God Goes To Hollywood A Movie Guide For The Modern Mystic:

Taking Care of Me: The Habits of Happiness Mary Kay Mueller, Film, Lacan and the Subject of Religion Steve Nolan, 2011-10-20 In their study of religion and film religious film analysts have tended to privilege religion. Uniquely this study treats the two disciplines as genuine equals by regarding both liturgy and film as representational media. Steve Nolan argues that in each case subjects identify with a represented other which joins them into a narrative where they become participants in an ideological reality. Finding many current approaches to religious film analysis lacking, Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion explores the film theory other writers ignore, particularly that mix of psychoanalysis, Marxism, and semiotics often termed Screen theory that attempts to understand how cinematic representation shapes spectator identity. Using translations and commentary on Lacan not originally available to Screen theorists, Nolan returns to Lacan's contribution to psychoanalytic film theory and offers a sustained application to religious practice, examining several priest films and a real life case study to expose the way liturgical representation shapes religious identity. Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion proposes an interpretive strategy by which religious film analysts can develop the kind of analysis that engages with and critiques both cultural and religious practice.

Reel Spirituality (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston, 2006-12-01 Increasingly, thinking Christians are examining the influential role that movies play in our cultural dialogue. Reel Spirituality successfully heightens readers' sensitivity to the theological truths and statements about the human condition expressed through modern cinema. This second edition cites 200 new movies and encourages readers to ponder movie themes that permeate our culture as well as motion pictures that have demonstrated power to shape our perceptions of everything from relationships and careers to good and evil. Reel Spirituality is the perfect catalyst for dialogue and discipleship among moviegoers, church-based study groups, and religious film and arts groups. The second edition cites an additional 200 movies and includes new film photos.

Reel Spirituality Robert K. Johnston, 2006-12 A comprehensive study of theology and film that explores how the Christian faith is portrayed in film throughout history.

Sacred Profanity Aubrey Malone, 2010-02-26 This book offers a history of films with Biblical spiritual and supernatural themes. This volume follows the evolution of one of Hollywood's longest running thematic concerns. From the silent era to the present, Sacred Profanity: Spirituality at the Movies examines the rich diversity of films with spiritual themes, films that reflect our own fascination with the divine and supernatural while evoking the specific times in which they were created. From Birth of a Nation to Angels and Demons, Sacred Profanity discusses over 180 films with an insightful movie lover's approach. Coverage encompasses Biblical stories like King of Kings, films about spiritual characters such as The Nun's Story, foreign masterpieces like The Seventh Seal, movies that incorporate spiritual symbolism such as Taxi Driver and Cool Hand Luke, horrifying visions of the Satanic like The Exorcist, and controversial works like The Last Temptation of Christ. The book also looks at the history of Hollywood's attempt to maintain moral order through censorship as well as the growing influence of filmmakers' own spiritual beliefs on the movies we see Censoring Hollywood Aubrey Malone,2011-10-10 Censorship has been an ongoing issue from the early days of filmmaking One hundred years of film censorship encompassing the entire 20th century are chronicled in this work The freewheeling nature of films in the early decades was profoundly affected by Prohibition the Depression and the formation of the Legion of Decency culminating in a new age of restrictiveness in the movies Such powerful arbiters of public taste as Will H Hays of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America and Joseph Breen of the Production Code Association fomented an era whereby films with contentious material were severely censored or even condemned This held sway until rebellious filmmakers like Otto Preminger challenged the system in the 1950s eventually resulting in the abandonment of the old regime in favor of the contemporary G through NC 17 ratings system

Bresson and Others Bert Cardullo,2009 A number of writers have attempted to capture Robert Bresson s style as well as his substance with such terms as minimalist austere ascetic elliptical autonomous pure even gentle Most famously Paul Schrader once called Bresson s films transcendental while Susan Sontag described them as spiritual Both these critics thus extended in anglicized form a tendency that had early been dominant in Bresson criticism in France the attempt made by such Catholic writers as Andre Bazin Henri Agel Roger Leenhardt and Amedee Ayfre to understand Bresson s work in religious terms seeing his camera as a kind of god and the material world as paradoxically a thing of the spirit That attempt in Sontag s essay led to the introduction of Bresson to the New York based avant garde of the 1960s and 1970s whose films such as Richard Serra s Hand Catching Lead 1968 for one show the influence of the French director s severe reductivist style Jean Luc Godard of course needed no such critical introduction to Robert Bresson for in his iconoclasm and integrity in his rejection of the Gallic Cinema du Papa as well as in his embrace of film as an independent art Bresson was one of the heroes of the young directors who constituted the French New Wave in the early 1960s So much so that Godard was moved to say in Cahiers du cinema in 1957 that Bresson is French cinema as Dostoyevsky is the Russian novel and Mozart is German music The result is that Bresson has undeniably influenced a slew of contemporary European filmmakers including Chantal Akerman Olivier Assayas Laurent Cantet Alain Cavalier Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne Claire Denis Jacques Doillon Bruno Dumont Michael Haneke Benoit Jacquot and Maurice Pialat not to speak of his influence on Asian and American cinema Bresson and Others Spiritual Syle in the Cinema is an attempt to document this influence through essays on fifteen international directors who followed in Bresson s wake who in fact may have influenced him Carl Dreyer or who contemporaneously worked veins similar to those found in Bresson s films Ingmar Bergman Yasujiro Ozu These essays are preceded by an introduction to the cinema of Robert Bresson and followed by film credits a bibliography of criticism and an index The subject of Bresson and Others then may specifically be Bressonian cinema but in a general sense it could also be said to be spirit and matter or film and faith The Religion and Film Reader Jolyon P.
