God In Nature And God In Humanity

Jörg Kurt Grütter

God In Nature And God In Humanity:

Nature, God and Humanity Richard L. Fern, 2002-04-04 This study interweaves philosophical scientific religious and cultural factors to reveal why non human animals and nature are objects of moral concern and how our well being depends on harmony with nature as it was created This argument is unique in its comprehensiveness its overt reliance on traditional forms of religious faith and its account of how those with conflicting ethics can work together to end the current foolish abuse of nature

Nature, Human Nature, and God Ian G. Barbour, Ian Barbour offers analyses of the shape and import of evolutionary theory indeterminacy neuroscience information theory and artificial intelligence He also addresses deeper philosophical issues and the idea of nature itself Then Barbour advances to the interconnected religious questions at the core of contemporary debate Are humans free Does religion itself evolve Are we immortal Is God omnipotent How does God act in nature Barbour s work offers hope that newer religious insights and imperatives occasioned by deep interaction with science can address the environmental and global challenges posed by the relentless advance of science

Nature, God and Humanity Richard L. Fern, 2002-04-04 Nature God and Humanity clarifies the task of forming an ethics of nature thereby empowering readers to develop their own critical faith based ethics Calling on original thought provoking analyses and arguments Richard L Fern frames a philosophical ethics of nature assesses it scientifically finds support for it in traditional biblical theism and situates it culturally Though defending the moral value of beliefs affirming the radical Otherness of God and human uniqueness this book aims not to compel the adoption of any particular ethic but rather illumine the contribution diverse forms of inquiry make to an ethics of nature How does philosophy clarify moral conviction What does science tell us about nature Why does religious faith matter Rejecting the illusion of a single rationally compelling ethics Fern answers these questions in a way that fosters both agreement and disagreement allowing those holding conflicting ethics of nature to work together for the common good

Through Nature to God John Fiske, 1899 God's Action in Nature's World Nathan Hallanger, 2016-04-22 In 1981 Robert John Russell founded what would become the leading center of research at the interface of science and religion the Center for Theology and the Natural Sciences Throughout its twenty five year history CTNS under Russell s leadership has continued to guide and further the dialogue between science and theology Russell has been an articulate spokesperson in calling for creative mutual interaction between the two fields God s Action in Nature s World brings together sixteen internationally recognized scholars to assess Robert Russell s impact on the discipline of science and religion Focusing on three areas of Russell s work methodology cosmology and divine action in quantum physics this book celebrates Robert John Russell s contribution to the interdisciplinary engagement between the natural sciences and theology

Basics of Perception in Architecture Jörg Kurt Grütter, 2020-10-14 This book makes the extremely complex process of architectural perception far more transparent and thus contributes to a better understanding of our built environment Why is there so much debate about the appearance of our built environment about the aesthetics of architecture today Why do opinions about the aesthetic quality of buildings often diverge extremely even among experts Why can t we agree on architecture on what is beautiful and what is not Most areas of construction such as statics and building physics are measurable and can therefore be substantiated with objective arguments Yet this does not apply to the unquantifiable aesthetics of architecture Accordingly judgments on aesthetics are always subject specific and strongly dependent on the viewer Nevertheless the aesthetics of architecture is not just a matter of taste Many relationships between buildings as objects and viewers as subjects can be determined objectively with the help of perceptual psychology and information theory as this book demonstrates The Encyclopedia Americana ,1918 Making a Way Out of No Way Monica A.

Coleman,2008 A womanist theology of change Integrates postmodern thought womanist theology and process philosophy The Humanity of God John Wright Buckham,1928 Nature and Command J. Caleb Clanton,Kraig

Martin,2023-08-18 Since at least the time of Plato religious explanations of the metaphysical foundations of morality have typically fallen into one of two camps natural law theory according to which morality is fundamentally explained by facts about human nature facts that God is responsible for and divine command theory which holds that moral obligations arise directly from God s commands or some other prescriptive act of the divine will J Caleb Clanton and Kraig Martin offer an accessible analysis of these traditional views reconstruct the various arguments for and against them and offer an extended consideration of the historical emergence of the divide between these positions within the Christian tradition Nature and Command goes on to develop and defend a theory that combines these two views a metaethical approach that has not yet received the scholarly attention it deserves Along the way the authors make use of underexplored theological resources drawn from the Stone Campbell movement a nineteenth century restoration movement that culminated in one of the largest Protestant groups in America by the dawn of the twentieth century Nature and Command summons the resources of this particular Christian heritage its first principles call for unity and ecumenism to solve one of the great dilemmas of moral philosophy and theology dating back to Plato s Euthyphro This historically aware argumentatively rigorous and highly readable volume will serve as a valuable resource for moral philosophy and ethics as well as for mining the Stone Campbell Restoration tradition for historical and theological insights The Existence Theodore Ihejieta,2018-12-21 The Existence By Theodore Ihejieta The Existence is a book of love and life that talks about the world as the existence of human beings and tells human beings to understand that the world is the love and the life It is a book of Planet Earth which the Planet Earth gave to the author because the author asked the Planet Earth for the book of the world The author is a human being who lost faith in God and called on Planet Earth to do work and save human beings from evil and death in the world This is a book of a human being who was challenged by evil and death in the world and the human being called on his existence for help and protection The author did not like to die in the world and told his existence that he did not want to die because the author believed that Planet Earth has the power to save human beings in the world The Existence is the faith the hope and the charity that God challenged human beings to find and tell the mountain of evil and death to move away from human beings

Practical Christian Theology Floyd H. Barackman, 2001-10-25 4th edition One of the best outlined one volume books on theology in print Dr Harold L Wilmington Liberty University The American Jewish Chronicle, 1917 T&T Clark Handbook of Theological Anthropology Mary Ann Hinsdale, Stephen Okey, 2021-01-28 Including classical modern and postmodern approaches to theological anthropology this volume covers the entire spectrum of thought on the doctrines of creation the human person as imago Dei sin and grace The editors have gathered an exceptionally diverse range of voices ensuring ecumenical balance Protestant Roman Catholic and Orthodox and the inclusion of previously neglected perspectives women African American Asian Latinx and LGBTQ The contributors revisit authors from the Great Tradition early church medieval and modern and discuss them alongside critical and liberationist approaches ranging from feminist decolonial and intersectional theory to critical race theory and queer performance theory This is a much needed overview of a rapidly evolving field A Korean Theology of Human Nature Jung Sun Oh, 2005-01-31 This remarkable study articulates a Korean Confucian Christian theory of human nature theory of justification sanctification and salvation by means of a reformed concept of filial piety The book investigates in depth the theological anthropology of Robert C Neville and the inclusive humanism of Tu Wei ming Neville and Tu represent contemporary Christian and Confucian approaches to religious anthropology Furthermore they have engaged in an extended and productive dialogical encounter on the themes of comparative thought and religious renewal in Asia and North America This book argues that Neville's and Tu's insights into human nature have great relevance for a comparative contemporary Korean theology by focusing on the role of a reformed version of filial piety as a new component of Korean theology The articulation of filial piety as a potential key of contemporary Korean theology is an example of creative appropriation of a Confucian theme of the Christian praxis of sanctification and ultimately the soteriology of divine grace and transformation This study construes human nature to be such that any living theology will reflect the creative engagement of Christian theologians as public intellectuals in search of the articulation of the gospel The Nature of Church Camp Christopher W. Anderson, 2023-12-18 The Nature of Church Camp An Environmental History of Outdoor Ministry 1945-1980 by Christopher W Anderson explores the mid twentieth century history of religious camps and retreat centers to provide new insights into the history of environmentalism in the United States Ecumenical Protestantism and the ecology movement both changed the calculus of American morality after World War II Through archival material case study visits and oral histories Anderson finds that these institutions often reacted to ecological critiques with temperate but gradual reforms However camps and outdoor ministries by virtue of their natural settings and sizable acreage soon provided a new way to explore the history of spirituality and ecology moving away from the conference campus and using nostalgia for the frontier instead to make arguments about the meaning of the American nation and the value of democracy This new way of thinking was reflected throughout the camps and enthusiastically endorsed decentralized small group camping By examining the conduct of church camps and conferences before during and after the ecological era Anderson shows how environmental stewardship became the dominant paradigm for Protestant environmentalism why that is a flawed and fractious model and why it has stalled Breaking the Thread of Life Robert Laurence Barry, 1994-01-01 Suicide and how civilized people should respond to it is an increasingly controversial topic in modern society In Holland suicide is the third leading cause of death of people between the ages of fifteen and forty In the United States it is the second leading cause of death among older teenagers Laws prohibiting assisted suicide are being directly and boldly confronted by activists in the United States most notably Jack Kevorkian Meanwhile the American Civil Liberties Union has publicly declared suicide a fundamental human right that should be protected under the Constitution The Hemlock Society has introduced referenda in California Washington and Oregon to legalize suicide and assisted suicide The most vocal opposition to these initiatives has come from the Roman Catholic church Breaking the Thread of Life marshalls philosophical moral medical historical and theological arguments in support of the Roman Catholic position against suicide In a comprehensive study of the history of suicide Barry shows that Christian civilization was one of only a few early societies that was able to bring suicide under control He counters claims that Catholicism and the Bible endorse rational suicide Barry also analyzes arguments in support of the rationality of suicide and illuminates their biases inadequacies and dangers Barry presents the rationale for the Roman Catholic church s strong extensive and articulate opposition to efforts to gain legal and social endorsement of suicide and assisted suicide His book represents the most complete study of the classical Roman Catholic view of rational suicide to date and it will be of significant interest to philosophers theologians physicians and lawyers The Works of Thomas Goodwin ... With General Preface by John C. Miller ... and Memoir by Robert Halley Thomas GOODWIN (D.D.), 1862 The Fellowship of Life Joseph Woodill, 1998 This book fills a vacuum in our understanding of the Eastern Church by revealing themes persons and insights that offer resources for a contemporary moral theology Reviewing the Eastern tradition from patristic times to the present Woodill shows its relevance to contemporary virtue ethics and identifies both differences and similarities between Orthodox and other Catholic Protestant and Jewish virtue ethics Woodill s study centers on the fundamental elements of classical Greek ethics telos practice virtue community narrative and mentoring He analyzes the ancient Greek fathers and the writings of modern Orthodox ethicists Stanley Harakas Vigen Gurolan and Christos Yannaras to show how those elements relate to the process of Christian transformation He then demonstrates how the movement from creation to redemption contains an implicit virtue ethic Redeeming the Gospel David A. Brondos, For many people today the Christian gospel as traditionally articulated has become irrelevant and meaningless making it necessary to rethink our understanding of the gospel Redeeming the Gospel examines the central themes traditionally associated with Lutheran theology including especially law and gospel the work of Christ and the doctrine of justification by grace through faith in order to deconstruct and reconstruct our understanding of the gospel so that it may be proclaimed in a way that responds to the needs and concerns of our world today
