For Love Alone:

For Love Alone Christina Stead, 2011 In the harbour city's steamy fecund heat the air is thick with thwarted longing the people on the tram smell like foxes and the girls with their glossy hair talk of hope chests and fight down the dread of being left on the shelf from the Introduction by Drusilla Modjeska Superbly evoking life in Sydney and London in the 1930s For Love Alone is the story of the intelligent and determined Teresa Hawkins who believes in passionate love and yearns to experience it She focuses her energy on Jonathan Crow an unlikeable and arrogant man whom she follows to London after four long years of working in a factory and living at home with her loveless family Reunited with Crow in London she begins to realise that perhaps he is not as worthy of her affections as originally thought For Love Alone Shirlee

Busbee, 2013-12-03 Vows Are Made To Be Broken Stung by a troubled marriage then freed by the veil of widowhood Lady Sophy Marlowe vows she will only wed again for love alone But her penchant for being in the wrong place at the wrong time finds her accused of a crime she didn't commit and then accepting the calculated proposal of Viscount Ives Harrington to save her neck from the gallows For the once committed bachelor he finds the marriage of convenience a direct passage into intrigue and harrowing danger As the two flee over land and sea from a world bent on destroying them the fate they can hardly resist is rushing toward them fulfilling the desire that burns between them Busbee is back and better than ever Julia Quinn Busbee is a pleasure to read Booklist Praise for Shirlee Busbee A consummate storyteller Romantic Times Keeps the action and passion blazing Publishers Weekly For Love Alone Sabdale, 2008 For Love Alone captures the epic journey of the character Kadeem who is an educated black male living in the Candyville New York City where temptations run rampant In this Concrete Garden of temptation committed relationships are few Kadeem world changes the moment he met Daquan Undeterred by rumors and determined Kadeem surrenders to Daquan yielding his entire being to the promise of what love offers Their journey on the path of love takes them on a rollercoaster ride filled with mystery dreams manifested sexual magnetism secrets and betrayal Though their relationship is built on unlimited unshakable love their ego at times ensnares them and those who witness its magnetism cannot free themselves from its grasp For Love Alone Christina Stead, 1944

Superbly evoking life in Sydney and London in the 1930s For Love Alone is the story of the intelligent and determined Teresa Hawkins who believes in passionate love and yearns to experience it She focuses her energy on Jonathan Crow an unlikeable and arrogant man whom she follows to London after four long years of working in a factory and living at home with her loveless family Reunited with Crow in London she begins to realise that perhaps he is not as worthy of her affections as originally thought and abandons her idealised vision of love for something quite different Source of summary Auslit website accessed 2 September 2014 Christina Stead Diana Brydon, 1987-01-01 Stead's novels have gained growing readership and critical attention in recent years This feminist reading of the life and work of Christina Stead focuses on her characters and themes that question established assumptions about gender and class relations and the aesthetic values they support

From the Margins of Empire Louise Yelin, 2018-05-31 Situated at the intersection of the colonial and the postcolonial the modern and the postmodern the novelists Christina Stead Doris Lessing and Nadine Gordimer all bear witness to this century's global transformations From the Margins of Empire looks at how the question of national identity is constructed in their writings These authors white women who were born or grew up in British colonies or former colonies reflect the subject of national identity in vastly different ways in both their lives and their work Stead who resided outside of her native Australia has an unsettled identity Lessing who grew up in southern Rhodesia and migrated to England is or has become English Gordimer who was born in South Africa and remains there considers herself South African Louise Yelin shows how the three writers different national identities are inscribed in their fiction The invented hybrid character of nationality is she maintains a constant throughout Locating the writings of Stead Lessing and Gordimer in the national cultures that produced and read them she considers the questions they raise about the roles that whites especially white women can play in the new political and cultural order

Male Perspectives in Atwood's "Bluebeard's Egg" and Hazzard's *The Transit of Venus Giada Goracci, 2016-06-22 Postmodern revisions of fairy tales have influenced several discourses and disciplines especially during the second half of the twentieth century In particular during the course of postmodernism the rewriting of classic fairy tales has contributed to the subversion of their stereotypical structures thus advancing alternative readings This work offers an investigation into gender discourse in two postmodern re-writings of Bluebeard namely Margaret Atwood's Bluebeard's Egg and Shirley Hazzard's The Transit of Venus especially focusing on male queer perspectives that have not yet been taken into consideration Starting from an overview on the diverse conceptualisations of the terms gender and sexuality in modern and contemporary times this book analyses the birth and evolution of male studies and subsequently explores the ways in which they have influenced the interpretation of classical tales By means of an intertwined and shifting process which enables the characters of these contemporary revisions to disguise their identities within the pages and beyond their texts the figure of Bluebeard reveals himself as the in-between pattern for contemporary gender conceptualisations

Modernist Voyages Anna Snaith, 2014-02-24 This book examines colonial women writers who traveled to London in the modernist period and the significance of gender to the interwoven nature of empire and modernism Anna Snaith's wide-ranging study shows how the works of Jean Rhys Katherine Mansfield Una Marson and others renegotiated the position of women within the British Empire

Fragments and Meaning in Traditional Song Mary-Ann Constantine, Gerald Porter, 2003-08-07 This is a study of very short songs pieces long perceived as fragments or remnants of longer narrative texts and dismissed as the by-products of a degenerative oral tradition Coverage includes English Welsh Breton American and Finnish songs The authors argue that the inherently metaphorical and connotative idiom of traditional song makes external critical notions of completeness inappropriate in practice such pieces are rarely felt to be broken or lacking by those who sing them they have a strong metonymic force A wide range of texts and traditions is explored to suggest how short songs may convey meaning both in performance and in non traditional contexts such as the literary novel     The Magic Phrase Margaret Harris,2000 This is the first volume of essays by various hands on the work of the great Australian novelist Christina Stead 1902-83 It provides an overview of Stead criticism including pioneering classic essays together with a selection from the burgeoning critical literature of the 1980s and 90s and several articles not previously published

Enigmatic Christina Stead Teresa Petersen,2016-10-18 This is a remarkably stimulating new approach to Stead's fiction and to her psyche In this very strong reading often against the grain the author illuminates Stead's fiction in a way that has never been done before Chris Wallace Crabbe Christina Stead is arguably Australia's greatest female novelist Born and educated in Sydney she spent the greater part of her life abroad having left in 1928 to satisfy a wandering impulse The most famous of her thirteen novels The Man Who Loved Children 1940 is an acknowledged masterpiece of twentieth century fiction Stead's concentrated emotional intensity her interest in extraordinary passion and her keen sense of fantasy and the grotesque have led to comparisons with D H Lawrence Dostoevsky and Dickens Immediately striking are her strong imaginative power and range her verbal brilliance and her acute penetration of character The enigma identified and skilfully unravelled by Teresa Petersen surprisingly has hitherto been unexamined Overtly Stead presents the heterosexual norm as the paradigm par excellence yet she portrays no happy heterosexual relationships or marriages only miserable compromises More covertly lesbian eroticism pervades her fiction Usually shrouded in silence it imperceptibly surfaces and disappears sliding in and out of the narrative Petersen argues compellingly that although Stead's texts appear on the surface to be saturated with the heterosexual norm this is a facade that masks both lesbian and male homosexual desire By elucidating Stead's subtextual preoccupation with homosexuality Petersen challenges conventional scholarship and shifts our view of both Stead's work and her life
