Special Events Youth Specialties, 2011-05-03 More than 400 creative events for community building, outreach, and fun. Food Events: If there's one thing kids know and appreciate, it's food. Here's everything from elegant fetes to slobfests galore. Games and Sports Events: You don't have to be a jock to have fun playing these sporting events. Outings and Overnights: If you're crazy enough to take a group of adolescents on the road, whether across town or across the state, here are plenty of trip ideas. Races and Rallies: Your group has a need for speed. Whether it's cars, bikes, buses, or toilets, if it can be raced, you'll find an idea for it here. Special Events with a Purpose: More than fun. These events carry significant spiritual, moral, or community value. And more hunts and parties and theme events of all kinds. Whether you're a youth worker or recreation director in a church, school, club, or camp, Special Events is your storehouse of proven youth group-tested ideas. Talking the Walk Dave Bartlett, Bill Muir, 2011-03-01 Cultivate intimacy and honesty in your youth ministry's small groups. Here are 31 small group meetings about well, small groups. After all, the kind of honest sharing, perceptive silence, compassionate boldness, and mutual growth that are the marks of an effective and attractive small group don't always come naturally. With the complete sessions in Talking the Walk, all of them customized precisely for small groups, you can lead your small group of teenagers from just getting comfortable with kids they don't usually hang with to talking honestly, listening carefully, and understanding themselves and each other. The first five meetings are a gradual, gentle introduction to the idea of communication, confidences, and listening skills; the mechanics and heart of small group dynamics; then on to more than two dozen topical meetings about issues that matter most to adolescents: how to face life's tensions, self-esteem, change, sexuality, giving and receiving love, clarifying future goals, friends, family, forgiveness, diversity, conflict, moods, priorities, and more. All of them based in Bible passages appropriate for mixed groups of church and unchurched kids, and each session with more than enough creative and quirky ideas so you can select those that best fit your style and your small group's temperament. Perfect for outreach and evangelism groups, discipleship groups, Sunday school, midweek cell groups, any time you want small groups of your students to grow together in community in intimacy in faith Previously published as Honest to God 31 sessions
