Friendly Invasion The American Military In Newfoundland And Labrador 1940-1990:

A Friendly Invasion, the American Military in New Foundland, 1940-1990 John N.. Cardoulis, 1990 The Canadian Rangers P. Whitney Lackenbauer, 2013-05-01 The Canadian Rangers stand sentinel in the farthest reaches of our country For more than six decades this dedicated group of citizen soldiers has quietly served as Canada's eyes ears and voice in isolated coastal and northern communities Drawing on official records interviews and participation in Ranger exercises Lackenbauer argues that the organization offers an inexpensive way for Canada to show the flag from coast to coast to coast The Rangers have also laid the foundation for a successful partnership between the modern state and Aboriginal peoples a partnership rooted in local knowledge and crosscultural understanding Occupied St John's Steven C. High, 2010 The stories and memories of those who lived through the Second World War in Newfoundland Out Here Melvin Baker, Peter Neary, 2024-06-18 Vice Admiral Sir Humphrey Thomas Walwyn 1879 1957 was the British appointed governor of Newfoundland from 1936 to 1946 a period of remarkable change that would culminate in Newfoundland's union with Canada in 1949 Assembling records from the British national archives and the provincial archives in Newfoundland and Labrador Out Here presents readers with Walwyn's quarterly reports to the secretary of state for dominion affairs in London throughout his tenure as governor Walwyn's position offered him a unique vantage point on the political and economic situation in Newfoundland throughout this tumultuous period His reports bear witness to profound change chronicling the economic downturn experienced in the final years of the Great Depression followed by the unprecedented prosperity sparked by the Second World War that set the stage for debates over governance and for significant constitutional advance The detailed accounts of Walwyn's daily life in Newfoundland feature rich descriptions of capital city company town and outport mores they paint a picture of coastal life in the mid twentieth century and introduce the wide array of characters the governor encountered Throughout the candid insider accounts of Governor Walwyn are augmented by expert historical context and illustrated with a generous selection of contemporary photographs As a whole Out Here stands as an invaluable primary source record and an important trove of information on wartime experiences in Atlantic Canada Twentieth-century Newfoundland James Hiller, Peter Neary, 1994 Twentieth Century Newfoundland Explorations brings together ten papers by eight well known historians of Newfoundland and Labrador The papers address a wide variety of subject matter and open many avenues for further research The book concludes with an extensive bibliography on the Newfoundland and Labrador in the Twentieth century This bibliography is organized by topic and will serve the needs of the general reader and specialists alike Twentieth Century Newfoundland Explorations highlight the scope and complexity of present day writing about the history of Newfoundland and Labrador James Hiller Professor of History at Memorial University and author of a number of articles on Newfoundland in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Peter Neary Professor of History at the University of Western Ontario and the author of Newfoundland in the North Atlantic World 1929 1949 1998 A Cherished Past Rogert G.

Thorne, 2015-02-06 A cherished Past can be considered a time capsule of Newfoundland's history and inside you'll read everything from Newfoundland's vital role in both world wars to the early days of aviation when Newfoundland would play host to such aviation pioneers as Alcock and Brown, Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart. From disasters at the seal hunt and rum running to searching for victims of the doomed Titanic, Newfoundlanders made their fair share of history. So sit down and take a trip in time to our most glorious past.

Making the Best of It Sarah Glassford, Amy J. Shaw, 2020-04-15 Many women who lived through the Second World War believed it heralded new status and opportunities but scholars have argued that very little changed. How can these interpretations be reconciled? Making the Best of It examines the ways in which gender and other identities intersected to shape the experiences of female Canadians and Newfoundlanders during the war. The contributors to this thoughtful collection consider mainstream and minority populations, girls and women and different parts of Canada and Newfoundland. They reassess topics such as women in the military and in munitions factories and tackle entirely new subjects such as wartime girlhood in Quebec. Collectively these essays broaden the scope of what we know about the changes the war wrought in the lives of Canadian women and girls and address wider debates about memory, historiography and feminism.

Creating This Place Linda Cullum, Marilyn Porter, 2014-04-01 The twentieth century witnessed both the formation of Newfoundland as a self-conscious national entity and the construction of distinct and self-aware middle and upper classes in its capital city. This interdisciplinary collection examines the key roles played by women in the creation of this state and society and the essential influence that gender, ethnicity and religion played in class relations. Shifting class relations were formed in the salient political events of the first half of the twentieth century in Newfoundland: the First World War, the suffrage movement, the Great Depression, the Second World War and finally Newfoundland's contested entry into the Canadian Confederation. Creating This Place shows how upper middle and working class worlds were established in the everyday work of women as well as the ways in which the complex social boundaries of the period were constructed. Individual chapters explore issues such as women's work in religious and voluntary institutions, their struggle for voice, suffrage and political change, work of domestic servants and the construction of proper women and mothers through denominational education. Creating This Place adopts an innovative perspective on Newfoundland and Labrador that focuses on the often overlooked lives of urban women. Contributors include Sonja Boon, Memorial University; Linda Cullum, Memorial University; Margot Duley, University of Illinois at Springfield; Vicki Hallett, Memorial University; Jonathan Luedee, doctoral candidate, University of British Columbia; Bonnie Morgan, doctoral candidate, University of New Brunswick; Marilyn Porter, emerita, Memorial University; Karen Stanbridge, Memorial University; Helen Woodrow, Educational Planning and Design Associates and Harrish Press Publications.
