

"self-control" follows knowledge,<sup>127</sup> so that the believer is responsible to practice what he knows.

Now while this is the fruit of the Spirit, we must keep in mind that the Holy Spirit operates in us as we cooperate with Him. If we refuse to yield to Him, His fruit cannot be borne in us. When Paul used the figure of a race to illustrate the life of Christian service, he made it plain that the winner "is temperate in all things,"<sup>128</sup> "Rigid self-denial over a period of time was necessary in order to compete in a contest that might last but a few minutes, and then the prize was merely temporal. How willing a Christian should be to subject himself to self-control, discipline, and self-denial in order that he might serve his Lord in an acceptable manner! If there is to be victory for us, it can be only as we allow the Holy Spirit to rule our human spirit.

Oh, are we satisfied to live a negative life that is unfruitful? Let us heed God's Word so that it does not become unfruitful in our lives.<sup>129</sup> Let us give diligence to the truth that we "shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."<sup>130</sup> If we are living in sham or pretense, we are "trees . . . without fruit."<sup>131</sup> When we tamper with this world, there can be no fruit;<sup>132</sup> therefore "have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness."<sup>133</sup> Christians are to keep occupied in the holy things of God, "to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful."<sup>134</sup> Yield yourself to the Holy Spirit's leading and He will bring forth His fruit in you.
