Godawful Connections Between Biblical Journeys And Life Transitions:

Godawful Andre Papineau, 2004 Whether it's leaving home having children losing a parent or retiring we spend much of our lives passing through transitions and it is often very stressful to cope with changing circumstances as we feel lost confused and depressed sometimes even wondering Where is God in all of this But if we think of biblical journey stories such as the Prodigal Son or Jonah's journey to Nineveh as accounts of life transitions we can begin to understand the profound spirituality of our own transitions no matter how godawful the experiences may seem This enlightening book demonstrates how the hand of God yes even Godawful is at work in our everyday lives Each chapter includes helpful exercises and discussion questions making it an ideal individual or group study resource Andre Papineau writes about identity and authenticity with penetrating clarity He grounds the religious search and the human equation in our passion to be truthful The truth will make us free This book shows us how that is accomplished The sources used the stories told even the discussion questions are compelling Anthony T Padovano Distinguished Professor of American Literature Religious Studies Ramapo College Andre Papineau brings to this book his deep familiarity with the scriptures his knowledge of psychology and his common sense honed in a lifetime of experience With deep wisdom and perceptive insight he helps us understand better both important biblical passages and the transitions that occur in all our lives All pilgrim Christians can learn much from this book Charles E Curran Elizabeth Scurlock Professor of Human Values Southern Methodist University Andre Papineau is the maestro of the liminal emcee in the cabaret called Transition which is always open and whose customers are always edgy confused and desperate to get out It isn't simplistic psychobabble pabulum he offers here but hard good advice the kind grownups need in order to advance to the next grade Each of these chapters is a meditation on the strange and intermittently glorious thing called being alive Russell Shorto Author of Gospel Truth Once again Father Papineau has gifted us with a unique blend of theology psychology and biblical savvy He reminds the reader that life is a process and as such is a succession of transitions reflected in innumerable personal and collective stories Using this as a central template he takes the reader deep into the exegetical and imaginative core of several critical biblical events This is a book of inclusive theology in understandable and relevant story form Frederick R Gustafson Editor of The Moonlit Path Reflections on the Dark Feminine Andre Papineau is a Salvatorian priest and associate professor of pastoral studies at Sacred Heart School of Theology in Franklin Wisconsin A frequent lecturer on life stages and the co-founder of the C G Jung Center in Milwaukee Father Papineau is the author of ten previous books including Lightly Goes The Good News CSS and is a member of The Abraham Group www.abrahamgroup.com He holds degrees in theology and drama from Catholic University and the University of Notre Dame

The Role of Religion in Peacebuilding Pauline Kollontai, Sue Yore, Sebastian Kim, 2017-12-14

The question who is my neighbour challenges the way we see ourselves as well as the way we see others Especially in situations where we feel conflicted between our own self identity and common identity within a wider society Historically religion has contributed to this inner conflict by creating us versus them mentalities Challenging this traditional view this volume examines how religions and religious communities can use their resources methodology and praxis to encourage peace making The book is divided into two parts the first includes sources theories and methodologies of crossing boundaries of prejudice and distrust from the perspectives of theology and religious studies The second includes case studies of theory and practice to challenge prejudice and distrust in a conflict or post conflict situation The chapters are written by scholars religious leaders and faith motivated peace practitioners from various global contexts to create a diverse academic study of religious peace building American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker
