For Library Trustees Only Living With Your Director:

For Library Directors Only Will Manley, 1993 Flip flop book presents public library administration from the viewpoint of the head librarian and the trustees LC number for trustees 92 50943 Managerial Leadership for Librarians G. Edward Evans, Holland Christie, 2017-10-11 Putting library management into the unique context of the not for profit world this work offers you invaluable guidance on how to manage your library effectively Managing a library presents a significantly different challenge than managing a small business a corporation or even a school or charity organization To be effective managers and excel in their careers librarians must understand their unique position in the social landscape and leverage that role to become influential leaders This guide shows librarians how to make the most of their inherent skills and develop new leadership strengths in order to become better library managers advance their careers and sustain their libraries in spite of changing environments and shrinking budgets The book examines many facets of managerial leadership defines what managerial leadership is and describes how to assess and increase leadership skills The chapters also identify the constraints unique to libraries and explain how you can develop positive relationships with government boards turn a vision into a practical strategic plan and exercise fiscal control You will gain invaluable knowledge about fund raising developing political skills advocacy and lobbying and legal and ethical concerns specifically in the library environment The final section of the book is devoted to people skills understanding yourself and others developing staff collaboration negotiation meetings and presentations and creating future success The Laughing Librarian Jeanette C. Smith, 2014-01-10 Despite the stodgy stereotypes libraries and librarians themselves can be quite funny The spectrum of library humor from sources inside and outside the profession ranges from the subtle wit of the New Yorker to the satire of Mad This examination of American library humor over the past 200 years covers a wide range of topics and spans the continuum between light and dark from parodies to portrayals of libraries and their staffs as objects of fear It illuminates different types of librarians the collector the organization person the keeper the change agent and explores stereotypes like the shushing little old lady with a bun the male scholar librarian the library superhero and the anti stereotype of the sexy librarian Profiles of the most prominent library humorists round out this lively study Technicalities , 1993 The Library Trustee Virginia G.
