Gods Irregular Arthur Shearly Cripps A Rhodesian Epic:

God's Irregular: Arthur Shearly Cripps Douglas Van Steere,1973 Book Douglas Van Steere,1970 God's Irregular: Arthur Shearly Cripps Douglas Van Steere,1973 Church and Settler in Colonial Zimbabwe Pamela Welch,2008-08-31 This book examines the history of the Anglican Diocese of Mashonaland Southern Rhodesia virtually co extensive with modern Zimbabwe in the period 1890 1925 when its institutions took shape and its religious character was formed While work among indigenous communities is outlined the primary subject is the church's work with white settlers A fresh general narrative is provided and an examination of clergy recruitment and finance relates events in Mashonaland to developments in global Anglicanism Among the questions addressed are those of religion and empire church and state and the complexities of relationship between the Church of England and her overseas extensions particularly those covering areas of white settlement Local developments in religious practice are also explored most striking of these was the settler apprehension of the vast landscapes of South Central Africa as a locus of the sacred and their custom of veld burial

Arthur Shearly Cripps John Robert Doyle, 1975 Maronda Mashanu: The History Of A Community Murray Steele, 2017-03-08 The Maronda Mashona Five Wounds of Christ community was set up in colonial Zimbabwe just over a century ago by the missionary poet redoubtable champion of African rights and fierce critic of imperialist oppression Rev Arthur Shearly Cripps This book describes the evolution of the community from its beginnings as a mission sanctuary for black people who had been deprived of their lands or had suffered oppression at the hands of white farmers and officials Following Cripps s death in 1952 the Maronda Mashona community evolved into a conjunction of small scale landholders and communal area cultivators tied together by their common identification with the legacy of Baba Cripps It is the culmination of the author's long association with the Maronda Mashanu community going back several decades and is based on extensive oral and documentary evidence The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe, 2008 Columbia s guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent s rich and diverse literary traditions This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development Costly Communion ,2019-01-28 Costly Communion Ecumenical Initiative and Sacramental Strife in the Anglican Communion seeks to engage with Anglicanism s theological responses to the onset of the twilight of empire and to explore the diversity of Anglican sacramental and ecumenical controversies during the twentieth century From sacramental initiation and the doctrine of Eucharistic sacrifice to church order and the historic episcopate Costly Communion offers insights into Anglo Catholic and Evangelical attempts to resolve the divisions provoked by the impact of the Oxford Movement from the 1830s In its engagement with sub Saharan African contextualization of the Anglican moreover Costly Communion analyses the unanticipated threat that Anglican diversity now poses for the unity of the Anglican Communion Contributors are Jeff Boldt Jeremy Bonner Hugh Bowron Mark Chapman Colin Buchanan Ken Farrimond Joseph Galgalo Benjamin Guyer Charlotte Methuen Thomas Mhuriro Esther Mombo Zablon Nthamburi Kevin Ward African Music, Power, and Being in Colonial Zimbabwe Mhoze Chikowero, 2015-11-24 In this new history of music in Zimbabwe Mhoze Chikowero deftly uses African sources to interrogate the copious colonial archive reading it as a confessional voice along and against the grain to write a complex history of music colonialism and African self liberation Chikowero s book begins in the 1890s with missionary crusades against African performative cultures and African students being inducted into mission bands which contextualize the music of segregated urban and mining company dance halls in the 1930s and he builds genealogies of the Chimurenga music later popularized by guerrilla artists like Dorothy Masuku Zexie Manatsa Thomas Mapfumo and others in the 1970s Chikowero shows how Africans deployed their music and indigenous knowledge systems to fight for their freedom from British colonial domination and to assert their cultural sovereignty Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected A History of the Church in Africa Bengt Sundkler, Christopher Steed, 2000-05-04 Bengt Sundkler s long awaited book on African Christian churches will become the standard reference for the subject South America Since 1800 A. J. H. Latham, 1995 A reference for graduate and undergraduate students presenting the bibliographic details and sometimes describing and evaluating the content of over 5 000 books in English most published since 1945 and many quite recently but also some earlier works of enduring importance A section of works on all three continents is followed by sections on each which first consider the continent as a whole then each country usually by chronological periods and topics such as economics politics and society Indexed only by author and editor but the table of contents is detailed enough to provide adequate access Distributed in the US by St Martin's Press Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or The Last British Liberals in Africa Dickson Mungazi, 1999-05-30 A study of the clash of two traditions British liberalism and African nationalism and an examination of how Michael Blundell in Kenya and Garfield Todd in Zimbabwe used their liberal backgrounds to further the future of their adopted countries despite threats and detention Both Blundell and Todd believed that political leaders had a responsibility to serve the needs of the people as a condition of national development By the time each came to power European colonization had had a profoundly negative effect on the lives of Africans Blundell and Todd sought to correct this by putting their positive views of Africans into practice While colonial governments designed strategies for controlling Africans to serve political and economic interests at home in Europe Africans themselves established their own effective strategy not only to ensure their survival in the colonial setting but also to initiate a process for the restoration of their sense of self Michael Blundell and Garfield Todd with their liberal beliefs served as excellent allies in this period of a rising African consciousness Using sources obtained in Kenya and Zimbabwe over the past 15 years this work examines democratic traditions that have survived tumultuous times in recent years Horizons of Mission Titus Presler, 2001-05-25 In this volume of The New Church's Teaching Series Titus Presler offers a fresh vision of mission in the multicultural environment of a global community Arguing that Christian mission expresses God's longing to embrace humanity in love Presler explores how gospel understandings are being reshaped by Christians in Africa Asia and Latin America Christianity s new centers of gravity He explores the scriptural basis of mission historical and contemporary Anglican approaches to mission the encounter with other religions and the interaction of gospel and culture His ten principles for mission in the twenty first century will help parishes and dioceses to engage in world mission as companions in mutuality As with each book in The New Church's Teaching Series recommended resources for further reading and questions for discussion are included Arthur Shearly Cripps Arthur Shearly Cripps,1976 Light on Darkness? T. Jack Thompson,2012-04-20 In its earliest days photography was seen as depicting its subjects with such objectivity as to be inherently free of ideological bias Today we are rightly more skeptical at least most of the time When it comes to photography from the past we tend to set some of our skepticism aside But should we In Light on Darkness T Jack Thompson a leading historian of African Christianity revisits the body of photography generated by British missionaries to sub Saharan Africa in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and demonstrates that much more is going on in these images than meets the eye This volume offers a careful reassessment of missionary photographers their photographs and their African and European audiences Several dozen fascinating photographs from the period are included Third World/Iowa: Africa University of Iowa.
