Transforming Vision Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza, 2011 Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza describes the theoretical and liberative theological commitments that orient her pioneering biblical scholarship including the use of critical theory analysis of interacting social political economic and religious oppressions and promotion of a genuinely emancipatory and democratic community of equals in academy church and wider society alike Jewish-Christian Gospel Tradition Klijn, 2015-12-22 This work represents the first independent study of the Jewish Christian Gospel fragments and of the use of the Jewish Christian Gospel tradition in early Christian and medieval literature The author identifies and introduces the Jewish Christian Gospels and their sources presents a critical study of genuine and spurious references to Jewish Christian Gospels and then goes on to offer a critical text with apparatus and bibliography a translation and a full commentary for each individual fragment

Feminist Biblical Studies in the Twentieth Century Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, 2014-06-26 Chart the development of feminist approaches and theories of interpretation during the period when women first joined the ranks of biblical scholars This collection of essays on feminist biblical studies in the twentieth century seeks to explore four areas of inquiry demanding further investigation In the first section articles chart the beginnings and developments of feminist biblical studies as a conversation among feminists around the world The second section introduces reviews and discusses the hermeneutic religious spaces created by feminist biblical studies The third segment discusses academic methods of reading and interpretation that dismantle androcentric language and kyriarchal authority The fourth section returns to the first with work that transgresses academic boundaries in order to exemplify the transforming inspiring and institutionalizing feminist work that has been and is being done to change religious mindsets of domination and to enable women to engage in critical readings of the Bible Features Essays examine the rupture or break in the malestream reception history of the Bible Exploration of the term feminism in different social cultural and theoretical religious locations Authors from around the world present research and future directions for research challenging the next generation of feminist interpreters Theologies

of the Gospel in Context David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2017-08-25 Many preachers and teachers of preaching talk about the gospel few name it Theologies of the Gospel in Context assembles a gifted group of homileticsians who think that preachers need to be able to articulate the gospel not in general but in a certain time and place in context They consider what gospel sounds like for people under oppression in capitalist economies in neocolonial contexts for survivors of trauma and for disestablished mainline churches marred by racism Preachers will appreciate these preacher scholars desire to articulate the gospel with clarity especially since the term is so often left unexplained Homileticsians will see a new genre of doing their work as teachers and researchers in preaching a vision that helps preaching see itself not just as an adjunct to exegesis or communication but a place of doing theology In these pages homiletics is more than technique it is a truly theological discipline Empowering Memory and Movement Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, 2014 Empowering Memory and Movement

Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza completes a three volume look across her influential work and career In Transforming Vision 2011 she drew from a career of pioneering scholarship to offer the contours of a critical feminist hermeneutic The chapters in Changing Horizons 2013 sketched a theory of liberation Now the consequences for a liberating praxis are evident in interviews and essays that look back over personal and movement history look around at challenges and potentialities and look ahead to an emancipatory future the critical engagement with scripture always at the center

Jews and Christians - Parting Ways in the First Two Centuries CE? Jens Schröter, Benjamin A. Edsall, Joseph Verheyden, 2021-08-23 The present volume is based on a conference held in October 2019 at the Faculty of Theology of Humboldt University Berlin as part of a common project of the Australian Catholic University the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and the Humboldt University Berlin The aim is to discuss the relationships of Jews and Christians in the first two centuries CE against the background of recent debates which have called into question the image of parting ways for a description of the relationships of Judaism and Christianity in antiquity One objection raised against this metaphor is that it accentuates differences at the expense of commonalities Another critique is that this image looks from a later perspective at historical developments which can hardly be grasped with such a metaphor It is more likely that distinctions between Jews Christians Jewish Christians Christian Jews etc are more blurred than the image of parting ways allows In light of these considerations the contributions in this volume discuss the cogency of the parting of the ways model with a look at prominent early Christian writers and places and suggest more appropriate metaphors to describe the relationships of Jews and Christians in the early period
