interracial families living in and around Brixton south London in the early 1970s Dr Benson sets the circumstances that confront these families within the context of wider British attitudes about race colour and miscegenation as they developed over time She argues that couples are obliged to make a continual series of choices between black and white in the course of their everyday lives Through a discussion of these choices and of the factors which lead individuals to enter into a marriage which could be regarded with some disapproval the book explores how people in London thought and felt about race colour and social identity It will be of interest to all teachers and students studying race relations as well as to social and community workers school teachers and administrators concerned with race relations and the inner city Steel-Rolling Technology

Ginzburg,1989-06-28 This state of the art volume examines steel rolling technology in a systematic and comprehensive manner providing an excellent synthesis of current information from three different branches of science physics metallurgy and engineering Walter Rodney Rupert Lewis,1998 Walter Rodney a leading historian of Africa a political activist and Caribbean intellectual before his untimely death in 1980 taught African History in Jamaica at the University of the West Indies Mona Campus in the late 1960s Lewis article revisits Rodney s political activism during this period within the context of pre existing social movement among the urban poor and Rastafarian brethren Rodney was expelled from the island in 1968 by the Jamaican government Lewis argues that his expulsion was based on the fear that Rodney s interactions with the urban poor and Rastafarian brethren could lead to the emergence of a radical political ideology which would pose a threat to the Jamaican political system and its power structure This republication along with Walter Rodney s Intellectual and Political Thought The Press UWI 1998 also by the same author is timely as it marks the 30th anniversary of Rodney s expulsion from Jamaica on 16 October 1968 Out of the House of Bondage Gad Heuman,2022-09-21 Out of the House of Bondage first published in 1986 focuses not on slave rebellions which were of crucial importance but not common occurrences but on the day to day patterns of resistance that directly affected the lives of slaves It examines acts of resistance in both the Americas and Africa and widens the study of runaways and resistance and uses runaways as a means to further analyse slavery and the wider slave population Islamisation A. C. S. Peacock,2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history A History of Southern Africa Alois S. Mlambo,Neil Parsons,2018-09-08 From early human civilisation to today this book illuminates the history of southern Africa Interweaving social cultural and political history archaeology anthropology and environmentalism Neil Parsons and Alois Mlambo provide an engaging account of the region's varied past Placing African voices and agency at centre stage rather than approaching the subject through a colonial lens A History of Southern Africa provides an engrossing narrative of the region This textbook is ideal for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of History and African Studies and will provide an essential grounding for those taking courses in the history of southern Africa Its lively and accessible approach will appeal to anyone with an interest in global history

Geological Survey Water-supply Paper ,1968 A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei,1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei's book is also more radical The Magazine Antiques ,1929 Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington,2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope Also includes 99 maps Port Cities and Intruders Michael N. Pearson,2002-10-14 Selected by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title In Port Cities and Intruders historian Michael Pearson explores the role of port cities and their orientation relations between the coast and the interior the place of the coast in the world economy and the impact of the Portuguese in the early modern period Routes to Slavery David Eltis,David Richardson,2013-01-11 Containing records of some 25 000 slaving voyages between 1595 and 1867 this data set forms the basis of most of the papers included in this collection Other papers offer quantitative analysis in the ethnicity of slaves mortality trends and slaves reconstruction of their identities Confounding Powers William J.
