the incarnate word in the womb of the immaculately conceived Virgin Mary God wants to be man and receive a new body to defeat death through Jesus Christ Man wants to become God to receive eternal life Man's journey to become God starts from being an ignorant baby gaining knowledge to a cowardly teenager obtaining courage to an adult converting greed to generosity to a wise man changing selfishness to unselfishness and at last to a free man able to think for himself in eternal service to God in his kingdom The journey requires him to know right from wrong good from evil and God's will from man's will and thus defeat evil worldly temptations and demonic possession Through Christ God and man are destined to become one through three advents making the God Man Christ into the new human spirit blessings Then the Man God Jesus becomes the new human flesh to make all things perfect in the sight of God Jesus Christ came as a priest on a donkey to decode the Torah bring knowledge and remove blindness to defeat sin By his death and resurrection he granted free redemption to man's flesh to give him a new body The second coming of Jesus Christ as thief in the night will bring awakening to remove deafness by teaching God's truths to defeat evil As a just judge on a cloud on his third advent the Lord will remove mankind's dumbness to defeat death And then man can become worthy of receiving God's rewards of paradise in heaven or heaven on earth

God's Tapestry William M. Kondrath, 2008-04-14 Our differences are our greatest blessings and our greatest challenges maintains William Kondrath Episcopal priest and seminary professor Theologically and ecologically differences foster life and growth but discord within denominations and congregations frequently have to do with the inability of individuals and groups to deeply understand and value differences In God's Tapestry Kondrath shows us how to embrace our multiculturalism our differences of race culture gender age theology language sexual identity and so forth He does this by exploring differences on four levels personal interpersonal institutional and cultural He also demonstrates a threefold process for becoming multicultural recognizing our differences understanding those differences and their significance and consequences and valuing or celebrating those differences While ministry is the work of the faith community not only ordained or professional staff it is critical that leaders learn the art and skill of recognizing understanding and valuing differences Then the congregations and agencies they serve having learned and practiced the art and skill of celebrating differences can be the yeast that brings this awareness of God's diverse blessings to the wider world

Making of a Monarch Peter Bailey, 2020-06-09 Remember when you first accepted Jesus Christ work into your life You felt loved accepted and favoured by God But did those feelings last Often they don't This book will give you a fresh understanding of Salvation of Christ and His cross and will restore your passion to know more of Christ and all that Jesus won for you Salvation may appear complicated In truth it's amazingly simple Consider the Monarch butterfly Nature foreshadows the cross in its chrysalis From a worm nature fashions a new creation finished perfect Nothing more to add God did the same for mankind All were crucified in Christ on His cross He blessed us with all we need to be like Him Now Jesus sees you as perfect righteous totally forgiven free of guilt and condemnation and much more This is the GOOD NEWS of the Gospel But if Christ did all this what do I do Jesus told us Man's greatest work is to BELIEVE in Jesus work on the cross This study will show all He won for us and the purpose for the cross to indwell believers It cost Jesus everything to be in us it will cost you everything to be in Him Christ in you will finish all He accomplished at the cross a likeness of Himself in you Monarch butterflies are aerial wonders of the sky we as believers with Christ in us are wonders of the Father's Kingdom soaring as new creations in Christ on wings of His grace Change is man's ordained destiny Believing is the key that turns redemption's lock The more we are drawn to partner with Jesus and to others in Christ's Body the greater the change will be in us and the

Farrar,2016-04-15 Americans no longer have the luxury of water cooler debates between ACLU members and the religious right over whether someone may be irreparably harmed by hearing a prayer before a high school football game There are people around this world which is getting smaller more crowded and easier to access than ever before who are really into their religionand they are interested in how you feel about that They love and consider their god to be exclusive They dont believe your god is equal to theirs and they dont care how that strikes you Political correctness does not impress them Their god does      The Colors of Zion George Bornstein, 2011-02-01 A major reevaluation of relationships among Blacks, Jews, and Irish in the years between the Irish Famine and the end of World War II. The Colors of Zion argues that the cooperative efforts and sympathies among these three groups, each persecuted and subjugated in its own way, were much greater than often acknowledged today. For the Black, Jewish, and Irish writers, poets, musicians, and politicians at the center of this transatlantic study, a sense of shared wrongs inspired repeated outpourings of sympathy. If what they have to say now surprises us, it is because our current constructions of interracial and ethnic relations have overemphasized conflict and division. As George Bornstein says in his Introduction, he chooses to let the principals speak for themselves. While acknowledging past conflicts and tensions, Bornstein insists on recovering the lost connections through which these groups frequently defined their plights as well as their aspirations. In doing so, he examines a wide range of materials, including immigration laws, lynching, hostile race theorists, Nazis, and Klansmen; discriminatory university practices; and Jewish publishing houses alongside popular plays like The Melting Pot and Abie's Irish Rose, canonical novels like Ulysses and Daniel Deronda, music from slave spirituals to jazz, poetry, and early films such as The Jazz Singer. The models of brotherhood that extended beyond ethnocentrism a century ago, the author argues, might do so once again today if only we bear them in mind. He also urges us to move beyond arbitrary and invidious categories of race and ethnicity.
