No Ceiling to Hope Patrick Regan, 2024-03-21 Servants of Christ are in the transformation business. This kind of transformation will only happen if we refuse to be seduced by false idols like success money fame and security to become the church we were called to be. We need to take ownership of the problems around us and work with people who are suffering in order to find solutions and offer lasting change. In No Ceiling to Hope Patrick travels the globe to find examples of this change. In Bolivia he reports how Christian backing for education projects is allowing families to find a way out of poverty. In London XLP is mentoring young people to turn aside from violence. In Los Angeles a new future is being offered to gang girls. In high security prisons in the UK and US the Spirit is turning lives around. In Belfast's Shankill Road area a group of elderly ladies is cooking meals for men who sit all day in local pubs. The list is extensive and inspiring. The common element is that in all circumstances Christ is offering hope. Be inspired afresh that when it comes to what Jesus can do there really is no ceiling to hope.

Justice That Transforms, Volume One Wayne Northey, 2020-01-09 Restorative Justice was a term and concept largely unused before the mid 1970s. Wayne Northey happened to be in on the ground floor of facilitating its worldwide adoption as a challenge to Western retributive justice systems ultimately to violent responses to conflict domestically and internationally. The most replicated early model of Restorative Justice based on the well known Elmira Case was a Canadian first initially dubbed Victim Offender Reconciliation Project VORP. The author became its second director in 1977. The term mediation later displaced the more religious word reconciliation as the model spread outside Christian moorings and program displaced the initially more tentative project. At seminary Northey had learned to think through one's vocation theologically. He began in that vein writing and publishing on this profound call for a systemic paradigm shift and has been at it ever since. This publication is volume 1 of a series of his collected writings of which two additional volumes may be found online. Two or three further volumes are projected.
