stopped taking black people seriously enough to argue with them Continuously put on the defensive liberals have been unable to forge an aggressive proactive agenda of that addresses the needs of working class and poor Americans This has led to a breakdown of honest dialogue which to this day continues to plague liberal Democrats as evidenced by Bill Bradley's withdrawal from active party politics last fall Finding room for optimism in the groundswell of grass roots progressivism Wrong for All the Right Reasons is a timely necessary call to arms for liberal progressive Democrats outlining ways in which they can reverse their party's dangerous decline

Cooper, 2013-08-25 This is a major reinterpretation of ancient philosophy that recovers the long Greek and Roman tradition of philosophy as a complete way of life and not simply an intellectual discipline Distinguished philosopher John Cooper traces how for many ancient thinkers philosophy was not just to be studied or even used to solve particular practical problems Rather philosophy not just ethics but even logic and physical theory was literally to be lived Yet there was great disagreement about how to live philosophically philosophy was not one but many mutually opposed ways of life Examining this tradition from its establishment by Socrates in the fifth century BCE through Plotinus in the third century CE and the eclipse of pagan philosophy by Christianity Pursuits of Wisdom examines six central philosophies of living Socratic Aristotelian Stoic Epicurean Skeptic and the Platonist life of late antiquity The book describes the shared assumptions that allowed these thinkers to conceive of their philosophies as ways of life as well as the distinctive ideas that led them to widely different conclusions about the best human life Clearing up many common misperceptions and simplifications Cooper explains in detail the Socratic devotion to philosophical discussion about human nature human life and human good the Aristotelian focus on the true place of humans within the total system of the natural world the Stoic commitment to dutifully accepting Zeus's plans the Epicurean pursuit of pleasure through tranquil activities that exercise perception thought and feeling the Skeptical eschewal of all critical reasoning in forming their beliefs and finally the late Platonist emphasis on spiritual concerns and the eternal realm of Being Pursuits of Wisdom is essential reading for anyone interested in understanding what the great philosophers of antiquity thought was the true purpose of philosophy and of life

TURNER, 2015-10-09 Meditation prompts came about as a result of the Lord fulfilling the promise He gave to me in the book of Proverbs 24:13-14 Not long after the rededication of my commitment to serve Jesus Christ I was gifted with His promise of wisdom with understanding These promptings often came in the early morning hours during my time of communion and fellowship I often liken these moment by moment refreshments as to spending time in The River of Life His introduction of intimacy begins as a gradual stream that journeys through chosen meadow like valleys of insight I have experienced the peace of His inviting presence as the stirrings of a brook which flows over smooth stones that lay in its pathway These were quiet captivating interludes of lively conversational thoughts which were orchestrated by His Spirit It is beyond my comprehension that God Who made all things could so affectionately and purposefully lift me closer to Himself through the raising of my spiritual understanding of His ways As our time together progresses on we eventually arrive at a place where the vastness of His thoughts are overwhelmingly endless At such a view I am taken in and dispersed about by the breadth and length depth and height of His love for me God in all His Majesty and Splendor begins to personally instruct on what is to be unveiled of His treasury of hidden thoughts God releases wisdom to reproduce His thoughts in the minds and hearts that hold His affection Meditation and prompts are fruitful twins that come from the union of God and His beloved God is faithful and is without loss

Most Evil Is Done by Good People Who Do Not Know That They Are Not Good Ferd L. Wagner, 2010-05 This book takes the view that Christian truth is the basis for all answers to social issues and that there are not two opposing but equal answers within Christian truth that are equally valid and equally acceptable to God Any so called truth or right that circumvents or undercuts the required sacrifices disciplines and self denial demanded by God in any given social or moral issue ceases to be truth ceases to be right the moment it becomes a force unto itself outside of or independent of the Scripturally required obedience Human history has shown over the millennia that when the letter and spirit of God's laws are not obeyed the truth is abused nations become confused and people are used Many of our political and social issues are rooted in our misplaced belief that tolerance inclusion equal respect for unequal truth and live and let live is the way to greater peace and prosperity They are all wrong Each individual government and nation is judged by their response to Christ The Christian nation or one which ascribes to being one is tasked to set the Christian standard as every nation's point of reference It is the Christian's duty to show that the valid rule of God's law the letter of God's law and the spirit of God's law are superior to any other alternative standard The biggest obstacle to Christianity today is the undisciplined misinformed and unfaithful lifestyles of professing Christians The Church has become so indoctrinated in its aversion to any form of discrimination that it has placed a higher priority on keeping the peace by compromising than by keeping the truth by discriminating By accepting a false peace and rejecting a hard truth that resists compromise it begets neither peace nor truth
