Expert Cultures in Central Eastern Europe Kohlrausch, Martin, Steffen, Katrin, Wiederkehr, Stefan, 2010-01-01 Das 20. Jahrhundert war das Jahrhundert des Experten. Der Aufstieg des Experten als eines speziellen Typus des beruflich qualifizierten Individuums war das Ergebnis zunehmender Verwissenschaftlichung von Wirtschaft, Gesellschaft und Politik. In seiner öffentlichen Funktion handelt der Experte stets im Spannungsfeld zwischen einem universellen Verständnis von Wissenschaft und den politischen Anforderungen, die der Nationalstaat an ihn stellt. Der vorliegende englischsprachige Band fragt nach dem Schicksal des Experten in Ostmitteleuropa vom Ende der dynastischen Imperien nach dem Ersten Weltkrieg bis zum Untergang des Kommunismus. Diese multiethnische Region mit ihrer gebrochenen Tradition von Staatlichkeit und politischen Systemen bildet ein ideales Fallbeispiel, um die komplexen Beziehungen zwischen transnationaler Kooperation und nationaler Orientierung im Handeln von Experten herauszuarbeiten. The 20th century can be described as the century of the expert. The emergence of the expert as a specific type of professionally qualified individual was a result of the growing scientification of economy, society and politics. In his public function, the expert always operates between a universalist understanding of science and the politically defined requirements of the nation state. This volume examines the fate of the expert in Central Eastern Europe from the breakdown of the dynastic empires after World War I to the end of Communism. This multiethnic region with its turbulent tradition of statehood and changing political systems provides an ideal case to reveal the complex relationship between the transnational cooperation among experts on the one hand and their national orientation on the other.

International Solidarity in the Low Countries during the Twentieth Century Kim Christiaens, John Nieuwenhuys, Charel Roemer, 2020-10-12 During the 20th century a variety of social movements and civil society groups stepped into the arena of international politics. This volume collects innovative research on international solidarity movements in Belgium and the Netherlands and places these movements prominently in debates about the history of globalization, transnational activism and international politics.

Power and Architecture Joachim Bretschneider, Jan Driessen, Karel van Lerberghe, 2007 The idea that societies and rulers express their power through monumental architecture is not a new one, but this collection of essays, the result of a 2002 conference in Leuven, takes the argument back to the very beginnings of monumental architecture in the Bronze Age Near East and Aegean to ask if this process can be linked to a particular

The Ghost of Shakespeare Anna Frajlich, 2020-11-24 This volume collects the critical prose of award-winning writer Anna Frajlich. The Ghost of Shakespeare takes its name from Frajlich's essay on Nobel Prize laureate Wisława Szymborska but informs her approach as a comparativist more generally as she considers the work of major Polish writers of the twentieth century including Zbigniew Herbert, Czesław Miłosz and Bruno Schulz. Frajlich's study of the Roman theme in Russian Symbolism owes its origins to her stay in the Eternal City, the second stop on her exile from Poland in 1969. The book concludes with autobiographical essays that describe her parents' dramatic flight from Poland at the outbreak of the war, her own exile from Poland in 1969, settling in New York City and building her career as a scholar and leading poet of her generation.

Foundations of Power and Conflicts of Authority in Late-antique Monasticism Alberto Camplani, Giovanni Filoramo, 2007. The volume offers the acts of a meeting held at the University of Turin on the foundations of power and the conflicts of authority as documented by the monastic sources of East and West in Late Antiquity with special reference to Max Weber's analysis of these notions. The issue is here examined from a variety of perspectives: the different meanings of power and authority in ancient monastic sources; the criteria by which authority is established within the monastic organizations; the kind of power and authority exercised towards outsiders; the relationship between monks and other authorities; especially the Church; the monks and their economic activity; the strategies for the solution of conflicts. The wide range of historical and cultural problems raised by these questions is what the present volume tries to illuminate through individual studies of a number of specific phenomena, events and figures from Shenute to John Cassian, from Abraham of Kashkar to Maxim the Confessor, paying particular attention to monasticism in Egypt, Palestine, Africa and Persia.

On the Skirts of Canaan in the Iron Age Edward Lipiński, 2006. The history of Canaan in the Iron Age is generally written from the perspective of the kingdoms of Israel and Judah. The scope of this book is to inverse this relation and to focus on the skirts of Canaan while regarding the United Monarchy and the Divided Monarchy as external and sometimes marginal players of the regional history. After having examined the transition from the Late Bronze Age to the Iron Age in the mid 12th century B.C. the book deals thus with the Philistines and the role of Egypt in Canaan during Iron Age II, especially in the face of the Assyrian expansion. It treats further of the Phoenicians and the Aramaeans. There follow five chapters on Bashan, Gilead, Ammon, Moab and Edom with the Negeb. Several indices facilitate the consultation of the work on particular topics.
