PART ONE – My life before I became a Christian

I grew up in the church, but I wouldn't say I was raised in a Christian household. We would go to church two services but that was the most we would ever do. We would never talk about what we learned or talk about who God is at home. So, growing up it felt like Jesus was just some fictional character who we learned about, honestly it felt the same as the way I thought and imagined Santa. The first person in my life to have a spiritual impact on my life was my older brother but that wasn't until he was in college and I was in middle school, early high school.

PART TWO – Circumstances surrounding me becoming a Christian

I had heard the gospel many times and was presented the gospel many time, but I was never able to fully understand it. I couldn't understand how God could love me through everything I had gone through. But it wasn't until I came here to Liberty that I was fully able to understand to love and compassion of Christ! It wasn't until someone out it in a way I will never forget, and that was, not only did Christ die for our sins we committed, but He died for all sins committed, meaning He died for the ones people have committed against us, and He died for all of sin, so not just the act of the sin but the things it brought up, the feelings it brought up. When I was presented the gospel this way I was able to understand it and see it in a new way. During the time I was presented it, I was going through a really difficult times in my life where I just began to heal from childhood abuse. As I was trying to heal I grew angry at God because I didn't understand how He could love that part of me. I couldn't understand why I had to go through something so traumatic and hurtful. But when I was presented the gospel the way that Jesus died for my abuse, and the pain that I was caused. As scripture says, Jesus took upon the weight and the pain of sins on Himself, so for me that met He took the weight of my sin, the weight sin done to me, and the hurt it caused me.

PART THREE – Describe your spiritual growth from the time you became a Christian

until now

I have grown in many ways from my quiet time to being vulnerable to God and others. It hasn't always been easy there are many things I struggle with still, one of the biggest things I feel like I struggle with is just giving it all to God. Giving up the big things, but also the small things, the small stressors that in my mind I don't want to "bother" God with because it just doesn't seem big enough to give to Him. But reality is He cares deeply about the "big" things and the "small" things. But as I have grown in my faith and relationship with Him, I have learned that in a new way.

may see Words of Christ recorded in Revelation 3 18 NKJV Revelations in a Brown Paper Bag Gary H. Collier, 2012-07 If you desire revelation of truth you must start with an empty cup That is you must rid yourself of all preconceived notions Scripture says that wisdom begins with the fear of God An empty cup with the fear of God is the foundation of truth Contemplate all you encounter from that perspective If you struggle with your health and your faith then it s time to empty your cup of all your preconceptions As you learn to fill it with God s truth you will find refreshment for both your soul and body Dr Collier begins by laying out a strong spiritual foundation for readers then builds on this by addressing the ways that external and internal energy sources can affect our lives and examining the healing power of God as shown in scripture By looking at both spiritual and physical causes for illness Dr Collier shows the important roles of both faith and science His medical background is obvious as he provides readers with health and nutrition guidelines but his spiritual authority is also clear through his inspired insight into scripture Despite a prophetic word from God that he would write a book that would bless many people Dr Collier struggled with fruitless attempts until a patient arrived with the purpose of praying over him in tongues She told him God told you to write a book and he wants it done Shortly after this encounter he began waking up in the middle of the night with revelations that illuminated certain scriptures He would write them down and throw them into a paper sack Finally he collected them into the book you hold in your hands Revelations in a Brown Paper Bag
