REFERENCE AND RESEARCH BOOK NEWS

The World Bank and Education Steven J. Klees, Joel Samoff, Nelly P. Stromquist, 2012-09-07 World Bank and Education Book Blurb For more than three decades the World Bank has been proposing global policies for education Presented as research based validated by experience and broadly applicable these policies are ideologically driven insensitive to local contexts and treat education as independent of international dynamics and national and local economies and cultures Target countries needing resources and unable to generate comparable research find it difficult to challenge

World Bank recommendations The World Bank and Education Critiques and Alternatives represents a powerful challenge to World Bank proposals Probing core issues equity quality finance privatization teaching and learning gender and human rights highlights the disabilities of neoliberal globalization The authors demonstrate the ideological nature of the evidence marshaled by the World Bank and the accompanying policy advice Addressing key education issues in developing countries the authors analyses provide tools for resisting and rejecting generic policy prescriptions as well as alternative directions to consider Robert Arnove in his preface says whether the Bank is responsive to the critiques and alternatives brilliantly offered by the present authors the book is certain to influence development and education scholars policymakers and practitioners around the globe

Representations of Education in Literature Paul G. Nixon,2000 Thirteen academics mostly American from English and political science departments address such topics as merit and intelligence in the works of Charlotte Bronte the transformation of English studies through Joyce s Ulysses the adult learner in Educating Rita literacy in 19th century America education and decolonization in John Saunana s Melanesian novel The Alternative the ambiguity of education in Anglophone Caribbean fiction and the bildungsroman in African postcolonial fiction One argument for considering representations of education in fiction asserts Nixon is that education reflects and enforces the values of the dominant culture is employed as a tool of assimilation or colonization that most often employs technology to make socialization irresistible Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Capacity to Share A. Hickling-Hudson,J.

González,R. Preston,2012-09-03 This discussion of Cuba s international policies in education shows how Cuba shares its educational resources with other countries The postcolonial critique underlying the book explores Cuba s role in relation to how the disengagement from colonial legacies in education is taking place in many countries

Feminist Visions and Queer Futures in Postcolonial Drama Kanika Batra,2011-04-13 In this timely study Batra examines contemporary drama from India Jamaica and Nigeria in conjunction with feminist and incipient queer movements in these countries Postcolonial drama Batra contends furthers the struggle for gender justice in both these movements by contesting the idea of the heterosexual middle class wage earning male as the model citizen and by suggesting alternative conceptions of citizenship premised on working class sexual identities Further Batra considers the possibility of Indian Jamaican and Nigerian drama generating a discourse on a rights bearing conception of citizenship that derives from representations of non biological non generational forms of kinship Her study is one of the first to examine the ways in which postcolonial dramatists are creating the possibility of a dialogue between cultural activism women s movements and an emerging discourse on queer sexualities

Comparative Education Carlos Alberto Torres,Robert F. Arnove,Lauren Ila Misiaszek,2022-08-10 Now in its fifth edition Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local has established itself as the state of the art comprehensive as well as sophisticated framework for taking into account the dynamic interactions of local national regional and transnational factors shaping education systems around the world Our theoretical and methodological strategy for this
