God The Devil And The Perfect Pizza Ten Philosophical Questions:

God, the Devil and the Perfect Pizza Trudy Govier, 1995-05-31 Can God's existence be proven by logic Are computers smart enough to follow rules or to cheat What is an out of body experience How can tables be solid when physicists say they're made of subatomic particles that are only probability functions Does science depend on trust What is conscience Does it come from God From religious teaching Social training Is it rational to pursue your own self interest Can we all survive if we do this In this collection of stories and dialogues Trudy Govier shows how these old and new philosophical questions arise and offers imaginative and striking depictions of some of the theories and arguments they have inspired

Fifty Years of Philosophy of Religion: A Select Bibliography (1955-2005) Andy Sanders, Kristof de Ridder, 2007-06-28 The bibliography lists about 10 000 titles of monographs collections and articles in the field of the philosophy of religion and philosophical theology that appeared between 1955 and 2005 The majority of them are in the English language but publications in German Dutch and French are listed as well Though it is not claimed to be exhaustive the bibliography offers a fairly representative survey of scholarly work on the main topics of interest Publications have been systematically classified according to eleven main categories Introductions Surveys and Historical Issues Part I Religious Language Part II Religious Experience Part III Religious Epistemology Part IV Theism Part V Hermeneutics Part VI Religion and Science Part VII Religion and Aesthetics Part VIII Religion and Morality Part IX Religious Pluralism Part X and Feminist Philosophy of Religion Part XI Part III has been subdivided into Religious Experience and Mystical Experience Part VII into The Concept of God arguments for The Existence of God The Problem of Evil and Atheism and Part VII into General and Historical Issues Theological Issues and implications of Modern Physics Cosmology and Biology The bibliography will particularly be useful to scholars teachers and students in the philosophy of religion philosophical theology and systematic theology as well as to those who are interested professionally or otherwise in the results of academic scholarship in those fields

Reasonable Responses Catherine E. Hundleby, 2017-01-17 This tribute to the breadth and influence of Trudy Govier's philosophical work begins with her early scholarship in argumentation theory paying special attention its pedagogical expression Most people first encounter Trudy Govier's work and many people only encounter it through her textbooks especially A Practical Study of Argument published in many editions In addition to the work on argumentation that has continued throughout her career much of Govier's later work addresses social philosophy and the problems of trust and response to moral wrongs The introduction by Catherine Hundleby situates Govier's research along the path of her unusual academic life While following the timeline of Govier's research publication in this collection the authors build on her work and suggest certain new connections between her argumentation theory and social philosophy A Practical Study of Argument first published in 1985 situates Govier among a distinct segment of informal logicians whose concerns about teaching reasoning to post secondary students orient their research Takuzo Konishi argues Moira Kloster evaluates Govier's progress in the challenge of providing critical thinking education to diverse and changing social contexts Shifting gears to social philosophy but still addressing education Laura Elizabeth Pinto explores the significance of Govier's work on trust for explaining the problem of audit culture for teaching At the centre of this volume social philosophy receives an abstract meta ethical defense from Linda Radzik Moving solidly into the domain of normative social philosophy Alice MacLachlan reconsiders Govier's condemnation of revenge by viewing it as a form of moral address but she notes how revenge as an act of communication contrasts with argumentation in lacking the respect that Govier maintains is intrinsic to argumentation MacLachlan ultimately agrees that revenge is morally indefensible The practical challenges of addressing others in the aftermath of wrongdoing especially in public contexts can make it difficult to distinguish between victims and combatants or wrongdoers Alistair Little and Wilhelm Verwoerd explain and Kathryn Norlock argues that forgiveness is psychologically vexed too People may recognize transformation to be in principle possible for all people Norlock argues and yet we may find the evidence regarding some particular evildoer sufficient to count that person as an exception Finally Govier responds to the various papers Canadian Philosophical Reviews ,1990 The Philosophical Review ,1990 The Philosopher's Index ,1991 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts International Philosophical Quarterly ,1961 International Books in Print ,1997 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-06 Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler,2000 Social Ethics Thomas A.
