In God's Country David A. Neiwert, 2021-09-24 Rather than simply demonizing or directing outrage at Patriot and militia organizations as some recent high visibility publications have done David Neiwert takes the approach of allowing Patriot extremists to speak for themselves and largely on their own terms His critical journalistic dialogue allows us to better understand the social economic philosophical and religious complexities of how and why these people have come to think the way they do There is no question that strains of racism paranoia ill will and even evilness can characterize many of these people but it is equally true that they often minimally educated and economically and socially challenged by the changing times are desperately responding to feelings of having been marginalized and even disenfranchised from the American dream

Neiwert's comprehensive manuscript presents an overview of the multitude of Patriot organizations and beliefs found in the Northwest today. Neiwert feels it is essential to maintain some kind of dialogue with Patriots because after all these people are our neighbors and relatives and they are here to stay.

Open the Sky Mark Winheld, 2010-12

Dwayne King's life proves that fulfilling God's purpose is the highest adventure. Stephen Saint, author of End of the Spear, The advance of the Gospel in much of Alaska today is due to men like Dwayne King and others who have sacrificed to take the Good News to the ends of the earth. Franklin Graham, CEO of Samaritan's Purse, On September 1, 1991, bush pilot Dwayne King spearheaded one of the first missionary flights into the crumbling Soviet empire. The historic mission climaxed the transformation of a wild child from upstate New York into a selfless servant. The saga continues at Kingdom Air Corps where he's training the next generation of young missionaries to fly the Word beyond where the road ends and wilderness begins. Award-winning journalist Mark Winheld, Dwayne's friend and fellow traveler, spotlights the turning point. When the teenage hot rodder read Jungle Pilot, the story of missionary Nate Saint, martyred in Ecuador in 1956, his heart turned from drag racing for fun to flying for God. From that moment on, he followed a higher calling, armed only with faith, humor, and chutzpah and the reflexes that had kept him from wrecking cars on the hilly roads of home. In Open the Sky, you'll see through Dwayne's eyes the ravages of loneliness and alcohol in the Alaskan bush. You'll feel the courage of Russian believers surviving in the ruins of a destroyed civilization, given new hope by recent aviation freedoms. You'll sense the forces that hammered a thrill-seeking adolescent into a mature servant who lives out the words he says and believes. There's only three things that are eternal: Only three: God, God's Word, and people.

What in the World Are You Doing with Cancer? Hannah McGinnis, 2013-10-03

Cancer. Don't only old people and little kids get cancer. How on earth did I get cancer? That's what Hannah McGinnis thought when she found out she had Hodgkins lymphoma as a twenty-one-year-old college senior. She didn't qualify for aid, wigs, or wish fulfillment programs like children under eighteen, but she didn't feel old enough to be lumped in with middle-aged women and men fighting cancer. She found herself in the prime of life, battling a formidable disease without warning and without resources for her situation in life. In What in the World Are You Doing with Cancer, McGinnis walks through her journey with the disease from her diagnosis to the final treatment and her later reflections. She reveals her thoughts, fears, joys, and struggles with a touch of sarcasm along the way. Ultimately, though the diagnosis was both surreal and frightening, she found hope, a deeper purpose, and a faithful God. McGinnis encourages us whether we have cancer or not to remember that God is sovereign, to finish strong, and to find the eternal perspective in whatever unexpected trials we may face.
