Karayanni,2009-08-03 Throughout centuries of European colonial domination the bodies of Middle Eastern dancers male and female move sumptuously and seductively across the pages of Western travel journals evoking desire and derision admiration and disdain allure and revulsion This profound ambivalence forms the axis of an investigation into Middle Eastern dance an investigation that extends to contemporary belly dance Stavros Stavrou Karayanni through historical investigation theoretical analysis and personal reflection explores how Middle Eastern dance actively engages race sex and national identity Close readings of colonial travel narratives an examination of Oscar Wilde's Salome and analyses of treatises about Greek dance reveal the intricate ways in which this controversial dance has been shaped by Eurocentric models that define and control identity performance Fear and Other Stories Achmed Abdullah,2021-11-09 In Fear and Other Stories Achmed Abdullah masterfully weaves a tapestry of emotional depth and psychological nuance exploring the often overlooked realms of human anxiety and existential dread This collection reveals Abdullah's keen understanding of the darker facets of the human psyche through compelling narratives that blend elements of realism and fantastical surrealism Each story invites readers into suspenseful and often unsettling experiences showcasing Abdullah's distinctive literary style a blend of vivid imagery and piercing dialogue that captivates and unnerves simultaneously all framed within the context of early 20th century anxieties about identity and otherness Achmed Abdullah a prolific writer and cultural commentator was born in the midst of a tumultuous geopolitical landscape which profoundly influenced his literary voice His diverse background traversing various cultures and languages enabled him to address complex themes of fear belonging and identity with both authenticity and sophistication Abdullah s experiences as a storyteller contribute to the immersive quality of his narratives reflecting his understanding of human vulnerability amidst societal chaos Fear and Other Stories is a must read for any enthusiast of psychological fiction or those intrigued by the multifaceted nature of fear Abdullah s eloquent prose and poignant themes will resonate with readers seeking a deeper understanding of the human condition making this collection both a haunting and enlightening journey
