The Christian Art of Dying Allen Verhey, 2011-11-28 A renowned ethicist who himself faced death during a recent life threatening illness Allen Verhey in The Christian Art of Dying sets out to recapture dying from the medical world Seeking to counter the medicalization of death that is so prevalent today Verhey revisits the fifteenth century Ars Moriendi an illustrated spiritual self help manual on the art of dying Finding much wisdom in that little book but rejecting its Stoic and Platonic worldview Verhey uncovers in the biblical accounts of Jesus death a truly helpful paradigm for dying well and faithfully

Reasoning from Faith Justin Sands, 2018-01-16 An enlightening commentary on Merold Westphal's intricate thought and provokes new questions concerning the original project of his diverse philosophy B Keith Putt editor of The Future of Continental Philosophy of Religion Merold Westphal is considered to be one of the preeminent Continental philosophers of religion His articulation of faith as the task of a lifetime has become a touchstone in contemporary debates concerning faith's relationship to reason As Justin Sands explores his philosophy he illuminates how Westphal's concept of faith reveals the pastoral theological intent behind his thinking Sands sees Westphal's philosophy as a powerful articulation of Protestant theology but one that is in ecumenical dialogue with questions concerning apologetics and faith's relationship to ethics and responsibility a more Catholic point of view By bringing out these features in Westphal's philosophy Sands intends to find core philosophical methodologies as well as a passable bridge for philosophers to cross over into theological discourses An engaging and illuminating work William Desmond David Cook Chair in Philosophy Villanova University Professor of Philosophy Institute of Philosophy KU Leuven Belgium A long overdue critical homage to one of the bravest religious thinkers of our generation Richard Kearney Charles B Seelig Chair of Philosophy at Boston College

A Language for the Soul Stuart C. Devenish, 2024-10-24 This volume offers Christian spiritual instructors a language for the soul uncovered from the storehouses of Christianity's ancient living spiritual tradition That language describes the deep soul movements that unfold in the interior life of believers in response to the Divine invitation It presents an accessible language of the soul for use in today's professional educational ministerial and everyday life situations The end product is an experiential dictionary comprised of sixty word concepts which name and explore the inward human reactions to the whispering of God's Spirit. Those reactions result from inward desires that lead to the embrace of faith, the quest for consecration and the journey of discipleship. Nurturing these intra-personal choices and commitments is the central task of Christian ministry, but many faith instructors remain unaware of these critical inner life processes. More than other resources available today, this experiential dictionary informs, enriches and intensifies the spiritual journeys of genuine disciples and seekers. The volume is tailored for seminaries, churches, schools and community settings. It has application to the training of ministry leaders, the instruction of believers and in supporting the growing number of secular mystics who are open to merging their journeys of self-discovery with the quest for Christ discovery. Persons and Immortality Kenneth A. Bryson, 2022-02-07

The religious belief in personal immortality depends on the evidence for the existence of God, an immaterial soul or mind and human nature. We also need to support the view that God will always want to maintain relationships with us in the afterlife. So immortality is a hard sell. The suffering of innocent victims suggests that the existence of a loving God is not self-evident. Furthermore, the soul's separation from the body at death raises the troublesome problem of personal identity. How can that be me in the afterlife without my body? The tradition from Plato to Descartes plants the seed of personal immortality in our rational nature. But the deconstruction of human nature suggests that our species is not special. Yet the belief in immortality lingers. The first step in the reconstruction of personal immortality is found in systems theory or belief that the whole individuates the part. This view suggests that we are the outcome of relationships rather than eternal natures entering into relationships. We are the product of relationships taking place at three basic levels: 1. In psyche where being human is the result of a tendency toward good and evil; 2. As social entities where the existence of other human beings individuates us; 3. In being's unconcealment where the intelligibility of things provides a foundation for epistemic life. Heidegger's view of the nothing or horizon surrounding being allows us to identify God as creator entering into personal relationships with us, a view supported by contemporary science. That will be me in the afterlife if the relationships that individuate me in my pre-mortem state continue into my post-mortem existence. The reversal in being's unconcealment suggests that human death continues the cycle of personal existence. The Gospel in the Dock Bryan M. Christman, 2021-08-10

C. S. Lewis famously penned the phrase "God in the Dock" and proposed that there was a great divide between ancient and modern humans in that our ancestors would have rightly seen themselves in the dock before God while we moderns have placed God there before us. But what if what God's love most desires for us, the gospel or good news of the only way of life for humanity, has been in the dock before us from the time of Adam and Eve? And what if it is also the case that the gospel is often in the dock as though it is not good even for the church? This book builds upon and expands the life and death stakes Lewis proposed by demonstrating that the gospel way of faith itself has been placed in the dock by us and in many ways ruined our relationships with God, with our own selves, with one another and even with the natural world itself.

which we are meant to steward for its good In these pages the reader will discover why the gospel that requires faith is good news but why we so tragically default to our divisive and self destructive ways Suspicion and Faith Merold Westphal,2024-10-22 Experience of the Sacred Sumner B.
