For Gods Sake Be Human:

For God's Sake, be Human John Killinger, 1977 For God's Sake Jessica Martin, 2017-02-01 A range of contributors explore the contradictions and paradoxes of a priest's daily life focusing on presence and prayer Love Divine Jordan Wessling, 2020 Love Divine provides a systematic account of the deep and rich love that God has for humans clarifying and defending conclusions concerning how the doctrine of divine love should be approached It presents a unified theological account of divine love punitive wrath and redemption Augustine on the Nature of Virtue and Sin Katherine Chambers, 2024-01-10 Augustine of Hippo is a key figure in the history of Christianity and has had a profound impact on the course of western moral and political thought Katherine Chambers here explores a neglected topic in Augustinian studies by offering a systematic account of the meaning that Augustine gave to the notions of virtue vice and sin Countering the view that he broke with classical eudaimonism she demonstrates that Augustine's moral thought builds on the dominant approach to ethics in classical pagan antiquity A critical appraisal of this tradition reveals that Augustine remained faithful to the eudaimonist approach to ethics Chambers also refutes the view that Augustine was a political pessimist or realist showing that it is based upon a misunderstanding of Augustine's ideas about the virtue of justice Providing a coherent account of key features in Augustine's ethics her study invites a new and fresh evaluation of his influence on western moral and political thought Relationship Morality James Kellenberger, 2010-11-01 Bernard Lonergan Robert M. Doran, Jeremy D. Wilkins, H. Daniel Monsour, 2018-11-07 Thematically focused on the theology of redemption or what is called in theology soteriology each of the two sections of The Redemption addresses biblical literature and significant moments in the history of Christian theology and especially the work of Anselm of Canterbury The second part of the book presents a significant treatment of the problem of good and evil and introduces the important category of cultural evil Most significant from the standpoint of Lonergan's original contribution is the treatment accorded in both Part 1 and Part 2 to what he calls the just and mysterious law of the cross The treatment of biblical literature contains a valuable distinction between redemption as end and redemption as medium Beginning with theses 15-17 from Lonergan's Collected Works The Incarnate Word this volume also includes rare and never before published texts originally written in the late 1950s Complete Works ... graf Leo Tolstoy, 1905 The Complete Works of Count Tolstoy: Miscellaneous letters and essays graf Leo Tolstoy, 1905 Early Modern Philosophy of Religion Graham Oppy, N. N. Trakakis, 2014-09-11 The early modern period in philosophy encompassing the 16th to the 18th centuries reflects a time of social and intellectual turmoil The Protestant Reformation the Catholic Counter Reformation and the birth of the Enlightenment all contributed to the re-evaluation of reason and faith The revolution in science and in natural philosophy swept away two millennia of Aristotelian certainty in a human-centred universe Covering some of the most important figures in the history of Western thought notably Descartes Locke Hume and Kant Early Modern Philosophy of Religion charts the philosophical understanding of religion at a time of intellectual and spiritual revolution Early Modern Philosophy of Religion will be of interest to historians and philosophers of religion while also serving as an indispensable reference for teachers students and others who would like to learn more about this formative period in the history of ideas

Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of the symbol those implicit attestations that permit the possibility of divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation The author investigates two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies normally attest 1 divine grief or suffering due to human sin or betrayal by the beloved human and 2 divine self sacrifice or suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery so as to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation
