in Medieval Ireland Elizabeth Boyle, 2020-12-30 History and Salvation in Medieval Ireland explores medieval Irish conceptions of salvation history using Latin and vernacular sources from c 700 c 1200 CE which adapt biblical history for audiences both secular and ecclesiastical This book examines medieval Irish sources on the cities of Jerusalem and Babylon reworkings of narratives from the Hebrew Scriptures literature influenced by the Psalms and texts indebted to Late Antique historiography It argues that the conceptual framework of salvation history and the related theory of the divinely ordained movement of political power through history had a formative influence on early Irish culture society and identity Primarily through analysis of previously untranslated sources this study teases out some of the intricate connections between the local and the universal in order to situate medieval Irish historiography within the context of that of the wider world Using an overarching biblical chronology beginning with the lives of the Jewish Patriarchs and ending with the Christian apostolic missions this study shows how one culture understood the histories of others and has important implications for issues such as kingship religion and literary production in medieval Ireland This book will appeal to scholars and students of medieval Ireland as well as those interested in religious and cultural history The Rhetoric of Courtship in Elizabethan Language and Literature Catherine Bates, 1992-06-18 The Rhetoric of Courtship is about the literature of the Elizabethan period with a particular focus on the literature of the court This book considers how writers and courtiers related to Elizabeth I within a system of patronage and how they portrayed this relationship in fictional courtship of poetry and prose Making Ireland British 1580-1650 Nicholas Canny, 2001-05-03 This is the first comprehensive study of all the plantations that were attempted in Ireland during the years 1580 1650 It examines the arguments advanced by successive political figures for a plantation policy and the responses which this policy elicited from different segments of the population in Ireland The book opens with an analysis of the complete works of Edmund Spenser who was the most articulate ideologue for plantation The author argues that all subsequent advocates of plantation ranging from King James VI and I to Strafford to Oliver Cromwell were guided by Spenser s opinions and that discrepancies between plantation in theory and practice were measured against this yardstick The book culminates with a close analysis of the 1641 insurrection throughout Ireland which it is argued steered Cromwell to engage in one last effort to make Ireland British Cattle Lords and Clansmen Nerys T. Patterson, 1994-04-30 In Cattle Lords and Clansmen Nerys Patterson provides an analysis of the social structure of medieval Ireland focusing on the pre Norman period By combining difficult often fragmentary primary sources with sociological and anthropological methods Patterson produces a unique approach to the study of early Ireland one that challenges previous scholarship The second edition includes a chapter on seasonal rhythm material derived from Patterson s post 1991 publications and an updated bibliography Aging in Spirit Karen Kaigler-Walker, 2023-03-14 Does God expect women who ve lived faithfully most or all our lives to continue to grow in Christ as we age into our later decades Absolutely Not only does God want us to keep on maturing but God provides the path to spiritual growth God hardwired us to blossom into a new realm of spirituality as we

age Aging in Spirit provides a blueprint for developing the type of greater love compassion understanding and acceptance that Jesus taught as we move into our elder years so we can continue to be the hands and feet of God until the end of our lives
