Alistair Cooke at the Movies Alistair Cooke, 2015-03-03 A wonderful entertainment that reflects Alistair Cooke s love affair with cinema from his early days as a film critic to his iconic role as the host of Masterpiece Theatre Humphrey Bogart Fred Astaire Lauren Bacall Marlene Dietrich and Marilyn Monroe are just a few of the stars profiled along with many directors in this sparkling and comprehensive collection of reviews interviews and essays Alistair

Cooke's first radio talk at the BBC was in October 1934 and the subject was cinema. He had begun reviewing films in the 1920s as a Cambridge undergraduate. This anthology of his best film criticism and essays includes his many favorite subjects. In The Symbol Called Garbo, Cooke reveals the woman behind the enigmatic screen goddess. James Cagney is identified as one of the few technically perfect actors while Charlie Chaplin was the funniest clown alive. Shirley Temple's multi-million dollar appeal is explained as is the subtlety underpinning the slapstick humor of the Marx Brothers. Directors such as Frank Capra, Fritz Lang, and Cecil B. DeMille meet with Cooke's high praise while Alfred Hitchcock evokes a more complicated reaction. Full of glamorous stars, provocative opinions, and fond memories, Alistair Cooke at the Movies is a very personal and captivating guide to the golden age of Hollywood and beyond.

The shortest path to wisdom Liza Zaikina, 2022-05-11 Who are you and why is everything like this? Oh no, no, no questions asked. The world was created by God and certainly not by us. There is no his signature in the lower right corner of our planet; he does not sign autographs, but we are all created according to his plan and only he knows what is best for us. The planet could be a paradise if the commandments of God were not an indication to the right actions but an ordinary state. Each of us chooses what contribution to bring to the world, who to be in it, good or evil, how to spend natural resources and spend today. God loves everyone and does not divide people into believers and unbelievers. He is waiting for us to say one day: "Are you there, Lord? I need you so much."

American Refuge Diya Abdo, 2022-09-06 A provocative conversation sparking exploration of refugee experiences told in their own words for readers of Karla Cornejo Villavicencio's The Undocumented Americans and Viet Thanh Nguyen's A Moving and Timely Book that Strips Away Misleading Politics to Reveal the Complexities of Real Human Lives. Kirkus Reviews starred review. Forced to leave their homes, they came to America. In this intimate and eye-opening book, Diya Abdo, daughter of refugees, U.S. immigrant, English professor, and activist shares the stories of seven refugees. Coming from around the world, they're welcomed by Every Campus A Refuge (ECAR), an organization Diya founded to leverage existing resources at colleges to provide temporary shelter to refugee families. Bookended by Diya's powerful essay Radical Hospitality and the inspiring coda Names and Numbers, each chapter weaves the individual stories into a powerful journey along a common theme: Life Before The Body Leaves Its Soul Behind The Moment of Rupture: Proof and Persecution. The Journey. Right Next Door. Arrival. Resettlement. Back to the Margins. A Few Years Later. From Camp to Campus. The lives explored in American Refuge include the artist who, before he created the illustration on the cover of this book, narrowly escaped two assassination attempts in Iraq and now works at Tyson cutting chicken. We learn that these refugees from Burma, Burundi, Iraq, Palestine, Syria, and Uganda lived in homes they loved, left against their will, moved to countries without access or rights, and were among the 1% of the lucky few to resettle after a long wait, almost certain never to return to the homes they never wanted to leave. We learn that anybody at any time can become a refugee.
