God Who Beckons Theology In The Form Of Sermons:

The God who Beckons Robert C. Neville, 1999 Grouped according to theological topics the five parts focusing on the call to Christian life the encounter with God Christology discipleship and education for discipleship the sermons are all about God s beckoning us through fire water and the abyss into the divine light where we do not so much see God as dissolve into blissful love Nearly every one issues an invitation to join or invest more deeply in the Christian life Seasons of the Christian Life Robert Cummings Neville, 2016-07-04 Once liberal Christianity was preached in ways that defined it in the public eye Now Christianity is identified almost exclusively with its conservative expressions Seasons of the Christian Life presents a series of sermons articulating a liberal Christianity over against its conservative neighbors They were preached at the University Church Marsh Chapel at Boston University save for one preached in Memorial Church at Harvard during the 2004 2005 academic year when President George W Bush was reelected and the country was at war in Iraq and Afghanistan and at war with terrorists wherever they could be imagined The sermons follow the Revised Common Lectionary and focus on biblical interpretation as it is applied to the then current spiritual cultural social and political situation The author is a professor of theology and at the time was Dean of Marsh Chapel and Chaplain of the University Whitehead's

Philosophy Janusz A. Polanowski, Donald W. Sherburne, 2012-02-01 This volume explores the range of Alfred North Whitehead s philosophy and his relevance to contemporary philosophical traditions While philosophers and theologians with only a passing acquaintance with Whitehead might think that his philosophy is unconnected to our Western philosophical tradition the contributors prove that nothing could be further from the truth The most respected scholars in the field George Allan Lisa Bellantoni John B Cobb Jr Frederick Ferr David L Hall William S Hamrick Robert Cummings Neville Janusz A Polanowski Patrick Shade and Donald W Sherburne illustrate points of connection between Whitehead s ideas to the following Descartes the so called Father of Modern Philosophy classical American thought several contemporary American thinkers including Richard Rorty and Alasdair MacIntyre aspects of European philosophy and current reflections upon the environment and technology C.S. Peirce and the Nested Continua Model of Religious Interpretation Gary Slater, 2015-11-26 This study develops resources in the work of Charles S Peirce 1839 1914 for the purposes of contemporary philosophy It contextualizes Peirce s prevailing influences and provides greater context in relation to the currents of nineteenth century thought Dr Gary Slater articulates a nested continua model for theological interpretation which is indebted to Peirce s creation of Existential Graphs a system of diagrams designed to provide visual representation of the process of human reasoning He investigates how the model can be applied by looking at recent debates in historiography He deals respectively with Peter Ochs and Robert C Neville as contemporary manifestations of Peircean philosophical theology This work concludes with an assessment of the model s theological implications Preaching Paul Dr. Brad R.

Braxton, 2010-08-01 Helpful and insightful strategies for preaching from the writings of Paul Few biblical figures are more compelling to preachers than the apostle Paul The story of his dramatic conversion on the road to Damascus is a favorite example of the way that God turns lives around His writings contain the earliest witness we have to the Christian gospel His message of God's offer of grace in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is deeply appealing So why is it that when it comes time to choose a text for this Sunday's sermon preachers so often choose something other than Paul When Brad Braxton asked himself that question he realized that preachers are often daunted by the size and complexity of the Pauline corpus Drawing on his expertise as a New Testament scholar and homiletics professor as well as on his experience as a pastor Braxton offers the reader tools with which to wrestle more effectively with the complex yet essential message of Paul Eschewing either a solely historical approach or a completely spiritual one the author brings the two together to explore the meaning of Paul's message in its original context as well as its contemporary application Written with imagination and depth of understanding this book is for anyone who wishes to know Paul better and to preach from his letters more effectively

Theology in Global Context Amos Yong, Peter G. Heltzel, 2016-10-06 Robert Cummings Neville has been a consistent advocate for the necessity of global theology Early in his career he realized that the philosophical framework of the West alone was inadequate for a truly global theology Since then he has sought to develop theology creatively and responsibly within the world context The original essays in this volume written in his honour by fellow theologians participate in and model the kind of dialogical global theology embodied in Neville's work

The Kerygmatic Spirit Amos Yong, 2018-11-06 This collection of fifteen sermons by one of the leading pentecostal theologians today provides insight into the form style and content of preaching in the pentecostal tradition while also being suggestive of normative homiletical theory and practice The Kerygmatic Spirit argues that Spirit empowered preaching is apostolic not only with regard to being rooted in the scriptural traditions but also with regard to connecting the that of the early Christian message with the this of contemporary experience and discipleship Hence rather than only reflecting pentecostal preaching of the sort that happens in the pulpits of churches connected to the modern movement by that name these sermons are presented as the participating in the form of gospel proclamation inspired and empowered by the divine Spirit poured out on all flesh on the Day of Pentecost by the risen Christ from the right hand of the Father Whether read or heard there are links to video and audio archives throughout these homilies are illustrative of exegetical and expositional practice that connects the biblical text with Spirit filled faithfulness in the twenty first century ecumenical church and world at large

The Scandal of Pentecost Wolfgang Vondey, 2023-10-19 Through a systematic analysis of the conflicts emerging when the public church encounters the public world The Scandal of Pentecost argues that the public advent of the church stands in continuity with the public scandal of the incarnate and crucified Christ The book traces the contours of this scandal in the confrontation of the dominant ruling hermeneutic of authority with a Christian hermeneutic of resistance This highlights the brokenness of the human condition manifested by the church in the drunkenness of the disciples the speaking in other tongues the baptism with the Spirit the empowerment of the flesh and its public witness to a scandalized world The effects of the scandal transform both the disciples individual and communal witness and their public recognition as the church Through the lens of a symbolic hermeneutic the public witness of the church at Pentecost reveals a Christian scandal of anthropological proportions with the outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh the church emerges as the symbol of humanity

The Pentecostal Hypothesis Nimi Wariboko, 2020-10-12 The Pentecostal Hypothesis is the capacity to resist conventional wisdom in social actions On a daily basis Pentecostals deploy or enact this capacity through the use of the formula It does not make sense but it makes spirit in their decision making processes This is an alternate way of knowing that is keyed to a particular interpretative understanding of Jesus Christ as constitutive of and normative for the good decisions relevant to human flourishing The book offers a critical philosophical analysis of the social ethical implications of this hypothesis intended for private decisions and social actions This text is ultimately a critique of Pentecostal reason In this book Wariboko explores the epistemological dimensions of everyday Pentecostal Christology their interpretation of Jesus s character and nature as epistemology For Pentecostals Jesus did not have an epistemology but the story of his life as a whole is an epistemology For them the validity of a truth claim is always informed by the story of Jesus that claims them the story that gives them the meaning and courage to affirm their decisions without fear of being contradicted by Enlightenment rationalism What kind of normative sway does this orientation to modernity have over Pentecostals pattern of thought This book configures the response to this question with profound insights into the convergence of epistemology and Christology within the impelling matrix of a provocative social ethics The epistemological in this book is not about the that of knowing but the how the performative dimension of knowing which is affective emotive and an embodied practice The Pentecostal Hypothesis is the capacity to resist conventional wisdom in social actions

God the Created Benjamin J.

Chicka, 2022-02-01 In God the Created Benjamin Chicka develops a method of inquiry and program for theology that he labels pragmatic constructive realism While influenced most heavily by American pragmatism especially that of Charles S Peirce Chicka's method draws upon a variety of sources ranging from Plato to Karl Popper Paul Tillich and the field of biosemiotics Chicka presents pragmatic constructive realism as a means of moving past binary debates between realism and antirealism in both philosophy and theology and its fruitfulness is displayed by examining the philosophical theologies of John Cobb and Robert Cummings Neville The result of that engagement is a novel hypothesis about God that embraces legitimate criticisms of both process theology Cobb and ground of being theology Neville while integrating insights from both ways of thinking God's transcendence and immanence indeterminacy and determinacy are fully affirmed The entire argument serves as an example of why a fallible and pluralistic form of theology one that embraces and learns from difference instead of trying to eliminate it is important for the future of theology

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J.

Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom Context, 2001 Four special sermons to children, to young men, to young women, to the aged T. A. A. KNIGHT, 1854 A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12

How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation
