God For Us The Trinity And Christian Life:

God for Us Catherine Mowry LaCugna,1991 An extraordinary work that revitalizes theology and Christian life by recovering the early roots of Trinitarian doctrine and exploring the enduringly practical dimensions of faith in God as a community of persons

God for Us Catherine Mowry LaCugna,1992

Freedom, Necessity, and the Knowledge of God Paul D. Molnar,2021-12-30 Paul D Molnar discusses issues related to the concepts of freedom and necessity in trinitarian doctrine He considers the implications of non conceptual knowledge of God by comparing the approaches of Karl Rahner and T F Torrance He also reconsiders T F Torrance s new natural theology and illustrates why Christology must be central when discussing liberation theology Further he explores Catholic and Protestant relations by comparing the views of Elizabeth Johnson Walter Kasper and Karl Barth as well as relations among Christians Jews and Muslims by considering whether it is appropriate to claim that all three religions should be understood to be united under the concept of monotheism Finally he probes the controversial issues of how to name God in a way that underscores the full equality of women and men and how to understand universalism by placing Torrance and David Bentley Hart into conversation on that subject

The Trinitarian Dharma Pabitra Mani Bhandari,2025-02-25 As the gospel continues to spread to the farthest corners of the world the Christian faith encounters an array of diverse cultures religions philosophies and belief systems This encounter serves as a catalyst for transformation as Christianity both influences and is influenced by the new frontiers it reaches The book at hand endeavors to explore this dynamic process particularly focusing on the Trinitarian theology as a potent force for transformation Moreover it seeks to uncover the resonance between Christian concepts and the rich tapestry of Dharma thereby enhancing our understanding of the Trinity In essence this book serves as a pivotal example of how abstract theological ideas can be made relevant and meaningful in the context of a multicultural and multireligious world It embodies an approach to Christian theology that is both interreligious and interdisciplinary emanating from a global Christian perspective that embraces diversity and dialogue

Let Your Voice Be Heard Joan Hebert Reisinger,2012-10-08 People are moving to the margins of the Catholic Church As one dialogue partner states I left the Church to beat the rush Yet another remarks I just wonder I have to ask who s on the margins I m not sure Let Your Voice Be Heard details original practical theology research that endeavors to understand the dynamics on the margins of the Roman Catholic Church in dialogue with fifty dialogue partners from across the United States Practical theology the theology of marginality of Jung Young Lee reciprocal ethnography and the communication theory of Mikhail Bakhtin join in a cross disciplinary dialogue In conversation with dialogue partners Joan Hebert Reisinger seeks the reasons why Catholics over the age of twenty one who were once active and involved in the Catholic Church find themselves on the margins of the Church and how they understand their own marginality The dialogue partners speak of new ways of being Church emerging on the margins This emerging Church is marked by inclusive relationships that include dialogue that does not seek agreement or consensus a critical and thoughtful recalling of memories and narratives of the Catholic faith tradition and appropriation of these in new and creative ways Ex Auditu - Volume 17 Klyne Snodgrass,2004-06-23 Relational Christianity Wesley M. Pinkham,2022-06-21

This work begins with a transformative idea human existence is fundamentally relational Relational Christianity explores how the nature of the Trinity must define the Church and the Christian spiritual life Utilizing Scripture Christian spiritual tradition and philosophy Pinkham and Gruenberg paint the picture of a Trinitarian Jesus centered Christianity led by the Father and explored in interpersonal oneness In this view God's intimate unifying love is the theological river that runs through the landscape of biblical revelation and through God's movement in history This work of Trinitarian practical theology suggests that the relation between Father Son and Spirit should shape and guide all Christian interactions with God with others and with self In the paradigm of relational Christianity the formation of genuine personhood and identity are based upon relational connections first with the Trinity and second with God's family The shape of the new covenant community must reflect the Father's nature Church culture must prioritize relationship in the same way the Trinity does

God Our Teacher Robert W. Pazmino,2016-08-05 Noted Christian education professor and theorist Robert W Pazmino shares the theological essentials to guide faithful educational thought and practices in the third millennium He explores a prepositional theology that deepens the relationships between God and us through our teaching and learning together with spiritual wisdom Wrath Among the Perfections of God's Life Jeremy J. Wynne,2013-02-14 Late modern theology is marked by persistent and widespread uncertainty as to how the wrath of God can be taken up as a legitimate theme within dogmatics Rather than engage the most fundamental task of clarifying the inner logic by which God's identity is revealed in scripture privilege has been ceded either to cultural and textual criticism to ostensibly self evident moral sensibilities or to the thematization of religious experience The present work sets out to rectify this misstep The result is a rigorous proposal for understanding wrath expressly within the doctrine of God as a redemptive mode of divine righteousness Trinitarian Theology for the Church Daniel J. Treier,David Lauber,2009-03-17 These select essays brought together from the 2008 Wheaton College Theology Conference by editors Daniel J Treier and David Lauber show both the substance and the importance of the doctrine of the Trinity for our worship our reading of Scripture and the mission of the church Person,

Personhood, and the Humanity of Christ Hakbong Kim, 2021-05-19 The quest for an understanding of humanness has been significant As the ways in which we recognize and define our human being have significant impact wide ranging discussions and questions about the human have taken place with significant theoretical and practical implications In Person Personhood and the Humanity of Christ Hakbong Kim explores Thomas F Torrance s critiques of the dualist and individualistic views concerning human beings in the history of philosophy and theology This book sheds important light on Torrance s understanding of humans as persons in relation the trinitarian personhood as the ontological foundation for human personhood and the humanity of Christ as key to the personalization necessary for a new moral ethical and social life This presents a Christocentric anthropology and ethics which focuses on Christ s ongoing reconciling and humanizing ministry for us

Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra The Theology of Benedict XVI Tim Perry, 2019-10-30 God's rotweiler or shepherd of the faithful There's no doubt about Benedict XVI's theological legacy He's been at the center of every major theological controversy in the Catholic Church over the last fifty years But he remains a polarizing figure misunderstood by supporters and opponents alike A deeper understanding of Benedict's theology reveals a man dedicated to the life and faith of the church In this collection of essays prominent Protestant theologians examine and commend the work of the Pope Emeritus Katherine Sonderegger Kevin Vanhoozer and Carl Trueman among others present a full picture of Benedict's theology particularly his understanding of the relationship between faith and reason and his pursuit of truth for the church The global Christian faith can learn from Benedict's insight into the modern church and his desire to safeguard the future of the church by leaning on the wisdom of the ancient church Contributors Tim Perry Ben Myers Katherine Sonderegger Gregg R Allison Kevin J Vanhoozer R Lucas Stamps Christopher R J Holmes Fred Sanders Carl R Trueman David Ney Peter J Leithart Joey Royal Annette Brownlee Preston D S Parsons Jonathan Warren P Pagán The Pentecostal Gender Paradox Joseph Lee Dutko, 2023-11-16 The distinct subjects of eschatology and gender equality have seen an explosion of interest in recent decades particularly within Pentecostal scholarship Pentecostalism is regarded ideally as both an eschatological and egalitarian movement However many Pentecostals have lamented the inconsistency between the early egalitarian impulse of the movement and its current restrictive practices This situation has been described as the so called Pentecostal gender paradox referring to the conflicting freedoms and limitations experienced by Pentecostal women Pentecostals have also recognized the waning eschatological fervor within the movement and its shifting eschatological convictions leading to calls to rediscover the eschatological heart of the movement Despite the renewed interest in both eschatology and women's equality little research has been done to put these two areas into conversation with each other eschatological convictions are often absent in the debate on gender roles in the church For Pentecostals eschatology has often been about urgency in saving souls rather than attending to social issues but could Pentecostal eschatology be the key to re-discovering greater equality for women in the church Is the waning of both eschatology and women's equality within Pentecostalism potentially interrelated For over one hundred years the role of women in Pentecostalism has been debated without a firm consensus By examining gender solely through an eschatological lens in history Scripture and praxis this work provides a valuable and creative contribution to one of the most important theological and global issues of our time women's equality This book is also one of the first comprehensive studies to approach a single social issue solely through an eschatological lens and to provide attention to developing a thorough and methodologically connected eschatological praxis By uncovering the unified eschatological egalitarian narrative thread within both the Pentecostal and biblical story this work suggests that the present end of women s inequality begins with fidelity to the future eschaton of gender equality The Interface of Science, Theology, and Religion Dennis Ngien,2019-03-07 In celebration of Alister E McGrath s sixty fifth birthday in 2018 this Festschrift aims to highlight him as a lauded scholar who exemplifies an interface of science theology and religion It comprises works by McGrath s theological allies and colleagues from diverse ecclesial homes including Graham Ward Oliver Crisp Tony Lane Sung Wook Chung Randall Zachman Veli Matti Karkkainen Jonathan Wilson Jeffrey P Greenman Robert Kolb Sister Benedicta Ward Michael Lloyd Bethany Sollereder and Patrick Franklin Critical but appreciative is the posture with which these contributors engage the wide range of McGrath s own scholarly pursuits and publications This volume edited by Dennis Ngien covers these themes that are central to the life and witness of the church atonement Christology Trinity eschatology mission Reformation science nature culture evangelism and theodicy there is much to ponder and reap here Readers will join with the contributors and pay tribute to McGrath who has risen to a life of significance as a scientist turned theologian professor author Christian apologist and churchman Heaven Opens Matthew Lewis Sutton,2014 Adrienne von Speyr was one of the most important mystical theologians of the last century However her work has been eclipsed in many ways by her personal connection to Hans Urs von Balthasar Heaven Opens provides one of the first comprehensive accounts of von Speyr s theology Matthew Lewis Sutton argues that the eternal immanent relations of the Triune God ground the mystical theological vision of von Speyr Here von Speyr s work is for the first time given an independent hearing expositing its content features and connections and assessing its contribution to contemporary Catholic theology An Indian Trinitarian Theology of Missio Dei P. V. Joseph,2019-07-12 The recent rediscovery of the doctrine of the Trinity has left great impact on the thought and life of the Christian Church With this reinstatement the Trinity which was left out for long as an esoteric mystery has captured the imagination of theologians and elicited remarkable trinitarian formulations from across theological traditions This contemporary development has forced the church to review its dogma spirituality and Christian practices through the lens of this central doctrine of the Christian faith One of the important and essential upshots of the doctrine has been the reclamation of a theocentric and trinitarian understanding of mission as the missio Dei In view of the modern renewal of the Trinity and the global expansion of Christianity this book explores insights and perspectives from the trinitarian thoughts of St Augustine and the Indian theologian Brahmabandhab Upadhyay that can inform missio Dei theology relevant for the Indian context Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A. Cahalan,2010-08-01 Ministry is often examined in terms of who the minister is not what the minister does But the vocation to ministry must be understood as a call to identity as well as to practice one that is rooted in Jesus life and ministry as well as the Spirit s charisms In Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A Cahalan defines ministerial leadership as carried out through the practices of teaching preaching pastoral care worship social ministry and administration for the sake of nurturing the life of discipleship in the community of believers In her examination of charisms for each of the practices of ministry Cahalan presents readers with a Trinitarian foundation noting that the practices of discipleship and ministry have their origin in the very practices of God Kathleen A Cahalan is associate professor of theology at Saint John s University School of Theology Seminary in Collegeville Minnesota She is author of Formed in the Image of Christ The Sacramental Moral Theology of Bernard H ring Liturgical Press 2004 and Projects That Matter Successful Planning and Evaluation for Religious Organizations Alban Institute 2003 She is the past president of the Association of Practical Theology

The Trinitarian Christology of St Thomas Aquinas Dominic Legge, 2017 The Trinitarian Christology of St Thomas Aquinas brings to light the Trinitarian riches in Thomas Aquinas s Christology Dominic Legge O P disproves Karl Rahner s assertion that Aquinas divorces the study of Christ from the Trinity by offering a stimulating re reading of Aquinas on his own terms as a profound theologian of the Trinitarian mystery of God as manifested in and through Christ Legge highlights that for Aquinas Christology is intrinsically Trinitarian in its origin and its principles its structure and its role in the dispensation of salvation He investigates the Trinitarian shape of the incarnation itself the visible mission of the Son sent by the Father implicating the invisible mission of the Holy Spirit to his assumed human nature For Aquinas Christ s humanity at its deepest foundations incarnates the very personal being of the divine Son and Word of the Father and hence every action of Christ reveals the Father is from the Father and leads back to the Father This study also uncovers a remarkable Spirit Christology in Aquinas Christ as man stands in need of the Spirit s anointing to carry out his saving work his supernatural human knowledge is dependent on the Spirit s gift and it is the Spirit who moves and guides him in every action from Nazareth to Golgotha
