Kaminski, 2005-01-01 The primeval blessing Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth first announced to humankind in Genesis 1:28 is renewed to Noah and his sons after the flood in Genesis 9:1 There is widespread scholarly consensus that the ensuing dispersion in Genesis 10:1-32 and 11:1-9 is the means by which the creation blessing is fulfilled Kaminski argues that the primeval blessing is not fulfilled in the Table of Nations and that Yahweh's scattering Noah's descendants in the Babel story does not contribute positively to the creation theme Rather the creation blessing is being taken up in the primary line of Shem Genesis 11:10-26 which leads directly to Abraham She further suggests that divine grace is not absent after the Babel judgment as is commonly assumed but is at work in the Shemite genealogy She argues that the primeval blessing which is unfulfilled in the primeval history is taken up by Abraham and his descendants by means of a divine promise While the blessing is in the process of being realised in the patriarchal narratives it is not fulfilled The multiplication theme is resumed however in Exodus 1:7 which describes Israel's proliferation in Egypt This is the first indication that the creation blessing is fulfilled Realisation of the primeval blessing progresses after the flood therefore from Noah to Israel Yet God's blessing on Israel is not for their sake alone it is the means through which the divine intention for creation will be restored to the world JSOTS413
